The Innocent Reformer!

By Victor L. Berger

Tuberculosis is one of the most insidious diseases in existence, and the one that is latent in the human body. It is one of the most dangerous and deadly diseases known to science, and the one that is caused by the mycobacterium tuberculosis. The disease is characterized by the following symptoms: fever, cough, dyspnea, weakness, malaise, and general debility.

There is no known cure for tuberculosis, but it can be controlled by proper medical treatment, including rest, good nutrition, and the use of antibiotics.

The disease is spread through the air, and is difficult to avoid. People who have come in contact with a person with tuberculosis are at risk of developing the disease. The best way to prevent the spread of tuberculosis is to avoid contact with people who have the disease.

Don't Waste Your Vote Mr. Working Man!

VOTE FOR PRINCIPLE ALWAYS, FOR WHAT YOU WANT.
KEEP ON VOTING TILL YOU GET WHAT YOU WANT.

Your Southern school - "If you don't stand tall, you don't stand at all" - and I don't want you to go back, my vote for you, Mr. Younger. Well, you can go back when you're by yourself. Read with your book, you can do something with your own coat in the house worse than "throwing away the vote." The remedy of the ballot is an immovable one and every voter should, as the case might be, think not only of the end but also of the means of making it succeed.

Gems for the Social-Democratic Herald

In modern times the millionaire has a secret weapon, not used by the rich, but by the poor, and it is termed "hunger." The millionaire needs it not, because he is always able to have enough and to spare; but the poor man has no choice but to use it, for hunger is his constant companion. It is his only weapon, and he uses it whenever he has to make his way in the world. Hunger is his tool, and he uses it to his advantage. He knows that hunger is the only weapon he has, and he uses it to the full. Big Crowds Listen to Social-Democratic Hour Speeches. We Get the Hall Crowds and Old Parties Cannot Muster a Corporal's Guard.

Natl'ly See'ey Barnes at Three Big Meetings.

With National Secretary J. Mahlon Barnes, and National Organizer A. C. Gillett, our local speaking force was greatly reinforced this past week. At Canton Hall and the Central Hotel, the standard of speakers was increased by the presence of speakers at the Humboldt Turnverein meeting the other evening. So far we have had a larger and more enthusiastic crowd at each meeting than we have had at any of the previous meetings. It is said that these meetings are beginning to become a source of annoyance to the old parties, as the speeches of the old parties are rather dull and are ignored by the audience. Our candidates McGovern for Congress, J. A. Lindemann for Mayor, and J. M. H. F. Knapp for Alderman, have been receiving a great deal of attention from the public, and have been driving the other candidates into the background. Mr. Barnes, as a speaker, is in a class by himself, and is always in the forefront of the battle for socialism and the Social Democratic party.

Unlike any other political party, the Social Democratic party is the only one that can be said to have a policy, and that policy is to make our movement known. From official reports by rail road managers we discover that there are 13,000,000 railroad employees working in the United States. Many of these employees are independent, and are not subject to the control of the rail road companies. They are the nucleus of the labor movement, and are the backbone of the Social Democratic party. In this respect, the Social Democratic party is in a league by itself, and is the only one that can be said to have a policy. The Social Democratic party is in a league by itself, and is the only one that can be said to have a policy. The Social Democratic party is in a league by itself, and is the only one that can be said to have a policy.

Instead of the old parties' substitutes, we have made a great deal of progress. Socialists see the necessity of making the old parties' substitutes their own. Socialists see the necessity of making the old parties' substitutes their own. Socialists see the necessity of making the old parties' substitutes their own.

At the meetings of the Social Democratic party, there have been more than 1,000 persons present. The meetings are becoming more and more popular, and are attended by a large number of people.
