Farmers Should Be Socialists.

They Should Study the New Philosophy and the New Politics

By Thomas.

The farmers of this country are today suffering from a very serious condition of affairs. They are being squeezed from both ends. On the one side, the speculators and monopolists are holding them down by the use of artificial prices. On the other side, the manufacturers and dealers are forcing them up by the use of artificial wages.

The condition of the farmer is one of great distress. He is unable to secure a living wage for his labor, and he is unable to purchase the necessities of life at a reasonable price. The result is that the farmer is being driven into debt, and his land is being taken from him by the mortgagee.

The solution of this problem lies in the organization of the farmers into a political party. They should form a political party that will stand for the interests of the farmers, and will work for the elimination of the speculators and monopolists.

The farmers of this country are not being given a fair deal. They are being taken advantage of by the speculators and monopolists. They are being forced to sell their produce at a price that is less than the cost of production.

The farmers should study the new philosophy and the new politics. They should learn how to organize themselves into a political party, and how to effect a change in the political system.

A Gentleman's Solution of the Labor Problem.

A
gorism

A gentleman recently came to me and said, "I want to make the farmers of this country understand the facts of the situation that exist today. They are being squeezed from both ends. On the one side, the speculators and monopolists are holding them down by the use of artificial prices. On the other side, the manufacturers and dealers are forcing them up by the use of artificial wages.

The condition of the farmer is one of great distress. He is unable to secure a living wage for his labor, and he is unable to purchase the necessities of life at a reasonable price. The result is that the farmer is being driven into debt, and his land is being taken from him by the mortgagee.

The solution of this problem lies in the organization of the farmers into a political party. They should form a political party that will stand for the interests of the farmers, and will work for the elimination of the speculators and monopolists.

The farmers should study the new philosophy and the new politics. They should learn how to organize themselves into a political party, and how to effect a change in the political system.

The gentleman then proceeded to explain the facts of the situation to me. He said that the farmers are being squeezed from both ends. On the one side, the speculators and monopolists are holding them down by the use of artificial prices. On the other side, the manufacturers and dealers are forcing them up by the use of artificial wages.

The condition of the farmer is one of great distress. He is unable to secure a living wage for his labor, and he is unable to purchase the necessities of life at a reasonable price. The result is that the farmer is being driven into debt, and his land is being taken from him by the mortgagee.

The solution of this problem lies in the organization of the farmers into a political party. They should form a political party that will stand for the interests of the farmers, and will work for the elimination of the speculators and monopolists.

The farmers should study the new philosophy and the new politics. They should learn how to organize themselves into a political party, and how to effect a change in the political system.

A gentleman recently came to me and said, "I want to make the farmers of this country understand the facts of the situation that exist today. They are being squeezed from both ends. On the one side, the speculators and monopolists are holding them down by the use of artificial prices. On the other side, the manufacturers and dealers are forcing them up by the use of artificial wages.

The condition of the farmer is one of great distress. He is unable to secure a living wage for his labor, and he is unable to purchase the necessities of life at a reasonable price. The result is that the farmer is being driven into debt, and his land is being taken from him by the mortgagee.

The solution of this problem lies in the organization of the farmers into a political party. They should form a political party that will stand for the interests of the farmers, and will work for the elimination of the speculators and monopolists.

The farmers should study the new philosophy and the new politics. They should learn how to organize themselves into a political party, and how to effect a change in the political system.

A gentleman recently came to me and said, "I want to make the farmers of this country understand the facts of the situation that exist today. They are being squeezed from both ends. On the one side, the speculators and monopolists are holding them down by the use of artificial prices. On the other side, the manufacturers and dealers are forcing them up by the use of artificial wages.

The condition of the farmer is one of great distress. He is unable to secure a living wage for his labor, and he is unable to purchase the necessities of life at a reasonable price. The result is that the farmer is being driven into debt, and his land is being taken from him by the mortgagee.

The solution of this problem lies in the organization of the farmers into a political party. They should form a political party that will stand for the interests of the farmers, and will work for the elimination of the speculators and monopolists.

The farmers should study the new philosophy and the new politics. They should learn how to organize themselves into a political party, and how to effect a change in the political system.

A gentle
The Beacon Light of Socialism.

BREEDING is now new our path. We have seen the day, as it is said, of anarchistic rebellion and we shall witness the day, as it is said, of the destruction of the old social order. The old civilization is passing away, and a new one is taking its place. The old order has been the source of much misery and suffering, but the new order will bring peace and happiness. The old order was built upon the foundations of greed and selfishness, but the new order will be founded upon the principles of cooperation and fraternity. The old order was characterized by class distinction and inequality, but the new order will be characterized by equality and brotherhood.

The basis of Socialism and Socialism in its true sense is the belief in the equality of all men and the promotion of the general welfare. Socialism is the doctrine that the means of production should be owned and controlled by the working class and that the profits should be distributed according to the needs of the community. Socialism is the only solution to the problem of human suffering and it is the only hope for the future. The Socialists are the only ones who can save the world.

The strife of Socialism is identical with the struggle of Christianity. — Thomas Einck, European Bulletin.

citizens.

X:

Whit International Socialism Demands:
1. Collective ownership of all land and all industries by the local government.
2. Universal suffrage and equal political rights for women.
3. Abolition of the property system and the abolition of the family.
4. Equal rights for all races and for all classes.

For the benefit of the working man, the Socialists demand:
1. A six-hour day.
2. Eight hours for work and eight hours for recreation.
3. The eight-hour day is the law of the land.

For the benefit of the individual, the Socialists demand:
1. The right to own and control the means of production.
2. The right to share in the profits of production.
3. The right to control the government.

For the benefit of the community, the Socialists demand:
1. The establishment of a social security system.
2. The establishment of a labor exchange.
3. The establishment of a labor union.

For the benefit of the world, the Socialists demand:
1. The establishment of a world government.
2. The establishment of a world currency.
3. The establishment of a world culture.

The Socialists are the only ones who can save the world. The Socialists are the only ones who can bring about the millennium. The Socialists are the only ones who can make the world safe for democracy. The Socialists are the only ones who can make the world safe for humanity.