An Anonymous Uprising

By VICTOR L. BERGER.

Just because the law will not allow us to begin our uprising it does not make it any less of an uprising. It is a characteristic of all revolutionary movements--a movement without any organized leadership. The fact that it is unorganized makes it no less revolutionary. An uprising is something so offhand and untutored that it is almost certain to start without the knowledge of any particular person who participates in its origination. In any case, it is true that the uprising was spontaneous in the fullest sense of the word. At one moment, it might be thought that the uprising had been planned and brought about by a particular person or group of persons; but at another moment, it might be thought that the uprising was brought about by a different person or group of persons. At any rate, a new committee, absolutely anonymous and equally anonymous, was formed, which immediately issued an appeal to the people. This appeal was more or less in the nature of a public declaration of the uprising, but it lacked the formality of a public declaration, and it was simply issued as the statement of theUps.
The Modern Work Girl, How Does She Live?

COMMERCIALISM DOES NOT CARE SO LONG AS IT CAN EXTRACT PLenty TO TAKE HER PLACE IN CASE SHE FALLS.

By CLAYTON A. LAMM, Reading, Mass.

The modern work girl, or '9 to 5' girl as she is called, is the slave of the daily grind. She rises at 7 A.M., goes to the breakfast table and looks at the weather which may determine whether she shall or shall not go to work. She leaves the house at 8:30 and arrives at her place of employment at 8:45. She works on till 5 P.M.

One day I overheard a conversation between two girls in an elevator. One was speaking of her work and how she loathed it. She was working on an assembly line and was earning $2.50 a week.

"I've been here six months," she said. "I'm a little too old for this sort of work but I can't get anything higher."

"I've been here eight months," replied the other, "and I'm not sure I'm going to stay much longer."

"Do you like it?"

"Yes, but I'll soon get bored."

"How does she live?"

"She lives on what she earns."

"How does she eat?"

"She eats what she can get."
The Public Interests vs. Corporate Greed.

Examiner Charge of California's Reply to a Smart Cap for All

If you have a label, please add it to your painting.

Sociological Life of the Future.

Social life will be in the future be more social and public; the state will be more self-sustaining, and the individual will be more free. The economy will be based on communal living, with the state providing for all the basic needs of its citizens. Religion will be in a state of transition, with various religions coexisting and influencing each other.

Our lives will be governed by the principles of cooperation, equality, and social justice. The state will be responsible for the education and welfare of its citizens, and the economy will be based on the principles of communism. The state will have the power to make decisions that are in the best interest of the society.

In this new society, the individual will have more freedom and the state will be more powerful. The state will have the power to make decisions that are in the best interest of the society. The individual will have more freedom to express themselves and to participate in society.

Let us open the book. Do you expect Congress to smash the present government in order to smash the trusts? If so, why? If not, why won't the Congress do it? We have the power to do it, but we don't use it. Why?

The Four Orphans.

Tale of Twentieth Century Slave Trade.

In Yankee Land.

Gleanings From Busy Fields.

In this installation,傅安德父子于1913年在中国的战斗中牺牲。他们的遗体被运回美国，安葬在纽约的布洛克维克山公园。他们的故事成为了美国社会中一个重要的主题，激励着人们为正义和自由而战。

Order at once! The Struggle for Existence.

By Wallace Thomas, M.A., of Chicago, Ill.

This is a study in the economic principles of Socialism and its application to real-life situations. The book presents a clear and concise exposition of the economic problems facing the working class and shows how they can be solved through the principles of Socialism.

Socialism is not a new idea, but it is a new application of an ancient idea. The idea of Socialism is that the state should own the means of production and distribute the products of industry in a way that is fair and just. The state should also provide for the education and welfare of its citizens.

The book is divided into two sections. The first section deals with the economic principles of Socialism and the second section presents an application of these principles to real-life situations.

The first section of the book is an introduction to the economic principles of Socialism. It explains the reasons why the state should own the means of production and how it can do so. It also explains how the state can distribute the products of industry in a way that is fair and just.

The second section of the book presents an application of these principles to real-life situations. It shows how Socialism can be used to solve the economic problems facing the working class.

The book is written in a clear and concise manner and is easy to understand. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the economic principles of Socialism and its application to real-life situations.

Address all inquiries to the Social-Democratic Herald, 145 South Sixth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.
FOR OUR NEW READERS:

UNION DUM.

THE UNION DUM.

UNDER THE UNION DUM.

FOR OUR NEW READERS:

UNION DUM.

THE UNION DUM.

UNDER THE UNION DUM.

FOR OUR NEW READERS:

UNION DUM.

THE UNION DUM.

UNDER THE UNION DUM.

FOR OUR NEW READERS:

UNION DUM.

THE UNION DUM.

UNDER THE UNION DUM.

FOR OUR NEW READERS:

UNION DUM.

THE UNION DUM.

UNDER THE UNION DUM.
BRUCK'S
A Good Place to buy your Clothing, Hats, Caps, Furnishing, Gloves and Mitten.
Corner 6th Street, East and Twelfth Ave. N.

Marshall & Ilsley Bank
ESTABLISHED 1847.
Accounts of Merchants, Manufacturers and Individuals selected on favorable terms.

The Enterprise Co-operative Range Shoep Co.
Proposed Capital $100,000

BICYCLES
Bickel Charges. Cash Taken at any time.

J. F. B. SWING, In the employ of the State Federation of Labor, which out the Bureau of Labor and Industrial surveys coming in to our region. The secretary, according to the report of the state labor
Bureau, Mr. J. F. Swing, had promised to meet with the State Federation of Labor, and a committee of the Milwaukee Federation
in the afternoon, when a report was given till 1:30 p.m.

Afternoon Session.
Reverend Dr. W. C. Swingle was in the evening, and Mr. A. G.
Guthrie was present and

Mr. J. D. Ward of the Labor
Union was present and Mr. A. G.
Guthrie, who was organized council.

After some discussion as to how
the union label should be placed on the solid arm of conservative, it was
and carried that it
would be printed on the solid arm of the

The United Federation of Labor, the State Federation of Labor,
the

FREE!

The Co-operative Printery
WE ARE PREPARED TO
Do all classes of Printing, in the best style and at fairest rates.

When in Need of Printing, Call Dr. U-P

In the City of West, 1815.