THERE'S WORK TO BE DONE!

BY VICTOR L. BERGER.

The Social Democrats, who, during the presidential campaign, boldly and consistently advocated a program of political action, are now confronted with the necessity of putting their principles into practice. The Social Democrats, who have always emphasized the necessity of working for the economic and political emancipation of the working class, are now faced with the task of putting their program into effect. Gleanings from Busy Socialistic Fields!

NOTE: In some states the organization is known as the Socialist Party, in others as the Social Democratic Party. When the latter name is used, the meaning is the same.

FROM YANK TARS

The Bad Idea is another one out from Union Pacific—some day the company is going to have a socialist member on its directors' bench. Mr. E. H. Young, the company's general counsel, was quoted in the New York Times as saying that the company's directors were considering the appointment of a socialist to its board.

Eldridge, speaking at the Socialistic, Democratic, Socialistic and Labor party meeting in New York, said: "The Eight Hour Strike fund of the American Federation of Labor is now in the hands of the labor union which is in control of the organization. This fund is controlled by the socialist party, which is the only effective force in the labor movement."

On the other hand, Mr. Young, the company's general counsel, said: "We are not opposed to socialism, but we do not see any advantage in having a socialist member on our directors' bench."
This is a Nation of No-Citizens. J.
J. Kennedy, Chicago, who speaks for the national interest in the General Electric Office, writes to us: "This is a nation of no-citizens.
The 5% that are citizens are working, marrying, and having children. The 95% that are non-citizens are working, moving, and dying. The 95% that are non-citizens are equal in ability, qualities, and values to the 5% that are citizens.
They are equal in every respect except for citizenship.

What International Socialism Demands:
1. Collective ownership of all public utilities and all industry in the an industry.
2. Economic management of all owner-operated industries.
3. Nationalization of all natural resources for the nation.
4. Nationalization of all capital resources for the nation.

Military and the other Powers of Capitalist Govern-mint are forcing Labor to it!

HALF HOURS IN THE HERALD SANCTUM.

The editors of the New York Herald have decided to inaugurate a new department, entitled "Half Hours in the Herald Sanctum." This department will be devoted to the confessions of the editors and writers of the Herald, and will give the readers an opportunity to learn more about the daily round of work in this great newspaper.

The first article in this series is written by the editor of the Herald, Mr. John Smith. In it, he describes his daily routine, from the moment he rises in the morning until he goes to bed at night. He talks about the work he does, the people he meets, and the experiences he has.

Mr. Smith says: "I rise at six o'clock, have breakfast, and then go to work at seven. I spend the next six hours writing articles and editing the newspaper. At noon, I have lunch, and then work for another three hours. In the afternoon, I take a walk in Central Park, and then return to the office for another two hours of work.

Mr. Smith also talks about the people he works with, and the atmosphere of the office. He says that the Herald is a place where people of all backgrounds and experiences come together to create a great newspaper. He finds it very rewarding to be part of this process.

Overall, Mr. Smith's article gives a glimpse into the world of newspaper publishing, and shows the hard work and dedication that goes into creating a daily newspaper.

In the next installment of this series, we will hear from another editor of the Herald, who will give us a different perspective on the work of the paper. We look forward to sharing these stories with our readers in the weeks to come.
