DEVER'S 'STRAIGHT GOODS'

CAPITALIST PHILOSOPHY WITHOUT MASK OR CLOAK

There is certain time of business when Mr. Dever, which is insured by someone who says, 'I'll be glad to have you look at the book in the office.' It is not the first or the last time that this has happened. Mr. Dever is an honest and hard-working man, but he is not a great deal of a talker. His business is done quietly, and in a manner that is always satisfactory to his customers.

He is a man who does not like to be in a hurry. When he is completing a large order, he will often work late into the night. He is not one to rush his work, but he is always careful to do it right. His customers have come to know him as a man who can be trusted. They have never been disappointed in him, and he has never failed to give them what they wanted.

In his shop, there are always two or three men working. They are busy making things, and they seem to be happy to be there. The shop is clean and well-organized, and everything is in its place. Mr. Dever is a man who likes to see his work done properly, and he is always on the lookout to see that it is done right.

He is a man who likes to be alone. When he is working, he likes to be by himself. He is not one who likes to talk a great deal. He is a man who likes to think and to work. He is a man who does not like to be disturbed.

He is a man who is always ready to help his customers. He is always willing to give them what they want, and he is always willing to do his best to see that they get it. He is a man who is always willing to work hard, and he is always willing to work for his customers. He is a man who is always willing to do his best, and he is always willing to do his best for his customers.

He is a man who is always willing to help his customers. He is always willing to give them what they want, and he is always willing to do his best to see that they get it. He is a man who is always willing to work hard, and he is always willing to work for his customers. He is a man who is always willing to do his best, and he is always willing to do his best for his customers.

MUNICIPAL GAS.

The Milwaukee Gas Light Co. in taking a lead in the agitation for a municipal gas plant, are worth the attention of all the citizens of the city. They are using all the means at their disposal to bring to light the great advantages of this measure. It is evident that the rate paid by the public for gas is far too high, and that it would be much cheaper to have it supplied by the city itself. The city government has decided to proceed with the work, and it is expected that the public will be supplied with gas soon. The company is doing its best to assist in this work, and it is hoped that the people will be satisfied with the results.
