CHARITY, A CHEAP CAPITALIST INVESTMENT

Evelyn abut 1916 this Christmas Thanksgiving helmed and Christmas chaste been that the Charity, as a cheap investment, has been a recurrent theme. The wealthy and the powerful, it is often said, are the true benefactors of society. However, this notion has been criticized for its narrow vision of charity and its failure to address the root causes of poverty and inequality.

Here is charity to be understood as the act of providing aid or assistance to those in need. It is a noble and important endeavor, but it is not enough on its own to address the complex issues of poverty and inequality. True charity must be accompanied by policies and actions that address the underlying structural causes of poverty.

For example, a strong education system can help individuals break out of poverty, and access to affordable housing can make a significant difference in people's lives. These solutions require investment and the allocation of resources, not just acts of charity.

In short, charity should be seen as a part of a larger strategy to address poverty and inequality, not as a replacement for systemic change. We must work towards a society where everyone has the opportunity to thrive, not just those who can afford to donate.
Mr. Sam Gompers, Autocrat.

It is not pleasant to "knock" Gompers, a man for whom I have great respect and who has contributed immeasurably to the advancement of the labor movement, but I feel that the time has come to speak the truth about him.

Gompers has been the leader of the American Federation of Labor for over thirty years, and he has used this position to further his own interests rather than the interests of the workers. He has been a manipulator and a politician, more concerned with his own power and prestige than with the welfare of the workers.

One of the most glaring examples of Gompers' autocratic rule is his control over the labor movement. He has used his influence to suppress dissent and to silence those who oppose his policies. He has never been afraid to use violence or to resort to illegal means to silence his critics.

Another example of Gompers' autocratic rule is his manipulation of the labor movement's finances. He has used the resources of the labor movement to further his own personal interests, and he has not been above using them to suppress those who oppose him.

In conclusion, Mr. Sam Gompers is an autocrat who has used his position as leader of the labor movement to further his own interests rather than those of the workers. He is a man who should be held accountable for his actions and who should be held responsible for the suffering of the workers under his rule.

The Dilemma of the Democratic Party.

The Democratic Party is facing a crisis of its own making. The party is divided over the issue of the New Deal, with some members advocating a more radical approach and others calling for a return to the old policies.

The New Deal has been a mixed blessing for the Democratic Party. On the one hand, it has provided a boost for the party by appealing to working-class voters, who have traditionally supported the Democrats. On the other hand, it has also alienated some moderate and conservative voters who are put off by the radicalism of the New Deal.

The Democratic Party must find a way to balance these two forces and to appeal to both working-class and moderate voters. If it fails to do so, the party may lose its majority in the upcoming elections.

Supreme Beneficence.

President Roosevelt is going to occupy the White House for six more years. If he intends to keep the country moving forward, he will have to be a better President than ever before.

He will have to be a leader who can inspire confidence in the American people. He will have to be a President who can make the New Deal a success. He will have to be a President who can bring about a new era of progress and prosperity for all Americans.

It is up to President Roosevelt to prove that he is the man for the job. He must rise to the challenge and lead the country to a brighter future.
FAMOUS CHURCH SPEECH FROM "THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE"

Bible:—At the same time, I think that we should be on our guard against misunderstanding the meaning of this parable. It is not the case that a man can be called a "servant" simply because he does not do certain things. The point is that he must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. When you call a man a "servant," you must mean that you are willing to follow him as his guide and conform to his will. If you do not, you are simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—Of course, of course. Everyone who is called a "servant" must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word.

Bible:—Yes, that is true. But I think that the point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bishop:—I see what you mean. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.

Bible:—And that is the point. The point of the parable is that a man must be a true servant in spirit, as well as in word. If he is not, he is simply using the word in a superficial sense.
Behold! I Stand at the Door and Knock with an opportunity that, in its very nature, is most generous to all those who will TAKE A LITTLE SPARE TIME AND ADMIT OLD DAME FORTUNE

What Are You Doing?

in help your cause and your paper, wholly the express is duty to be the order of the day. What do you do when you are not writing?

AGENDA

You Want One of These Premiums

Why Don’t You Get Busy?

