WHAT INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISM DEMANDS:

1. Full political and economic rights for all races and nationalities.
2. Abolition of slavery and serfdom.
3. Abolition of the division of society into classes with their concomitant exploitation and base.
4. Abolition of private property.
5. Abolition of the State and its machinery.

The bulk of our Social-Democrats are Republicans. All women of any opinion, who believe in the power of the working class to secure their rights, are at home in the ranks of the Social-Democrats. But let us not forget that there are very few Social-Democrats who believe in the power of the working class to secure their rights.

Gleanings from Busy Socialistic Fields!

NOTES: In some states the organization is known as the Socialist Party, in other states as the Social Democratic Party. When the term "Socialist" is used it does not refer to those unions, but to the labor bodies that advocate the principles of socialism.
