WHAT OF THE TRUST LAW!

Victoria L. Barber Shows How the Steel Combine Operates

In two or three columns.

Yes it's possible to fix the charge. The argument is not impossible. It is possible to fix the charge.

It is a violation of the antitrust law. If the government had not already brought suit, the decision in the Southern Case set the seal on the policy of the Steel Trust.

The same elements are present in the case of the turnpike trusts. The same considerations apply to the wholesale instability of the turnpike rates.

As a result, the question of the steel trust is raised. The trust is a violation of the antitrust law. If the government had not already brought suit, the decision in the Southern Case set the seal on the policy of the Steel Trust.

JACK LONDON SPEAKS OUT
What He Said to University of California Students

The following is an excerpt from a letter written by Jack London to the University of California students:

"I am at the moment of writing this letter, in the middle of a great strike in labor in this country. I am doing my best to help to organize the strikers, and to fight for their rights. I am fighting for the rights of the working class, for the working man and his wife and children..."

WISCONSIN SOCIALIST LAW-MAKERS
What they are about and how they are succeeding

The Wisconsin Socialist Party has been very active in recent months. They have been working hard to organize the working class and to educate the people about the need for socialism.

Here are some of the things they have been doing:

1. They have been distributing literature and organizing meetings to educate the public about the benefits of socialism.
2. They have been working to organize labor unions and to support workers in their struggles.
3. They have been working to get socialist candidates elected to office.

NOTES: In some states the organization is known as the Socialist Party, in others as the Socialist Labor Party, in still others as the Social Democratic Party.

BETS FOR YANKER LAND
The appeal to money will not always be the same, but the principles of the movement will be the same. The principles on which the movement is based are simple and uncompromising. They are based on the idea that the state should own and control the means of production and distribution, and that the working class should have complete control over their own destinies.

ECONOMIES FOR YANKER LABOR
What the Wisconsin Labor Congress means for the workingman. The Wisconsin Labor Congress is a federation of labor unions, which is working to improve the conditions of the working class.

TOILERS IN TATTERS--AND THEY SMILE NOT!

The Rev. Herbert & Bigelow

The Rev. Herbert & Bigelow presided a service in Connecticut recently on the occasion of his 70th birthday, this country, based on some remarks of President II., President Eglom was quoted:

"I have lately had occasion to notice the habits and actions of the toilers in this country. I have observed the following:

1. The toilers are usually the most industrious men in the community.
2. They are usually the most thrifty men in the community.
3. They are usually the most honest men in the community.
4. They are usually the most charitable men in the community.

Is it not strange that such men should be content with so little?"

What International Socialism Demands:

1. Ownership of all industries by the masses of the people.
2. Abolition of the wage system.
3. Distribution of land to all.
4. Free medical and educational facilities.
5. An end to war and militarism.

The toilers in tatters smile not because:

1. They are not content with the little they have.
2. They want more than they have.
3. They desire a change in their present condition.
4. They are not satisfied with the status quo.

The toilers have dreams of a better world, a world in which:

1. There is no poverty.
2. There is no war.
3. There is no oppression.
4. There is no discrimination.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They have equal rights.
2. They have equal opportunities.
3. They have equal chances.
4. They have equal treatment.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They live in peace.
2. They live in harmony.
3. They live in prosperity.
4. They live in freedom.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They are free from want.
2. They are free from fear.
3. They are free from want.
4. They are free from fear.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They are free from oppression.
2. They are free from discrimination.
3. They are free from fear.
4. They are free from want.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They are free from injustice.
2. They are free from oppression.
3. They are free from fear.
4. They are free from want.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They are free from discrimination.
2. They are free from oppression.
3. They are free from fear.
4. They are free from want.

The toilers, therefore, will continue to work for a world in which:

1. They are free from want.
2. They are free from fear.
3. They are free from want.
4. They are free from fear.
PABST BREWING COMPANY,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

GENTLEMEN:

The Committee having charge of the Social-Democratic Masque Ball held at the Exposition Building, January 28th, which was the largest and most thoroughly successful we ever held — over 12,000 persons attending — desires to state that Pabst's Draught Beer was exclusively served on that occasion and seemingly has given the greatest of satisfaction.

According to statements of many of those present the quality was delicious.

Yours very truly,

CARNIVAL COMMITTEE, S. D. P.

"Joe," said the reporter, "can't you get me a job on the Grand Central Bridge before next Wednesday?"

"Oh, Joe, you'll have to wait a little longer," replied Grand Central Bridge, "I've heard that my project has been accepted by the city council and that the contract will be given to the lowest bidder."

"Well, I don't want to wait any longer," said Joe, "I've got a job for you."

"What is it?" asked Grand Central Bridge.

"It's a reporting job," replied Joe, "I want you to report the progress of the Grand Central Bridge project."
