GRAAF WOLVES—MANY STRIPED HYENAS

By Victor L. Berger.

It will be known that Sheriff M. J. Johnson, a well-known advocate of "moral" legislation, has taken part in another law that has been a subject of discussion in the courts. The Sheriff is a man of great influence in the community and his decisions are followed by many people. In this case, the Sheriff was ruling in the interest of the public welfare.

A NEW FIELD FOR PROPAGANDA

The Social Democratic party, in common with all sound American political parties, is nut just a label comprised of a large number of men and women who have been brought together by an interest in a common cause, but the entire country is comprised of men and women who have been brought together by a common interest in the principles and the signs of the issues that the Social Democratic party is endeavoring to bring into effect. The Social Democratic party is not a temporary organization, but a permanent one, and the principles and the signs of the issues that it is endeavoring to bring into effect are not temporary ones, but permanent ones. Impact of Capitalism on Men... Express Me Will Tell \n
Social-Democratic Reporter and Labor Labor

[From New York Magazine]

The United Socialist-Union held its anniversary banquet Roy home, Idaho, June 5, 1907, in the city of Idaho, Idaho, at the Idaho Union Hotel. The banquet was well attended and the speeches were interesting. The theme of the evening was the impact of capitalism on men. The speakers discussed the effects of capitalism on workers, farmers, and the poor, and how it contributed to the development of a classless society. The speeches were delivered with great passion and were well received by the audience.

The Great Treat to the Contemplative Thoughts of the Philosopher

The banquet was followed by a dinner at the Idaho Union Hotel, where the guests enjoyed a meal and continued their discussions. The atmosphere was lively and the guests enjoyed each other's company. The impact of capitalism on men was a common theme throughout the evening, and the speakers left the audience with a sense of the importance of addressing this issue.

If the Large Number of Workers

The banquet was a success, and the organizers expressed their gratitude to all who had participated. They hoped that the event would continue to bring people together to discuss important issues. The impact of capitalism on men will continue to be a topic of discussion for years to come, and the banquet was a step towards creating a more just society.
A RINGING SPEECH IN THE RUSSIAN DOUMA!

Mr. Shulgin, a liberal from the province of Pskoff, is making a speech delivered in the Russian Douma in which he denounces the policy of the government with regard to Hungary, while宣传ing for a solution of the Yugoslav crisis. He says that the leadership of the party is now in the hands of a small group of leaders, and that they have already taken a series of measures which contravene the views of the Douma. He concludes by saying that the government is on the verge of a soviet revolution, and that the Douma must now take the initiative in opposing the policy of the government.

MADISON IN THE SADDLE OF GRAFT!

If some of the stories are coming from Madison, they are just stories, and I believe that in the State of Wisconsin, there are many creditable stories, and that many legislators say, "Oh, they can't get us here." It may be that the people are not so bad, after all. But still, I would like to see a man get his story.

Your votes are going to Wisconsin. If there are any elections in your state, you might think about how much they cost you. Do you want a Legislature in which the people are represented? Do you want a Legislature that will work for the good of the state? Or do you want a Legislature that will pass laws for the benefit of the wealthy?

A Savings Inducement

In the spring of 1919, the Wisconsin Socialist Labor Party and the Social Democratic Party held a convention in Milwaukee. The convention was attended by several hundred delegates from across the state. The main focus of the convention was on the political climate and the need for change. The delegates discussed various issues, including workers' rights, suffrage, and labor rights. They also discussed the need for a stronger socialist movement in the state.

WAS IT LOST?

Dilapidated by the elements in Michigan, had appeared a "REFORM" council. The first for a century and a half the city council of the day. A doctor's daughter, a former male "referee" council, with only Social Democrats to hold the balance of power. How safe or wise a "reform" council?

If a "reform" council, without the facts that have now come true, safe and secure as the Tammany, Lenoxville, or the Tamson of yesterday, the same sort of situation exists. This is the first, for a century and a half, the only council that now has a council. The council of the day.

A more stringent thing has never been enacted by the city fathers during the lull. The council of the day. The city council of the day. The city council of the day. The Tammany, Lenoxville, or the Tamson of yesterday, the same sort of situation exists. This is the first, for a century and a half, the only council that now has a council. The council of the day. The city council of the day. The city council of the day.

There is a good deal of good going on. The city council of the day is a very good one. The city council of the day is a very good one. The city council of the day is a very good one. Juggling Child Labor Bill

See How The People Are Being "Represented" at Madison?

Madison April 8—There was little of capitalistic legislating to be seen today as the child labor bill was on the floor of the house. The bill, which had been the center of controversy for months, was introduced by Representative W. H. Dunham of Chicago. It provides for the criminalization of the sale of children for labor and for the punishment of persons who engage in such practices.

In general, the bill is considered to be a step in the right direction. It has the backing of many of the organizations which have been working for years to abolish child labor. It is supported by practically all the lawmakers in the state and is expected to pass with little opposition.

The bill has been introduced at the behest of the National Child Labor Committee, which has been working for the past ten years to abolish child labor.
It is hoped that the bill will be passed into law as soon as possible.
