The Only Way for the People to Combat the Meat Trust--By Victor L. Berger

THE meat trust has made its existence plainly felt in the kitchens of rich and poor. Even the government of the United States has seen fit to take action against the pork trusts. Every one is talking about trusts and the common people are against them.

In regard to the outcome of the investigation of the meat trust by the government it is safe to say that the result will be NOTHING in the future as it was NOTHING in the past. In other words--the meat trust and the other trusts own the government.

Every investigation of the trusts by the Republican government is a bluff. The court could find the "guilty conspirators" in the case of the boycotting Danbury hatters quickly enough--and the court found every member of the union guilty. But the investigators in Chicago will never find evidence against the millionaires making up the meat trust.

And the price of all kinds of meat continues to rise. It is now the highest since the war--when the country was on a greenback basis.

This meat trust has made it possible for a few men representing the private interest of a few firms to fix the price of meat, the article of consumption which forms next to bread the most important food for 90,000,000 citizens.

The business of the few firms which form the meat trust has reached a magnitude which excludes any kind of competition. They can at their pleasure exploit the nation.

It is reported that the net earnings of the meat trust during the last twelve years amounted to over $500,000,000 annually.

And it is not the lack of cattle which has caused the rise in meat values--no matter what the hog kings may say. This country supplies a great part of the civilized world with flesh foods.

A rational management of the existing supply would readily yield still greater increase of stock cattle than is obtained at present. But the ranchmen say that the packers oppress them.

Nor is the expense of the packing house excessive. In these plants all parts of the animals are so handled that nothing--simply nothing--is wasted.

It is the boast of the packers that they utilize everything of the pig except the squeal.

At the same time it is well known that workmen in the packing houses belong to the poorest paid and most exploited laborers in the country.

It is really a disgrace to this country that the government has not taken some steps to change the barbaric conditions in the big packing houses in spite of the exposure made a few years ago by that celebrated book, "The Jungle."

So it is an undisputed fact that neither the grower of the cattle, nor the worker in the packing house gets any advantage from the abnormal gains of the packer.

The trust simply dictates prices both for the raw material bought and for the product sold by it, and at the same time pays as little wages to its workmen as it is possible to pay. Nor is this all.

By its "route" cars, which are perambulating butcher shops, it has destroyed the retail business of the small towns, and it has been known for a long time that the retail dealers in the large cities are simply its agents.

By its cold storage houses the trust controls also the market for eggs, butter, vegetables and fruits.

Its business transactions amount to $700,000,000 annually and this business is growing with the natural increase of the population.

And this shows plainly the nature of these exactions--while prices within the United States have been advanced continually, those charged European consumers have been adapted to the local state of each market.

Thus, American meats are cheaper in London or Liverpool or Dublin, than they are in New York, Chicago or Milwaukee--the frozen meats of Australia compelling the reduction in Europe.

The fact is that under the Sherman law the combination of the meat packers is "illegal"--just as illegal as the blacklists against employees and the underhanded dealings against cattle dealers, which form a part of the conspiracy of the wholesale butchers against the public.

However, the Sherman anti-trust law seems to work only against the trades unions.

But what is to be done? The two "great" political parties are owned by the trusts. The leaders of the Democratic party in the East and in the South--where it still exists--are all trust men.

And the Republican party has long been known to be the favored organization of capitalists and capitalism. Taft, Root and Roosevelt are fruits of the same tree.

And La Follette might just as well expect a wolf to eat hay as expect the Republican party to become "anti-trust."

The various Republican cliques--the Insurgents, Progressives, etc., that now steal a few Socialistic planks, will never accomplish anything worth while anywhere. They are simply serving as a cloak to hide the iniquity of the Republican party as a whole.

These various state and local reform associations simply serve as feeders for the great capitalist political system, by advising well meaning men to vote that ticket in the vain hope that by some miracle the Republican party might change.

But no more can it change than a tiger can ever be made to become a domestic animal.

