One almost overlooks the brutality of wife murder for which Johann Hoch stands convicted and sentenced to be hung in the Cook County jail...

Cook County, Jail, Chicago, Ill., August 12, 1905.

Editor To-Morrow: I was convicted of murder on June 3, and sentenced to be hanged on the 23d following.

Before the War of Secession the life of Negro slaves were valued at a much higher price than this, and to the shame of the state, in the past thirteen years there have been hung in Cook County jail on sentence of the lower court, twenty-five persons who did not get the benefit of trial in the highest tribunal for lack of the fees to appeal their cases.

"Now for suggestions in regard to change. First, let the state or county in capital cases furnish free to indigent persons a printed record of the evidence, and pay the expense of at least a fair lawyer to be chosen by the defendant.

"Second, abolish all fees paid to the state's attorney for conviction. Pay him a straight salary, and abolish the present system of filling the office with political henchmen and dependents of machine politicians.

"Up to the time set for my execution, I had only been able to raise $120 by gift of a few friends, and the proceeds of a raffle of my watch.

Through the leniency of Sheriff Barrett and three intercessions of that prince of humanity, Jailer Whitman, my time was extended to 2 p. m. At 12:30 a Mr. Alfred Thompson appeared with $500 and the fact was telephoned to the governor.

The morning of June 10, Wall Street took off its hat to a new king. Over night, and by one of the most dramatic strokes in the history of the Street, Thomas F. Ryan had secured control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society with $414,000,000 of assets.

There are three grand Niles that fertilize Wall Street with the public's money—the banks, bond houses and big life insurance companies.

"What coal is to the modern man-of-war and powder to the man on the firing line that cash in hand is to Wall Street.

Stirring Scenes in Milwaukee Council. Becker said that if neither of the other two did, he would. Akl. Heath said that he would stand by his report.

After the report was read to the committee, Mr. Heath said it explained itself, and he had nothing further to say, every one knowing that under the present conditions of society many city officials owe their election to the big corporations.

"I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to 'The Milwaukee Social-Democratic Publishing Company,' incorporated, the sum of $200.00 in cash, to be paid from my estate.

DON'T MISS THIS!

One of our principal aims is to increase our circle of readers. There are many reasons for this, chief among which is our desire to secure converts to the cause of Socialism.

ACROSS THE POND.

We take the following items from our Japanese exchange, the Chokugen: Comrade Kotoku and Nishikawa who are now both in prison, have just received letters of condolence from Comrade Huysmans, the secretary of the International Socialist Bureau.

Mr. Stiglitz relieved himself of another outburst in which he said that the Socialists owe at least common decency towards their colleagues. He had urged that they be put on important committees at the organization of the council.

Mr. Stiglitz believed that when they saw the inside workings of the city administration they would be satisfied that reforms couldn't be brought about in a day.

After the Aldermen had relieved themselves sufficiently they began to discuss the matter on its merits and agreed to a certain extent with Mr. Heath, deciding to lay the matter over for a few weeks.

His career really began as a follower of William C. Whitney, Widener and Elkins in the crowd that acquired and developed the street railways of New York.

FOR OUR NEW READERS:

THIS COUNTRY is made up of working people, both industrial and agricultural, but is ruled by the capitalist class, which is numerically small. Being in control of the government, it runs that government in the interests of its class and against the interests of the working class, which is the people.

Citizenship vs. Fanatical Cant.
The following letter was sent the N. Y. Worker, but not printed. The writer asks us to give it space, which we gladly do.]
Mr. Editor: During the past few months I have read very carefully the discussion of the general subject matter which forms the basis of the pending referendum, and disagree wholly with the Worker and Comrade Debs, who, having spoken their little piece, now claim the incident so far as Berger is concerned is closed.

Program of International Social-Democracy:
1. Collective ownership of all industries in the hands of Trusts and Combinations, and of all public utilities.
2. Democratic management of such collective industries and utilities.
3. Reduction of the hours of labor and progressively increased remuneration.

EDITORIAL ETCHINGS.

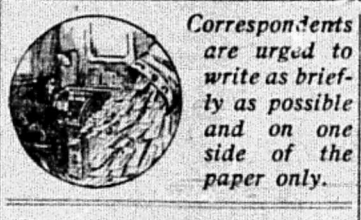

Some of our older readers will remember the struggles the Abolitionists went through in standing firm for the right. Today the agitators of the Socialist movement seem to be coming upon quite as trying experiences as did those earlier agitators.

