The Reason for Socialism

By H. E. SESSLER

The first question to ask is, Why do you want it? The second question to ask is, Why do they want it? And the third question to ask is, Why do we want it?

The first question to ask is, Why do you want it? The second question to ask is, Why do they want it? And the third question to ask is, Why do we want it?

The first question to ask is, Why do you want it? The second question to ask is, Why do they want it? And the third question to ask is, Why do we want it?

The first question to ask is, Why do you want it? The second question to ask is, Why do they want it? And the third question to ask is, Why do we want it?

The first question to ask is, Why do you want it? The second question to ask is, Why do they want it? And the third question to ask is, Why do we want it?

The first question to ask is, Why do you want it? The second question to ask is, Why do they want it? And the third question to ask is, Why do we want it?
AS TO THE GREAT U.S. MILITARY "NO-EXECUTION" IN THE CUBAN WAR

Deadly Cruelty in the Cuban War

Military Rebellions in Case of the System.

IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

The Spirit of American Government

The Spirit of American Government

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Spirit of American Government

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.

The Constitution of the United States is the living embodiment of the principles of liberty and democracy that were established in the Revolutionary War. It is the supreme law of the land, and it guarantees the rights of all citizens. The Constitution is the foundation of our government, and it is the basis of our system of law and justice. It is a document that is both timeless and relevant, and it is a testament to the enduring values of the American people.
Letters to the Great and Small
TO THE HON. WILLIAM TAFT.

Mr. Taft: Master Taft! Will you
JUNIOR HILL.
please talk to us about our school?
Mr. Taft: Dear children, I can't giggle and laugh, and take pictures, so please don't try it.

And so musicals, so homely, so inorganic, so innocent, so peaceful, will you please continue?

I can't be there any time, but I am the kind of man who always books a flight in advance and leaves his house
at the time advertised by the clock.

I am not the kind of man who says,
"I can't, I can't," but rather, "I can,
I can, I can." And if I can, I will,
and if I can't, I won't, and that is all.

But the reason I can't is that I have some other engagements.

I have a very important case to attend to, and I must be in the United States on the 30th of June.

I am sure you all understand that I cannot break my engagements
without causing a great deal of trouble.

But I want you all to know that I love you very much, and I will do all in my power to make your school the best
school in the world.

I hope you will all work hard and be good children.

Yours affectionately,

[Signature]

Mr. Taft: Master Taft! Will you
JUNIOR HILL.
please talk to us about the weather?
Mr. Taft: Dear children, I can't giggle and laugh, and take pictures, so
please don't try it.

I can't be there any time, but I am
the kind of man who always books a flight in advance and leaves his house
at the time advertised by the clock.

I am not the kind of man who says,
"I can't, I can't," but rather, "I can,
I can, I can," and if I can, I will,
and if I can't, I won't, and that is all.

But the reason I can't is that I have
some other engagements.

I have a very important case to attend to, and I must be in the United States on the 30th of June.

I am sure you all understand that I cannot break my engagements
without causing a great deal of trouble.

But I want you all to know that I love you very much, and I will do all in my power to make your school the best
school in the world.

I hope you will all work hard and be
good children.

Yours affectionately,

[Signature]

Mr. Taft: Master Taft! Will you
JUNIOR HILL.
please talk to us about the stock market?
Mr. Taft: Dear children, I can't giggle and laugh, and take pictures, so
please don't try it.

I can't be there any time, but I am
the kind of man who always books a flight in advance and leaves his house
at the time advertised by the clock.

I am not the kind of man who says,
"I can't, I can't," but rather, "I can,
I can, I can," and if I can, I will,
and if I can't, I won't, and that is all.

But the reason I can't is that I have
some other engagements.

I have a very important case to attend to, and I must be in the United States on the 30th of June.

I am sure you all understand that I cannot break my engagements
without causing a great deal of trouble.

But I want you all to know that I love you very much, and I will do all in my power to make your school the best
school in the world.

I hope you will all work hard and be
good children.

Yours affectionately,

[Signature]

Mr. Taft: Master Taft! Will you
JUNIOR HILL.
please talk to us about the war?
Mr. Taft: Dear children, I can't giggle and laugh, and take pictures, so
please don't try it.

I can't be there any time, but I am
the kind of man who always books a flight in advance and leaves his house
at the time advertised by the clock.

I am not the kind of man who says,
"I can't, I can't," but rather, "I can,
I can, I can," and if I can, I will,
and if I can't, I won't, and that is all.

But the reason I can't is that I have
some other engagements.

I have a very important case to attend to, and I must be in the United States on the 30th of June.

I am sure you all understand that I cannot break my engagements
without causing a great deal of trouble.

But I want you all to know that I love you very much, and I will do all in my power to make your school the best
school in the world.

I hope you will all work hard and be
good children.