Even now the "Progressives" of Milwaukee are asked to vote for "Mad Mullah" Bancroft, "Sport" McGee, the $12,000 "Uncle Ike barrel" Knell, and other notorious characters. And the "Progressive" state central committee, and the "Progressive" county committee want the people to vote for these men.

As for the Democratic party--that is knocked out in Milwaukee pretty effectively by the Republican 20 per cent law in this state.

However, up North it is going to pieces everywhere.

The South of our country is just waking up in a capitalistic sense. And the southern capitalists (who are invariably Democrats) want their share of the general plunder. The Democratic party of the South is down there exactly what the Republican party is here. Only the name is different.

It is silly to blame the trusts.

The trusts are in business to make more money. And they naturally try to get as much as possible for their goods.

Every small merchant does the same. The principle is the same.

The motive--the desire to make as much profit as possible--is also the same.

The difference is only that the trust does on a large scale what the small business men do on a petty scale.

And the central idea of the trusts--concentration instead of division--operation instead of competition--is also a perfectly correct idea.

It gives great advantages to those who avail themselves of it, in other words, to those "who are in it."

And yet the alarm about the trusts is easily understood. The trusts just by their greatness have brought the evils of the capitalist system clearly before the eyes of every one.

The trusts have proved that under the present industrial system a small number of capitalists have it in their power to decide how much meat and how much bread we shall eat.

How much we shall spend for coal and how much for oil.

How much sugar and how much tobacco we are permitted to use.

How nicely or how poorly we shall be clothed and housed or whether we are to own a house at all.

In short, the trusts decide how well or how ill, how long or how short a time we shall live.

The trusts, as we have said before, are a benefit to those who own the trusts. Yet the trusts are large enough for the whole people to feel this benefit if the whole people should own the trusts.

Therefore, we Social Democrats contend that the whole people collectively--as a nation--should take the place of the few trust magnates and become the owner of the trusts.

Against the trusts there is no other remedy.

Progress, production on a large scale, the mighty accumulation of capital, makes monopoly a necessary condition. Monopoly is here, whether we wish it or not.

The question, therefore, is only whether it shall be a private or a public monopoly.

The question is, do we wish to leave the products of this country in the control of a small number of irresponsible men, whose only interest is to exploit us up to the last limit of our endurance?

Do we wish to leave to a small clique the monopoly of all things which make life good and desirable? Do we wish to make them absolute masters of all the necessities of our lives?

Do we wish to starve in our hovels like rats? Or do we wish to fight with bomb, dagger, dynamite and shotgun?

No! No! No!

We still have one way left to try to conquer these powerful economic tyrants. We still have the ballot. This country is politically a democracy and we can avail ourselves of political power.

Down with the power of capitalism. Down with the Republican as well as the Democratic parties, which are upholding the present system and its exploitation and its trust robbery.

Up with the banner of Social Democracy! Let the people take hold of the trusts. Let the trusts be put into the possession of the whole nation. Let all of us become shareholders.

There is no other solution.

Therefore, if you really want to combat the trusts--if you really want to make a change--then vote for Social-Democratic candidates for legislature.

And especially for the candidates of the Social-Democratic party for congress--Winfield R. Gaylord in the Fourth district, and Victor L. Berger in the Fifth district.

The election of two Social-Democratic congressmen from Wisconsin will send a cold shiver down the spine of every trust.

And it is bound to affect the high prices.

Victor L. Berger

Will the Democrats Assert Their Manhood?

CONDITION like we have now in both of the old parties in Milwaukee is without a parallel in the history of the state. During the last seven or eight years the Social-Democrats and the so-called Progressive Democrats have been accused by the Stalwart leaders of taking part in the Republican primaries in order to help La Follette and the La Follette men to win. This was always absolutely denied by the Social-Democrats.

However, after the Uncle Ikes and the Connor-Davidson coterie had their falling out with La Follette and joined the Stalwarts--and had their own way in the legislature--they made up their minds that they would stop this alleged source of strength for La Follette.

Thus a bill was proposed making it obligatory for every party at the primary election to cast 20 per cent of its entire vote for its candidates in order to obtain a place for the ticket on the official ballot.

