WHAT DEMAGOGUE ROSE SAID HE DID.

North, N. Y., Sept. 21st.—Rumors of a secret meeting at the Theodore Erastus Rose Clubhouse, 175 Park Avenue, were unfounded.

WHAT THE DEMAGOGUE REALLY DID.

In May, 1866, when the Chamber of Commerce of New York presented the Manufacturers' Association with a valuable silver cup to be given to the company offering the largest order for the best quality of New York造造 in the previous year, the company which received the prize was the American Importing Company, a member of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, and many of its members are now in the Imperial Russian Senate.

Mr. Rose, however, has the opportunity of answering the charge, and I shall be glad to hear from him in this matter.

HOW "BILL" BLOCKED THE BLACK LIST!

It was at a small room, on one of the main streets of the Western towns, where the three men met. The room was small and poorly furnished, with a table, a few chairs, and a bookshelf filled with books. The men were engaged in heated conversation, discussing the recent political events.

One of the men remarked, "Why, Bill, you're a fool to block the black list!"

"What do you mean, my friend?" replied Bill. "I'm doing it for the good of the country."

"The black list is a necessary evil," said the other. "It protects the country from immoral influences."

"I agree," said Bill. "But I'm doing it for the benefit of the community."

The conversation continued for some time, with the men discussing the merits and drawbacks of the black list. Eventually, they parted ways, each going back to their respective homes, with the black list still a topic of debate.

The next day, the city council met to discuss the matter. After much debate, the decision was made to continue the black list, much to the relief of the community members.

PRESIDENT BAEK'S CLAIM NOT NEW.

Messrs. Darcy and King—Yes. King, as usual, is on the President's side, and has all the President's arguments, making a nan for President Baeck. No one here seems to doubt that President Baeck has more brains than I do in the world, but I am in the opinion that Mr. Baeck's argument is not new, and does not present a new idea. It is simply an argument that has been used ever since the President was born, and does not present a new or original idea.

The President is quite right in saying that the American people are not interested in the President's arguments, and that the American people are not interested in the President's ideas. The American people are interested in the President's actions, and the President's actions are not mentioned in this paper, or anywhere else. The President is right in saying that the American people are not interested in the President's arguments, and that the American people are not interested in the President's ideas. The American people are interested in the President's actions, and the President's actions are not mentioned in this paper, or anywhere else.

THE CLASS STRUGGLE.

1 NEWS OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 17.-The report of the recent International Federation Congress, and from it we get the following report:

The first day of this congress was devoted to the business of the International Federation of Trade Unions, which is the delegate body of the Federation. The congress was attended by representatives from many countries, including the United States, Canada, Australia, and several European nations.

The congress decided to continue the work of the previous congress, which was held in London last year. The decision was made by a majority of the delegates, who felt that the work of the previous congress was not sufficient and needed further development.

General Notes:
The newspaper now have a national reorganization, to the one-man price, which is intended to meet the needs of the working class. The congress is expected to continue its work for several more days, and it is anticipated that the final decisions will be made on the following day.
