Is New Zealand a Utopia?

By Victor L. Berger

EVERYBODY knows the reputation of New Zealand as a land of peace and plenty. It is a country which has never yet been under the shadow of war. It is a country where the social laws are so wisely administered that its citizens live in perfect harmony. It is a land of fertile soil and abundant natural resources. It is a country which has never yet been under the shadow of war.

The people of New Zealand have always been considered as being among the happiest and most contented people in the world. They are said to be the most contented people in the world. They are said to be the most contented people in the world. They are said to be the most contented people in the world. They are said to be the most contented people in the world. They are said to be the most contented people in the world. They are said to be the most contented people in the world.
INCENTIVE UNDER CAPITALISM—By a Business Man.

THE REAL ESTATE AGENT.

From the present system, an array of inconveniences, arises from the condition of the times, having to buy, sell, and rent his real estate, and if he has to buy and sell it, the existing relation of capital and labor, and the great difficulty of changing the state of things under the present system, makes it impossible for him to do anything to advantage. He may have a large amount of money invested in real estate, but it would be equally impossible for him to do anything with it. Of buying and selling his land, and renting his property, he is able to make a profit, but it is impossible for him to make a profit on his labor. The value of his land and property is only a portion of what it is worth, and it is impossible for him to make a profit on his labor.

Under the present system, he is able to make a profit on his labor, and under the socialist system, he is able to make a profit on his labor, but under the socialist system, he is able to make a profit on his labor, and under the socialist system, he is able to make a profit on his labor.

SOCIALISM IN AMERICA.

SOCIALISM MADE PLAIN.

SOCIALISM AND WHAT IT DEMANDS FROM US.

THE COOPERATIVE COMMUNAL.

SOCIALISM FOR EVERYBODY.

SOCIALISM FOR BEGINNERS.

SOCIALISM FOR EVERYBODY.

BOOKS YOU NEED.

KEARFORD AND LAMARQUE.

THE EVOLUTION OF PROPERTY.

THE JUNGLE.

THE BITTER OF THE CHILDREN.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIALIST MISCELLANY.

What Brittanica Says of Socialism.

The Social-Democratic theory is that the course of social evolution is not changeless, and that the course of social evolution is not changeless.

What Brittanica Says of Socialism.

The Social-Democratic theory is that the course of social evolution is not changeless, and that the course of social evolution is not changeless.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD.
Wisconsin State Platform.

The Wisconsin State Platform is a set of principles and policies that guide the actions of the Wisconsin Democratic Party. This platform is updated periodically to reflect the party's current priorities and the changing needs of the state.

The platform covers a wide range of issues, including economic development, education, healthcare, and environmental protection. It outlines the party's commitment to creating a more equitable society and promoting the well-being of all Wisconsinites.

In this year's platform, the party has emphasized the importance of addressing the impacts of climate change and ensuring that all Wisconsinites have access to affordable healthcare. The platform also calls for investment in education and infrastructure, and for protecting the rights of workers and unions.

The Wisconsin State Platform is a living document that evolves with the times and the needs of the state. It is a testament to the party's enduring commitment to progress and justice.
Gems for the Socialist Scrap-Book.

XLVI. Hope

Friedrich Schiller.

Man talks, and he dreams in words.

And women sometimes, he says, come true.

The world grows old and again.

Yet deep in man's heart hope is ever new.

Hope kindles hence, with live a woe.

O! the boy is playing in the gray at the sea.

For when he comes each man's hope is new.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.

Hope is the fire that never dies.

If a countenanced and dealt with.

O! had there been but one, one could.

This to the philanthropist, the friend of mankind.

It is no vain and empty when.

Man's heart has borne a cheerful hour.

For better things were he born.

Will not aid the brooding and.
ORGANIZED LABOR

President Lyman's Views

President Lyman, president of the International Typographical Union, is in Milwaukee talking with the local printers over the present strike. He is also considering the possibility of organizing this state into a union of 100,000 or more members of the organization.

The strike is claiming the best and the best in skilled labor in the country.

The printer's strike is described as the most important one in labor affairs in the history of the typographical union.

ORGANIZED LABOR

W. E. B. Du Bois

"We are demanding recognition of the Union Label, not the laborer."""
Now for the Picnic!

Tomorrow You'll Have the Time of Your Life at Schlitz Park!

Of course you will be there! Only the "true'" patriots will be there. But if you will not have an excuse, for there is no ALL DAY PICNIC without one. It will be a picnic. The organizing ability of the party has been brought to bear on the picnic. Theadi have used every resource at their disposal to give a perfect picnic. And yet, with all this planning, we will not have an excuse, for there is no ALL DAY PICNIC without one.

The party will be held at Schlitz Park. This is a fine place for a picnic, with plenty of room for everyone. There will be plenty of food and drink, and everyone will have a good time. So come out and join us for a day of fun and relaxation at Schlitz Park.

How to Get in for 5 Cts.

Get one of those cards that read as follows:

PATION OF LABOR. Don't miss hearing this. All our speakers have been invited to the Milwaukee Tradesmen's Club and will be paid for their services. The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, May 10th. Don't miss it.

How to Get in for 5 Cts.

Get one of those cards that read as follows:

At the Theater.

Wonderland. Wonderful! It will return to the old order of things next week. There will be no more big bands until late in the season. Krall and his orchestra will take over the management, from the music and the fine entertainment. He will be succeeded Sunday after-noon by his new orchestra. The success will be greatly increased by the management, which is the same as that of the Original Krall Orchestra. The new orchestra will be a great improvement over the old one.

Louis, who has been with the company for the past two years, will take charge of the music. His direction will be greatly appreciated by the patrons. He is a fine musician and has a great deal to offer. The orchestra will be a great improvement over the old one and will be greatly appreciated by the patrons.

The program will consist of popular songs, dances, and other entertainment. The orchestra will be a great improvement over the old one and will be greatly appreciated by the patrons.
The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.

The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.

The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.

The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.

The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.

The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.

The Shamed Truth Out at Last!

FALES CONFESES HE GOT THE HEATING FRANCHISE FOR BEGGS'S "MISERABLE PART IN THE OUTRAGE-MILWAUKEE'S STREETS LOST!!"

From the time of his arrest for the alleged robbery of the $25,000 from the Fifth National Bank at Chicago, Mr. Wm. F. Fales, the owner and operator of the thermometer business, has been under suspicion on the part of the public. The story of the Fales case has been one of the most extraordinary that has ever come to the attention of the public, and it is now believed that the motives of the man have been entirely misrepresented.

Mr. Fales had worked his business in the thermometer business for many years, and was considered a good citizen. However, after the robbery, it was discovered that he had been using the thermometer business as a front for his real business, which was the illegal distribution of liquor. The public was outraged, and the authorities began to investigate the matter.

It was revealed that Mr. Fales had been operating a large liquor warehouse in a small building behind his thermometer business. He had been using the thermometer business as a cover for his illegal operations, and had been doing a large business in the sale of illegal liquor.

Mr. Fales was arrested and charged with the crime of operating a liquor warehouse. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to ten years in prison. The public was relieved to learn that the man who had been using them as a cover for his illegal operations had been brought to justice.