The only organization which opposed this evidently unjust proposition was the Social-Democratic party.

The "Standpat" politicians hoped thereby to cut off all help from La Follette from other parties. The Democratic politicians thought that such a law would hinder their crowd from voting for La Follette and thus strengthen their own organization.

But the Social-Democrats opposed this law. We pointed out that while we did not fear its provisions--the measure was unfair and was bound to hurt the two old parties. When asked why then we opposed it, if we were not afraid that it would injure our party, we replied that the greatest measure of democracy was our main principle on the political field and that this bill was thoroughly un-democratic.

What we predicted came true.

Last spring the Republican party did not poll the necessary 20 per cent to nominate its ward ticket in eleven wards, and therefore it had no candidates for aldermen in these wards. The same thing happened to the Democratic party in six wards. The Social-Democrats were not touched at all.

This fall the Democrats were punished even more severely. Their entire county ticket, with one exception, went down. And the same misfortune befell them in about forty counties of the state.

Since the supreme court has upheld the law, the Democratic party is practically wiped out in this state--as far as this fall election is concerned. Now, what are the Democrats going to do?

On the other hand the so-called Progressive Republicans are also in a bad plight both in Milwaukee and in the state.

In Milwaukee county the Uncle Ike clique of statesmen and grafters in conjunction with the old Stalwarts has practical control of the organization. The so-called Progressives are down and out.

W. R. Knell, the man who handled the contents of the Uncle Ike barrel against La Follette in this county--and who before the Senate committee could not remember to whom he distributed $12,000 in cash--was nominated for sheriff.

Charles McGee, another renegade from the La Follette ranks, was nominated for district attorney.

And now comes the latest. Levi H. Bancroft, one of the worst backsliders of the La Follette camp and the rottenest tool of the corporations in the last legislature--a man who had been defeated at the primaries for the nomination of attorney general, was forced upon the "Progressives" as a candidate because his victorious opponent had died before the primary election day.

And the Progressive State Central Committee--which in make-up and personnel differs very little from the old "regular" crowd--is willing to swallow it all.

Everybody in Wisconsin knows that Levi H. Bancroft will shrink from nothing to gain personal or political advantage. Like all renegades he went clearly to the other extreme. He only recently called La Follette the "Mad Mullah" of Wisconsin politics. The Republican State Central Committee knows that. They also know that W. R. Knell not long ago acted as Uncle Ike's "barrel man" and chief corruptionist in Milwaukee county.

Yet they do not repudiate either of them. These reformers are willing to accept Bancroft for attorney general of Wisconsin, and Knell for sheriff in Milwaukee county.

Moreover, they all know that Charles McGee was appointed district attorney by Governor Davidson as a reward for treachery. They know that he has disgraced the entire Republican party by going into partnership with Katherine Heisdorf in the Rucker case. They know that he took money from the advocates of county prohibition in Indiana and shortly afterward from the brewery owners as one of their lobbyists in the Wisconsin legislature against "county option."

Yet these so-called Progressives are willing to swallow Bancroft and Knell--and McGee to boot. They evidently have a strong appetite and a still stronger digestion.

The question is only, what will the Democrats do? Will they in dog fashion lick the hand that smote them with the 20 per cent law and vote the Republican ticket for money or other considerations? Or will they assert their manhood and independence and vote according to their best judgment without fear or prejudice? What will they do?

Truly the condition of both the old parties in this county is without a parallel.

As for the Social-Democratic party--this has never been more united, was never in better fighting trim, nor more sure of victory than this fall.

A life of constant hardship is the lot of the workmen and their families as long as they are content that things should go on as they are. Every time they cast a capitalist party ticket they sign a certificate that they enjoy the misery that is now visited upon them.

Do you know that most of the men who sit in congress and sell out the people's rights, got their first election to that body by posing as reformers. Practically every one of them went to the people and showed them that he must get into congress to straighten things out. Have you been fooled so long that you are not satisfied with anything else?

Only About $2,000 Left. This Should Be Taken at Once. Act Quickly Before It Is Too Late!