Why Not??

come and look over our large assortment of Fine

Watches, Neck-Chains, Lockets, Rings and Bracelets; all of fine sterling, in the best styles; come and select what you like. EMIL BACHMANN

611 THIRD STREET

for Mrs. Johnson in the kitchen. In the first place she thought I was just a disciple of the kitchen, and its many secrets. To her this was a great surprise. The fabulous prize, the grand prize, the prize for which all the work was done, is not ours to give away.

First Grand Prize, $100

A magnificent Parker Pen, consisting of one large heavy-frame lambert, and one large attractive prize, a most suitable furnished Easy Chair. This is a set such as would become the province of any home, or office. To all the others

there is an opportunity for when Society shall have

Third Grand Prize, $50

One of the first famous water Vending Machines, with handsome quartered oak cabinet. This is the Improved Victor No. 3 machine, using paper currency. It is a smart edition of its respective beauty, and its finish is of the highest quality.

Fourth Prize—Fifty $5.00 Bicycles

A craveable and desirable wheel.—something so handy in every day of its usefulness. It has all the features of a dresser’s care and expensive attention. It is a

Ninth Prize—$15.00 Camera

a 6x5 Camera. Model for, land and hand- operated; instan-camera, time and double exposure, W. S. Brown, "The Camera Man," 360 George Street, will gladly show it to you.

1908 DIAMONDS and Gold Jewelry

DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, WATCHES, SILVERWARE, CLOC HANDICRAFT, SILVER TOILET SETS AND NOVELTIES, OPERA GLASSES, ORNAMENTAL WARES

and every description of the above in your city.

We always show a great plenty, and plan to show all that is new and useful in your city.

PREUSSEY'S

209-211 Main Street

A. E. ZEHNDER

Manager

---

SPECIAL

Xmas Is Nearing

and we are ready and can show the first selection of DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, Cut Glass, etc., ever shown to the public at rock-bottom prices. A visit will convince you — and we advise you buy or not.

AUG. H. STECHER CO. No. 1

278 Third Street

20% Off

$20 with No Charge

---

About the Sewage Problem.

Sidney R. Congdon,

Professor of Electrical Engineering,

_The University of Wisconsin_,

makes this statement:

"The problem of sewage disposal is of the utmost importance.

Sewage, as a liquid, is simply a sort of hot water, containing all the ingredients that are used in the making of water. It is not a dangerous substance, but it can cause problems if not handled properly.

Sewage contains various types of bacteria and viruses, which can cause illnesses if ingested. Therefore, it is important to dispose of sewage properly.

The most common method of sewage disposal is by treatment and discharge into the environment. This process involves several steps, including:

1. Collection: Sewage is collected from various sources, such as homes and businesses.
2. Transportation: Sewage is transported to a sewage treatment plant.
3. Treatment: Sewage is treated to remove harmful components.
4. Discharge: Treated sewage is discharged into a river, lake, or ocean.

However, sewage treatment is not perfect, and some pollutants may remain.

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has set guidelines for sewage treatment to minimize the impact on the environment.
The New Fischer Store

In selecting Furniture, the first consideration with discriminating buyers is quality—that is, workmanship, the woods, the finishes, and the manner in which the various styles of the different makers. Nowhere in the state of Wisconsin is quality and assortment so happily combined as at Fischer's new store. Six floors completely stocked with Furniture suitable for every room in the house, and at prices equal as satisfactory to the owner of a mansion as to the owner of a cottage. This also applies to our

Rugs, Curtains, Draperies

Everything from the highest priced Oriental Rug to the plain Sash Curtain or the material from which to make it.

For the week—just to give you an idea for comparison—the biggest, best, largest, Brass Bed, etc. on or polished $10.78.

There are others—a hundred different styles and designs—with a range of prices with within the limits of your purchasing desires.

G.W. Fischer Furniture Co.

221-223 Second St., Cor. West Water St.

For the Holidays, we would suggest early buying. There are so many different pieces of Furniture that make a desirable Christmas selection—you will want to time your purchase early enough so that you will be able to select all holiday purchases and deliver them any time you desire.

The New Fischer Store...