CANNOT CHOOSE ANY LONGER.

By Victor L. Berger.

SOCTAFM has become a new force in the affairs of this nation. (This is not denied today by any thinking man.

It is a strong, potent force, and it is growing in strength every day. Its influence is felt not only in the government, but also in all the departments of life. Its principles are being accepted by men of all parties and all creeds.

It is a force that cannot be ignored. Its power is increasing daily. Its influence is growing.

It is a force that cannot be resisted. It is a force that must be dealt with.

The people of this country are seeing the danger and they are seeing the need for action.

They are demanding that this powerful force be dealt with in a manner that will not only protect them, but also protect the nation.

The time has come for action. The time has come for change. The time has come for us to stand together and fight for what is right.

We must not be afraid. We must not be discouraged. We must be strong.

We must be united.

We must be determined.

We must be ready.

The time is now. The moment is ripe.

The people of this country are with us.

The time has come to act.

The time has come to fight.

The time has come to win.
Germany's Treatment of the Poles

Germany has been at war for a long time, with its conquerors, the French and the Poles, having the upper hand. The French have been gaining on the Germans, and the Poles have been losing. The French have been able to capture a number of important German cities, while the Poles have been forced to retreat. The French, therefore, have been able to take control of the situation and make their own rules.

For years, the Poles have been trying to gain their freedom. They have been fighting against the French and the Germans, and they have been able to make some gains. However, they have still not been able to completely rid themselves of their oppressors. The French and the Germans have been able to maintain their power, and the Poles have been forced to live under their control.

Young and old alike, many Poles are tired of living under French and German rule. They are longing for the day when they can be free again. They are hoping that, one day soon, they will be able to gain their independence and live in peace.

The Poles are a brave and resilient people. They have lived under French and German rule for many years, and they have been able to hold on to their spirit and their hope. They are a people who are not easily discouraged, and they are determined to be free.
