THE WISCONSIN MOVEMENT

An Appreciation.

By WALTER THOMAS MILLER.

WHILE the Socialist party is greatly gaining in most states, in Wisconsin it shows a constant advance.

While the party is divided in its prejudices and hampered by a constant feuding of its members, it has been able to develop and influence the state conventions, of which it is a part, in a way that will influence the party's future.

During the last few years it has attained a position of importance in Wisconsin, and has contributed materially to the advancement of the Socialist party in other states.

The party's principles are not entirely understood by the masses, but they are gaining in influence and are being applied to practical problems in the state.

The party's success is due to its leadership, which has been able to organize the party's forces and coordinate its activities.

The party's principles are based on the idea of social progress and the overthrow of the capitalist system.

The party's leaders have been able to develop a strong base of support in the state, and to attract the attention of the masses by their energetic and effective practical work.

In conclusion, the Wisconsin

Socialist party is making a great effort to develop its organization and to influence the state's politics.

It is certain that the party will continue to grow and to gain in influence in the state.

MORE ABOUT THE REINHARDT "MEDICAL INSTITUTE AND ITS WAYS—SOME EYE-OPENING LETTERS—I TRIED TO TEMPER WITH STATE BOARD!

In order to operate a fake medical institution he was induced by his wife to win over the Wisconsin Supreme Court by paying off possible opposition. In Wisconsin, the establishment of a private hospital was not easy. It had to be approved by the state board of medical examination. The state had to consider the applicant's qualifications, professional experience, and intentions. If approved, the applicant would be issued a license to operate the hospital.

Amusing things were now coming to the light. It began to be known that the Wisconsin Supreme Court had evidence that the applicant had been罚款 (fines) as a doctor in the state but had refused to answer certain questions. It was also learned that the applicant had been convicted of embezzlement and had served a term in prison. The state board of medical examination became suspicious.

As a result, the board decided to reject the application. They believed that the applicant was not competent to operate a hospital. The applicant was frustrated and decided to take legal action against the state board of medical examination. He argued that his reputation had been damaged and that he had suffered financial losses.

The state board defended their decision, stating that they had acted in the public interest. They believed that the applicant was not qualified to operate a hospital. The legal battle raged on for months, and the applicant finally lost.

In the end, the applicant was forced to give up his plans to operate a hospital in Wisconsin. The state board of medical examination had shown that they were willing to stand up for what was right, even if it meant fines, imprisonments, and legal battles.