Stock in the People's Realty company still continues to sell pretty fast. Not many more shares remain to be sold before we can draw on the proceeds of the mortgage to complete the building. Just as soon as sufficient is sold to release the funds raised by the mortgage and pay back the temporary loans we were compelled to make to pay contractors to prevent delay in construction, the sale will stop. This point is very nearly reached. So if you want to get some of this valuable stock it will be necessary for you to hurry. You must lose no time to get in on this gilte investment.

A Safe Investment

Money put into this enterprise is absolutely as safe as anything under the capitalist system even can be. It is positively much safer than any savings bank. Besides, you will realize as near as can be reckoned now, about 6 per cent per year after the building is finished, while the best that savings banks pay is only 2 1/2 to 3 per cent.

But it is not only a good dividend-paying prospect. Rents in this district run upward from three cents per square foot per month for office buildings, including janitor service, etc. At an average of a little over two cents per square foot per month the income will be sufficient to pay not only all expenses, 5 per cent interest on the $35,000, which will be borrowed to erect the building, 6 per cent dividends on stock, but also pay for the building in twenty-five or thirty years, and have a surplus besides. So that, you see, at the end of that period you will have not only the Druggist has to get of these sharpeners, and that's where their business comes in. It is believed that the fellows back of the game have set up their factory in Cincinnati, and it is said that this game of trick advertising has already made them several fortunes out of their dupes, the country over. And the newspapers will not expose the fraud, since they share in the spoils of the game, through fat advertising contracts. The Yankee schemer is a wonderful critter!

The "Red" Experiment

One would hardly expect to look to the principal English newspaper of barbarous Mexico, that land of unbridled capitalist exploitation and "Republican" censorship, for praise of the Milwaukee Social-Democrats, yet one need not look there in vain. For in the daily Mexican Herald, of the city of Mexico, we find a laudatory editorial under the above heading, which winds up with the following words:

The Milwaukee Socialist experiment is succeeding so well that the radical Socialists who, a few months ago, were accusing the brethren in charge of the Wisconsin city of "trunking to capital," are beginning to take credit for what is happening.

It is a vain wish, but let us imagine what this good city of Mexico would be today if the golden rule and the Milwaukee idea had been applied here, say, only a hundred years ago, and kept in working order until now. We should have a city sans slums, an abundant water supply and no dust, a lower class enlightened and progressive, and a general popular pride in the city and its history would be felt by the well-fed, well-clothed and hopeful masses.

What a civic spectacle, what an exhibit for the republic's centennial year!

Cities, like men, accumulate "karma," good and bad; and it is simply the law of consequences; and here as elsewhere past neglect of the poor, a failure to put religion into practice, gives as the triste spectacle of an ambitious proletariat and an upper class apathetic, sunk in their puddings and prosperity.

I should think it would be all off if Diaz gets a look at that particular issue of the said Mexican Herald!

High Prices—Cause and Cure!

By Carl Sandberg

WHAT is the reason the people of this country are rousing mad and exasperated about HIGH PRICES?

What's the reason the wage-earning class and the middle class are fighting mad about high prices?

Well, it is mainly this way: Wages and salaries have been standing still for most of us. But prices have been travelling upward in an up-to-date aeroplane.

The price of everything has been going up except the price of labor. You have to sell your labor for about the same price you got for it ten years ago. But when you buy groceries, meat and clothing, you pay two dollars this year where you paid one dollar fifteen years ago.

Prices and Wages.

One of the most important things to be remembered in speaking about the high cost of living is this: PRICES HAVE GONE UP. WAGES HAVE NOT.

Here are statements based on private surveys and government reports, made by a reliable writer in the Independent: "The wages of skilled workers in the United States have increased 20 per cent since 1900. The wages of unskilled workers have not increased at all. YET THE COST OF LIVING HAS INCREASED FORTY PER CENT BETWEEN 1900 AND 1910."

From a hundred different sources proof can be found in support of these statements. Every investigator who has gone into this subject of the high cost of living has come to just about the same figures as these above.

