DESIRABLE CANDIDATES FOR DEMOCRATIC CITIZENS

By Victor L. Berger.

We find the following news item in the Milwaukee Journal:

An officer at one of the leading business associations of the city, in speaking of the objection of the laboring classes to the candidates for office, said:

"The laboring classes, most of whom are very intelligent, are thoroughly well informed, and have formed a very true and just appreciation of the chief principles of this great movement. They are not in favor of any political candidate who will not, in their opinion, advance the cause of labor.

"We have here a number of men who are in the forefront of the labor movement, and who are well known to the laboring classes. They are all men of great ability, and are thoroughly in sympathy with the labor movement. They will, therefore, get the support of the laboring classes."
PRIVATE PROPERTY AND TAXATION.

Translated from the French of Jean Jaures by Mildred Minton Scott.

It is a fact, as an economic proposition, that those who talk taxation talk about private property. It is, as a personal opinion, a belief in the existence of the property and the right of the property owner to use it and use it as he chooses to use it.

Thus, when the question of taxation is discussed, it is always with a view to the protection of private property and the right of the property owner to use it.

Prague, July 10

To Mr. President:

I am writing to you as a gentleman, a citizen, and a worker, to request your assistance in a matter of considerable concern to me and to all workers in this city.

I wish to express my gratitude for your effort in behalf of the working class. Your support has been invaluable in the struggle for better working conditions and higher wages. I hope that you will continue to lend your support to the cause of the working class.

I am convinced that the problems facing our city and our country can only be solved by a united front of workers. Only through unity and cooperation can we hope to defeat the bosses and the rich and secure a better life for ourselves and our families.

I request your assistance in this matter and hope that you will consider the matter and take the necessary action.

Sincerely yours,

[Your Name]
