NEWSPAPER HEADLINE:

"OH NO! NO FUSING!"

"Some Republican newspapers now oppose the idea of fusion for the purpose of bringing them to their feet during the last years of the party."

"One of the first steps taken by the National Committee was to secure a majority of the state fusion papers and their leaders to support the fusion movement."

CLOSING SESSIONS OF THE ST. LOUIS MEETING.

Saturday forenoon, Jan. 29, 1905.

With the close of the convention of the United States Federation of Women's Clubs, a little note should be inserted in these columns to call the attention of the members of the Wisconsin Federation to the fact that the work is now to begin where it ended last year. The Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual meeting on Monday, March 18th, at the Hotel Madison, Madison, Wis., and all members of the organization are urged to attend and shoulder their full share of the work which is dear to their hearts.

The Wisconsin Federation is the voice of the women of Wisconsin. It is the instrument for expressing the will of the women of the state, and it is the agency for carrying out their interests.

February is Women's History Month. The theme for this year is "Women's Suffrage and the Vote." The Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs will hold a series of events to commemorate this important milestone in the history of the United States.

The Federation will hold a special meeting on Monday, March 18th, at the Hotel Madison, Madison, Wis., and all members of the organization are urged to attend and shoulder their full share of the work which is dear to their hearts.

It is hoped that this meeting will be a great success and that the Federation will continue to be a strong voice for the women of Wisconsin.