It can also be proven that based on the increased rate of production of wealth, PRICES SHOULD HAVE DECLINED FIFTEEN PER CENT. We are making more things, we are making them faster and we are making them at less expense of time and human labor than at any period in history.

Some Terrible Facts.

The American workman is the most highly skilled in the world and he is also the poorest paid in the world. The average yearly wage of the worker in the United States is $432.20. The highest paid wage earners in the country, averaging the pay of all the workers in each industry, are diamond cutters, each of whom averages $21.68 per week. The lowest paid men in the country are in the southern turpentine industries, where they average $5.23 per week. The lowest paid women get $2.26 per week for grading, roasting and cleaning peanuts.

The grand average of the American wage earner is $432.20 a year. THIS IS A TERRIBLE FACT WHEN WE KNOW THAT A FAMILY CANNOT LIVE DECENTLY AND COMFORTABLY FOR LESS THAN SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS A YEAR.

This one fact explains clearly more crimes, disease, vagrancy, pauperism, charity and incompetency than any other one fact in these United States of America today.

Poverty and Dollars.

You are asked to read very closely a statement made by Dr. Woods Hutchinson before the International Tuberculosis Congress at Washington:

"The heaviest factor in the production of tuberculosis and the most unfavorable element in the prospect of recovery, is LACK OF INCOME, in the sense of power to provide the necessities of life and health. If by some means the victim of consumption in any industrial rank of life would be given AN INCREASE OF SAY TEN PER CENT IN HIS WAGES, it would do more to improve his chances of recovery than almost any other single remedy. If the rate of wages for a given occupation by some legitimate means be increased, the percentage of tuberculosis will be diminished almost in the same ratio. The cure for poverty is money."

The mortality statistics on tuberculosis show beyond dispute that wealth reduces the chances of death from tuberculosis by 50 per cent. A poor man has just one-half the chance in fighting against consumption that a rich man has. The rich man can get what he needs to nourish his body. The poor man can't.

And what applies to tuberculosis will apply to a very large extent among other diseases and ills.

Shoddy.

Now, you may be afraid of statistics. You may feel that figures don't tell the whole story. And I think you are right. But I know that those who have investigated the high cost of living have spoken of it as a part of a shameful social tragedy that kills hope and aspiration and life itself in the breasts of mothers and the hearts of fathers by the hundreds of thousands.

Getting away from statistics and using common sense, what do we find? Is it not true that when people go to the grocery or the meat market, as a general thing, they buy what is cheap. They do not buy what they want. They do not buy what they need. They do not buy what they know their bodies need for nourishment. They buy cheap stuff. They buy shoddy. They have to. We eat shoddy food. We wear shoddy clothing. We live in shoddy houses.

Who Fixes Prices?

A few men have got control of the supplies, markets and transportation, so that they are able to fix prices. Francis Heney, speaking before the National Irrigation Congress, Sept. 30, said: "Four-fifths of the resources of the country have passed into the hands of the monopolies."

Frederick C. Howe states: "One-twelfth of all the land in America is owned by the Pacific railways." Meat valued at $1,500,000,000 and dairy and egg products valued at $51,000,000 and other food products totalling over one billion dollars in value entered cold storage houses during the year preceding July 14, 1910, according to reliable market reports. Steel, coal, oil, wool, cotton, lumber and practically all raw materials are controlled by the trusts. The only way the people will ever reduce the cost of living will be through national control of supplies, markets and transportation, and control can come only with ownership.

The Way Out.

It is not the tariff, the retailer, the farmer, the labor unions, nor extravagance, that has created the prevailing high prices. It is ORGANIZED CAPITAL. This is the power that fixes what you shall pay for what you eat and wear. ORGANIZED CAPITAL TODAY CONTROLS RAW MATERIALS, MARKETS, TRANSPORTATION AND STORAGE. This is the power that makes high prices. THIS POWER THE PEOPLE MUST BREAK. AND THE FIRST STEP TOWARD BREAKING THIS POWER IS TO ELECT SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMEN.

All those who desire to know what Social-Democratic congressmen would do toward breaking the power of organized capital should read carefully the Social-Democratic platform.

