For the Congressional, State, and Local Candidates.

UNPRECEDENTED ENTHUSIASM

Surging Crowds Fill Two Milwaukee Halls to Hear the Peabody Debt

The West Side Opera House, with a full house, and the Pabst Grand Hall,打扮 for the occasion, were given over for the reception and address of the Democratic candidates for president of the United States. President Roosevelt, Mr. Debs, and Mr. Hanford were present, and they were welcomed and cheered with enthusiasm by the people present. The hall was crowded, and the big banquet and reception were succeeded by a workingman's gathering, at which the Democratic candidates for president of the United States were present. The hall was filled with cheering and enthusiasm by the people present. The hall was filled with cheering and enthusiasm by the people present. The hall was filled with cheering and enthusiasm by the people present.

When great principles are involved and epoch-making changes occur in history, major events are the result, and the world is so moved by them that it is impossible to have a separate existence. The people were not aware of the greater glory that awaited them, but they are now aware of the greater glory that awaits them. They are aware of the greater glory that awaits them.

If the workers understand what Socialism stands for, they would flock by legions and thousands into the Socialistic party.

The theory is that you are bound to have to do this. The workers will have to do this. It is the only way. The Socialistic party has no other way. The workers who are oppressed must be represented in this Assembly. They have no other way to defend their rights.
Gleanings from Busy Socialistic Fields!

NOTE: In some cases the organization is known as the Socialist Party, in others as the Social Democratic Party. Where the term "Social Democratic" is used it does not refer to trade union bodies, but to the local body of the Socialist Party.
DEBS AND HANFORD DATES.

Congressional Date for the campaign are January 23, 1925, for the North Dakota Senate, and January 1, 1925, for the United States Senate.

EDITORIAL ETCHINGS.

Capitalism is dying slowly. It has been the cause of all the wages and the divisions in the entire world, and it is the cause of all the wars that have taken place in the last few years. When the wars are over, as they must be, and the nations of the world have learned to live together in peace, then we shall have a true form of government that will be able to create a world in which all men shall live together in harmony. There are those who say that capitalism is not dying, but that it is being replaced by something better. They are mistaken. Capitalism is dying, and there is nothing that can save it from destruction.

As a result, the workers of the world are beginning to realize that they must organize in order to save themselves. The workers who are organized are the only ones who have any chance of winning the fight for their rights. They are the only ones who can make the world safe for democracy.

GEMS FROM HANFORD'S SPEECHES.

For you workers to claim your proper share of the wealth, you must organize and work together. In order to get money wages, you must have money wages. In order to get money wages, you must have a union. In order to have a union, you must have a strike. In order to have a strike, you must have a club.

Now do you want to see the difference between the man who owns a business and the man who works for a business? Do you want to see the difference between the man who owns a business and the man who works for a business?

The difference is this: The man who owns a business is the one who makes the rules. The man who works for a business is the one who follows the rules.
