SAY!

Incentive Under Capitalism

Incentive Under Capitalism is a pamphlet that argues for the promotion of competition and the elimination of government interference in the economy. It was written by a socialist activist and published by the Socialist Party of America. The pamphlet is a critique of the capitalist system and advocates for a more equitable distribution of wealth and resources through the principles of socialism. The author emphasizes the importance of individual freedom and the need for a system that rewards hard work and innovation. The pamphlet is part of a broader movement to promote socialist ideas and challenge the prevailing economic system of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