Socialism is the New Patriotism

HUMAN life depends upon food, clothing and shelter. Only when these are assured are freedom, culture, and higher human development possible. To produce food, clothing and shelter, land and machinery are needed. Land by itself does not satisfy human needs. Labor gets raw materials and food out of the soil by creating machinery and using it upon the land. Whoever has control of land and machinery has control of human life and with it of human liberty.

Today the machinery and the land used for industrial purposes are owned by a rapidly decreasing minority. So long as machinery is simple and easily handled by one man, it does not make its owners so powerful that they can dominate the sources of life of others. But when machinery becomes more and more complex and expensive, and requires for its efficient operation the organized efforts of many workers, its influence reaches into wider circles of life. The owners of such machinery become the dominant power in society.

In proportion as the number of such machine owners compared to all other classes decreases, their power in the nation and in the world increases. They bring over larger masses of working people under their control, reducing them to the point where muscle and brain are their only productive power. Millions of formerly self-employed workers thus become the helpless slaves of the industrial masters.

The more the economic power of the ruling class grows, the less useful does it become in the life of the nation. The overwhelming bulk of the useful work of the nation falls upon the shoulders of the classes that have no other productive property but their muscle and mental labor power.

The small traders and small farmers, the ruling minority is steadily becoming useless and parasitic. A bitter struggle over the division of the products of labor is waged between the exploiting property class on the one hand and the exploited, proletarian class on the other. In this struggle the proletarian class cannot expect adequate relief from any reform of the present order from the dominant class of society.

The wage workers are therefore the most determined and irreconcilable antagonists of the ruling class. They are the class which suffers most from the curse of class society.

Crimes of Judges

Let me here say that I hold judges, and especially the supreme court of the country, in much respect. But I am too familiar with the history of judicial proceedings to regard them with any superstitious reverence. Judges are but men, and in all ages have shown a full share of frailty. Alas! alas! the worst crimes of history have been perpetrated under their sanction. The blood of martyrs and of patriots, crying from the ground, summons them to judgment.

It was a judicial tribunal which condemned Socrates to drink the fatal hemlock, and which pushed the Savior barefoot over the pavements of Jerusalem, bending beneath the cross. It was a judicial tribunal which, against the entreaties of her father, surrendered the fair Virginia as a slave—which arrested the teachings of the great Apostle to the Gentiles and sent him in bonds from Judea to Rome; which, in the name of the old religion adjured the saints and fathers of the Christian church to death, in all its most dreadful forms; and which afterwards, in the name of the new religion, enforced the tortures of the inquisition, amidst the shrieks and agonies of its victims, while it compelled Galileo to declare, in solemn denial of the great truth he had disclosed, that the earth did not move around the sun.

It was the judicial tribunal which in France, during the long reign of her monarchs, lent itself to be the instrument of every tyranny, as during the brief reign of terror it did not hesitate to stand forth the un pitying accessory of the un pitying guillotine. Ay, sir, it was the judicial tribunal in England, surrounded by all the forms of law, which sanctioned every despotic caprice of Henry VIII., from the unjust divorce of the queen to the beheading of Sir Thomas More; which lighted the fire of persecution, that glowed at Oxford and Smithfield, over the embers of Latimer, Ridley, and John Rogers, which, after elaborate argument, upheld the fatal tyranny of ship money against the patriotic resistance of Hampden; which in defiance of justice and humanity, sent Sydney and Russell to the block; which persistently enforced the laws of conformity that our Puritan fathers, persistently refused to obey; which afterwards, with jettrons on the benches, crimsoned the pages of English history with massacre and murder, even with the blood of innocent women.—Charles Sumner

That Will Make Socialists and Socialist Votes

Many of you are looking for books and pamphlets to give to your friends to land them in the Socialist camp before election. Here is a list we can recommend to do the work:

"Socialism Made Plain," by Allan Benson, is by all odds the best book to put in the hands of the man you are trying to land. This book is written in everyday language by a newspaper man. It should be circulated extensively between now and election. Single copies, 15 cents; 25 copies, $2.75; 50 copies, $5; 100 copies, $9.