Yours affectionately,

[Signature]

Mr. Taft: Master Taft! Will you
JUNIOR HILL.
please talk to us about the government?
Mr. Taft: Dear children, I can't

Refrigerators
OF QUALITY

It pays to have one. Have there is no better way to keep things fresh. Our refrigerator makes it easy. In fact, it will keep 2 to 3 different sizes of fresh meat. W. H.
Hunt supplies the best food stocks. Every refrigerator supplied is equipped with a large capacity, high speed, high efficiency motor. To obtain the best from your refrigerator, it is necessary to enjoy a large capacity, as well as a good price. This refrigerator is made to last.

Special Sale of Carts and Baby Buggies
An extra in our stock of baby buggies to all those stopping this week.

1/2 Cent

- A. A. Depke

Look for the Union Label!

We sell only the best made goods in Milwaukee on whose Quality your guarantee is backed. We are an official Member of the United Label. This label is your assurance of satisfaction.

PORCH AND LAWN FURNITURE

We have the finest selections and a variety of colors in our stock. All of the most popular models are available to suit your requirements. Stop in at our store and see what we have to offer.

GEO. A. PRASSESONS
National Avenue, Corner Fourth Avenue

AT THE THEATERS.

DAVIDSON

The "Roxy Presents" series continues with a showing of "The Big Woman." The film is directed by George Cukor, and stars Marsha Hunt, with supporting actors like Jennifer Jones and John Hodiak. The film has been well received by critics and audiences alike.

PABST THEATER

A new production of "The Actor" is set to open this week at the Pabst Theater. The play, written by William Fleming and directed by John Houseman, features a talented cast including10 ACRFES OF FUN

UNITED SOCIALIST RACING SOCIETY, AND THE "BROADWAY BUNNY WED" "NIGHT TIME" THEATRE » AT

MAYOR'S FAMOUS BAND—Day and Evening Concerts

Don't Forget the Time, the Place, the Date

NOWKOWSKI'S FINEST.

Chances to Help the Girl that Lost Her Home in the Fire.

A benefit for the girl's family will be held on Saturday, July 21st, at 8 P.M. at the University of Chicago. The proceeds will be used to provide a new home for the girl and her family. A concert, featuring music by the University Orchestra, will be held in the evening. Tickets are $5 and can be purchased at the box office.

RECENTLY THE \"BROADWAY BUNNY WED\" \\
A REAL BARGAIN

SATURDAY SPECIAL SALE OF SAMPLE SHOES

WOMEN'S 95c

Prices may vary. Please check with store for specific prices. All sizes.

GEORGE'S SPECIAL SHOE STORE

1025 W. Wisconsin Ave.

SPECIAL FRIDAY, NEXT WEEK

Straw Hats
Golf Shirts
Negligeé Shirts
Leather Belts
Hot Weather Neckwear
Bathing Suits
Balbriggan Underwear
White Duck Hats
Fancy Tan Cotton Socks

E. J. PLAUM

305 MADISON AVE.

491-493 ELEVENTH AVE.
Town Topics by the Town Crier

It speaks volumes for Milwaukee's music culture that every hour or so, a band takes to the streets or park stages to entertain the public. This week, several events are scheduled, including free concerts by local favorites and a night of jazz at a local venue.

Would a 24-year-old member of any other city's music scene be able to say the same? Probably not. Milwaukee's musical scene is vibrant and diverse, offering something for everyone.

This week, the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra will be performing a free concert in a local park, and the Milwaukee Jazz Band will be entertaining at a popular music festival. These events, along with others scheduled for the week, highlight the city's rich musical heritage and its commitment to providing access to the arts for all.

In addition to concerts and performances, the city also hosts a variety of music-related events, including workshops, seminars, and competitions. These events provide opportunities for musicians of all ages and levels of experience to engage with the community and share their passion for music.

As a city, Milwaukee is committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive music scene. Whether you're a seasoned musician or a music enthusiast, there's something for everyone in Milwaukee's vibrant music scene.

Town Topics by the Town Crier

It speaks volumes for Milwaukee's music culture that every hour or so, a band takes to the streets or park stages to entertain the public. This week, several events are scheduled, including free concerts by local favorites and a night of jazz at a local venue.

Would a 24-year-old member of any other city's music scene be able to say the same? Probably not. Milwaukee's musical scene is vibrant and diverse, offering something for everyone.

This week, the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra will be performing a free concert in a local park, and the Milwaukee Jazz Band will be entertaining at a popular music festival. These events, along with others scheduled for the week, highlight the city's rich musical heritage and its commitment to providing access to the arts for all.

In addition to concerts and performances, the city also hosts a variety of music-related events, including workshops, seminars, and competitions. These events provide opportunities for musicians of all ages and levels of experience to engage with the community and share their passion for music.

As a city, Milwaukee is committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive music scene. Whether you're a seasoned musician or a music enthusiast, there's something for everyone in Milwaukee's vibrant music scene.