A SPECULATIVE TRUST.

It is now well known that the Delaware Railroad Company has a working capital of $700,000,000, and that it has a net surplus of over $100,000,000. It is also known that the company is one of the largest and most extensive in the country, and that it is one of the most important in the world. It is therefore safe to say that the company is in a position to pay dividends without any difficulty.

The company's record shows that it has paid dividends every year since its organization, and that it has paid dividends in large amounts every year. It is also known that the company has a large surplus, and that it is in a position to pay dividends without any difficulty.

THE PROSPERITY-MAKERS; OR, THE TRAGEDY OF MURPHY TOWN.

BY A WELL-KNOWN WRITER.

CHAPTER XVI—In which Philip in his youth was involved in a love affair.

Philip was a strong and able youth, and during his school days he was in the habit of going to the town and spending his leisure hours in the company of the young ladies of the town. He was particularly fond of a young lady named Mary, who was also one of the leading lights of the school. Philip and Mary were often seen walking hand in hand along the streets of Murphy Town, and their earnest conversations were often the subject of much comment among the other students.

One day, while walking together, Philip suddenly stopped and turned to Mary with a look of the deepest seriousness. "Mary," he said, "I have something important to tell you. I have fallen in love with you, and I want you to know that I am prepared to give you everything that I possess, so that we may marry and lead a happy life together.

"Mary," he continued, "I have been thinking things over, and I have come to the conclusion that I cannot allow this love affair to continue. We must make a decision, and I believe that it will be for the best if we break it off and go our separate ways.

"I know," he added, "that this may come as a shock to you, but I am sure that it is for the best. I must go on with my studies and my career, and I cannot allow this love affair to distract me. I want you to be happy, and I believe that it will be best if we part company.

"I am so sorry," Mary replied, "but I understand. I know that this must be the right thing to do. I will not try to make you stay, and I will support myself. I will work hard and try to make a success of my life. I will not be a burden to you.

"Good-bye," Philip said, "and God bless you. I will always love you, and I will never forget you."

Philip then left Mary and went back to his studies. He worked hard and succeeded in getting a good position. He married a woman who was very good to him, and he had a happy life. Mary, on the other hand, never married and spent her life working hard to support herself. She never forgot Philip, and she often thought of him with love and affection. She died in poverty, and her name is still remembered in Murphy Town as the great love affair of Philip's youth.

The end of the story is left to the imagination of the reader.

"His Masters' Voice" - Will He Heed It?

Or is the Hanna-Civic Federation Influence Greater Than the Cry of the Great Working Class?

They demand the Full Fruits of their Labor, which Means the Downfall of Capitalism.

This fair President Gompers has been conducting the American Federation of Labor as parasitical grafters, as TRIBUNAL OF THE DEBTS FOR LABORERS. By urging the enactment of an opiate-capitalist, paper, but how long can it retain the confidence of rank and file of the union? THEY ARE DESTROYING THE USE OF THE GREATEST WEAPON OF ALL - THE BALLOT, through the Labor Press.

Hards are daily and weekly increasing towards this class that they can be understood by the masses. Capital is organized in a large number of workers who have no thought of the masses having no thought of the present.

We are demanding the Full Fruits of Labor, which Means the Downfall of Capitalism. President Gompers is not only a parasitic grafters, but he is also a traitor to the class that he claims to be representing.