"The Constructive Program of Socialism," by Carl D. Thompson, is another book which will work wonders in removing prejudice. It shows what Socialists in European countries and Wisconsin have accomplished and planned for improving the conditions of the workers while in the minority in the city councils and state and national legislatures. If you have a doubting Thomas in your circle who is inclined to be an impossibilist, just get him to read the Constructive Program of Socialism and watch the results. Single copies, 15 cents; 25 copies, $2.75; 50 copies, $5; 100 copies, $8.

The very best leaflet to hand around between now and election day is "My Objections to Socialism," by a leading business man. It takes the enemy of Socialism off his guard and gets in its work so effectively before he realizes it that he seldom recovers.

In one big Milwaukee industrial plant a superintendent gave a Socialist permission to pass the leaflet around to the men, saying: "That's what we want—something to show up the fallacies of Socialism." It did its work before the superintendent realized what had happened. One hundred copies by mail, 15 cents; 1,000 copies by express, 75 cents, express charges extra.

"What The Republicans and Democrats Have Done for The Working Men," Their full record on that score put in the smallest possible space. None so dumb but what they can understand it. No one but will read every word in it. One hundred copies, 25 cents; 1,000 copies, $2. Don't fail to get a lot of these to hand around.

"The Crisis," by Robert Hunter. Just published, is the most important pamphlet for a labor union and Socialist point of view that has appeared for years. It deals with the usurpation of power by the courts in the United States. After you have read the book you can come to no other conclusion but that the workers of America, union men included, must choose between working class political action and judicial despotism controlled by a plutocratic oligarchy. Price, 10 cents.

"Mayor Seldel's Inauguration Speech," is unequalled as a propaganda document to be used where there is a municipal contest on. It points the only way to municipal salvation from the corruption which now exists in all our cities, whether ruled by Democrats or Republicans. Price, 20 cents per 100; 500 for $1; 1,000 for $1.75.

Letters on a World-Round Lecture Tour

By Walter Thomas Mills

1. Languages in Europe

YOU can go anywhere in Europe if you speak the English language only. This needs to be amended to read "You can get anywhere on earth if you are deaf, dumb and blind." That would hardly be believed by anyone and would thus do less harm. Personally I only know one language and only the easy words in that. I had the usual languages in the classical course in college. Did some extra work in languages no longer spoken in Europe nor anywhere else and then forgot them all—that is, what I had learned well enough to be able to forget.

My German I made up for in the most practicable manner. After I had forgotten my college German, I married my German. German attained in that way is never forgotten.

I had been told that with a speaking knowledge of English I could go anywhere in Europe. I believed it and tried it. It is true. You can do so if your wife is with you and can speak a little of everything provided you don't get separated beyond speaking distance.

My first experience in trying to speak English outside of America was in London. There the standard form of speech spoken by policemen, cabmen, conductors, waiters and others to whom you must address yourself is "Cockney." I am told on good authority that Cockney is a kind of English. It may be. I am in no position to say. If everything spoken by the public and private servants of Great Britain is some style of English, then I am persuaded that anything could be done in English—only you must be able to do the English.

"Can you direct me to the Cosmos hotel?" I asked a London officer. "Gow down the rowd to the top and there is the British museum," he said. "Thank you," I interrupted, "I know I would be an interesting specimen, but I am not here to be put in the museum. It is the Cosmos hotel I am looking for." Several times he got me as far as the museum in his directions and finally instructed me then to ask any officer.

On another occasion I asked the officer on his beat, "Will you direct me to Bow road?" "There is no such place in Lunnun," he replied. I showed him a printed bill with the address plainly shown. "That is not what you said. That is Ba-a-a-wood." I am spelling what I understood him to say.

I was willing to call the place anything if I could only get there but by no process could I get the information I needed. He was courteous incarnate, patient as an ox and much more intelligent. But he could not be induced to abandon this opportunity to teach me a new language and send me on my way instead.