We have been familiar for a long time with the capitalistic editorial claim that labor and capital are merely partners and that while the workers get through at the end of the day and are sure of their pay the capitalists must run the risks and often come out at the losing end of the horn.

A writer in the current issue of The Commons, Chicago, says: "The black flag of Anarchism flaunting destruction to property, and therefore relapses of society to barbarism; the red flag of Socialism inviting a redistribution of property, which in order to secure the wanted equality must be repeated again and again at constantly decreasing periods" etc.

The calibre of some individuals ranks pretty low. When the Crestline resolution was put to national referendum, the Wisconsin comrades realized that it would not be possible for them to get a fair deal in the matter inasmuch as the Maily underground correspondence machine had at its hands not only finances from the East, but the entire membership lists of the party throughout the country taken away by him when he left the national headquarters, and it would be impossible for Wisconsin to reach every voter with a statement of its side of the case.

Half Hours In The Herald Sanctum.

Correspondents are urged to write as briefly as possible and on one side of the paper only.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24.—"The women of the country are forging ahead in the matter of becoming paid employees."
"Here has been a persistent decline in the birth rate in the United States since 1860."
These two startling statements were made by the two best-known scientists attached to the census bureau today.

Answers to Correspondents.
Sumner W. Rose—Your letter is simply a restatement of your former illiberal views and false presentation of the basic facts in the Wisconsin case. We have no space to waste on such "arguments." Your reiteration of the untruth that Comrade Berger had "admitted the offense," would indicate that you have been misled in history.

Quincy, Mass.
I hope the Crestline resolution will be voted down with a vim which will administer a deserving rebuke to the Socialist octopus, the National Executive Committee.

Socialist Review, Hoboken, N. J.—Judging from what we have heard from a trustworthy delegate who was in attendance during the entire course of the "industrial" convention, the results arrived at were highly unsatisfactory to many of the delegates in attendance at the convention. It is claimed that the constitution of the new organization delegates too much power to its officers, that the dues and initiation fees are too high and that the arbitrary division of the workers into thirteen industrial units is a scheme that will not work in practice.

It will make no difference how many or how few points the three lucky ones will secure. Simply the three highest will get the prizes. Based on previous experience, it is safe to say that the winners will get perhaps from 100 to 200 points to capture these prizes. Of course, we can't predict how many points will be necessary, but the above is a fair average of what has occurred in the past.

Three Big Prizes for the Three Months Contest!

First prize: One New Royal Sewing Machine, Single door, Parlor Cabinet style, absolutely dust and dirt proof—a happy combination of beauty, durability and convenience, from and exhibited at Biker's, 18th st. and Fond du Lac ave., Milwaukee.

Schostak's, 3rd and Cherry sts., Milwaukee.
Third prize: One Edison Standard Phonograph with flower horn and crane, value $28.00, from and exhibited at Geo. H. Eichholz, 1340 Fond du Lac ave., Milwaukee.

A PITIFUL EXHIBIT!

These are the "clear-cut" sort of Neophytes who presume to sit in judgment on the Old Established Wisconsin Socialist Movement!
To the Wisconsin State Committee.
Dear Comrade, At a regular meeting of Local Billings, your circular of July 24 was read as you requested prior to balloting on the Crestline resolutions and the following resolution was adopted:

What is Social-Democracy?

"Socialism is a system of social organization which would abolish entirely or in great part the competition on which modern society rests, and substitute for it co-operative action; would introduce a more perfect and equal distribution of the products of labor, and would make land and capital, as the instruments and means of production, the joint possession of the members of the community."
Socialism does not wish to abolish private property or accumulation of wealth; but it aims to displace the present system of private capital by a system of collective capital, which would introduce a unified organization of national labor.—Prof. Schaeffe.
Socialism, as taught in America, is the substitution of co-operation in place of competition. It advocates the gradual absorption of industries by the government. We propose to make the government the sole capitalist, the agent of the people, to manage the industrial system for the benefit of all. Socialism does not propose to interfere with the home, family or religion. It does not propose to interfere with private property or to make a new distribution of national wealth.—Father T. McGrady.
"The alpha and omega of Socialism is the transformation of private and competing capitals into a united collective capital" —Prof. Schaeffe.
