PINKERTONS' SORRY PLIGHT

THE CONSPIRACY AT BOISE IS IN A COLLAPSE.

A. B. Plouffe, Himself a Victim Capitalist Dictatorship in Maryland at the Trial of the Portland Anti-Capitalist movement Front the Portland Press

Boise, Idaho, June 9.—The work for the defense of the forty-two ex-employees of the Fred G. Bassett & Co., who were shot by the Pinkertons at Nichols' store, is said to be on the verge of complete success. The prosecution has been so conclusively defeated that the jury, it is understood, will return a verdict of not guilty in every case.

The trial, which began May 12, is the first of its kind in the history of the West. The defendants are charged with the murder of a Pinkerton man, George E. Loomis, and the wounding of two others, F. C. McDonald and Robert E. Head. The defendant, Thomas Wood, a non-violent laborer who is accused of being an instigator of the shootings, was the first to be brought to trial. He was convicted and sentenced to 15 years in the state penitentiary.

At the close of the proceedings yesterday, the jury was dismissed until tomorrow morning. Several more weeks will be required before the trial can be completed. The defense has already presented a large body of evidence, and it is expected that the prosecution will follow suit. The case is being closely watched by labor and anti-capitalist groups throughout the country, and the outcome is awaited with great interest.

THEATERS.

DAVIDSON "Out of the Past" will be the next play given by the Allen Brown Slack company at the Taft Theatre, opening on Friday. "Out of the Past" is a light, gay farce in five acts written by Bachardy, Mortimer, and Cushnir. It is a story of a young girl who is interested in becoming an actress. The plot is simple and the acting is good. The play is well adapted for the stage and is likely to be a hit.

EAST PARK The opera "Carmen" will be given at the East Park Theatre this week. "Carmen" is a classical opera by Bizet and isMode, Saturday and Sunday nights. The opera is well sung and the orchestra is excellent. The theatre is well lighted and the audience is likely to enjoy the performance.

CINEMA The film "Jesse James" will be given at the Cinema Theatre this week. "Jesse James" is a historical film about the famous outlaw and is well directed and acted. The film is well shot and the photography is excellent. The audience is likely to enjoy the film.