But the fact that I finally reached both the hotel and Bow road proves that one can get on in London though entirely ignorant of the speech of the people and able himself to speak English only.

On another occasion, after I had finished an address, what had seemed to me to be an enthusiastic admirer said to me, "You could old the hat-tention of many crowd hanywhere because of the hamusing way hin which you butcher the King's Hinglish." That was getting on some with my own language, even in Hingland.

In Berlin we were listening to an opera. I was very hungry both for music and for a lunch. The music ceased for a while. My hunger did not. I went to the refreshment room. Thoughtlessly I went alone.

"Can you speak English," I asked one waiter after another with the uniform answer, "Nein, nein."

Finally a man passed me dressed like the other waiters. Of course he was a waiter. He wore the uniform. "Can you speak English?" I said to him. Then he spoke in a full, round, musical voice. "Certainly, what can real world life without a world language? It is asking too much to expect every one to learn tongues enough to speak to all his neighbors, each in a different tongue.

There is no single language in which the commonest needs of one's daily life can be so named that all will understand.

All the languages are complicated, unscientific, covered over with the inherited barbarian accidents incidental to the method of their development.

In a really scientific language each character must have but one sound and that always the same. When a word is written, it must be unnecessary to consult a dictionary to find out what it sounds like. When it is written or spoken it must be so built that its forms shall indicate its meaning to the utmost possible. Its relations to other words must be stamped upon it. Its place in the sentence, its sound, its meaning and its relations all indicated by the word itself with no exceptions, no irregular forms. Surely this can be accomplished.

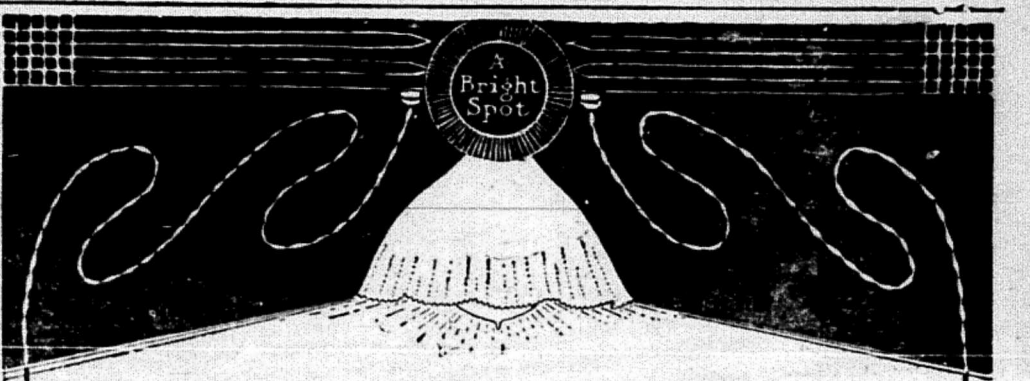

The hope of the world is in a better understanding between the peoples of the various nations and races of men. Without this, industrial exploitation at home and imperialism away from home—the means of producing the means of life used as weapons in mutual strife, not as agencies for the common good—all these things are possible only because of the confusion of tongues.

Heretofore when I have spoken strongly in favor of Esperanto, I have been told that English is winning the world. It is doing nothing of the sort. The world can only be won by a single, simple, scientific secondary language, easily learned, easily written, easily spoken, easily understood.

In these particulars Esperanto has no rival. International bodies of all sorts will soon be giving their proceedings in Esperanto. The German, French and English tongues now used by all such bodies should at once be supplemented by Esperanto. At an early day in all such bodies, more people in all the groups will be able to use the Esperanto than any other language.

At the recent Copenhagen congress those who could speak Esperanto were able to communicate with each other regardless of racial and international barriers to a degree that no linguist with half a dozen languages could at all accomplish. Thus Esperantists, moreover, seemed to have a new kind of patriotism. The enthusiasm of a new race solidarity realized in a single world language is in itself the most miserable thing of all regarding this new tongue or tongues.

It is stated that once a confusion of tongues confounded the builders and scattered the people. Nothing can so bring together the peoples and unite the builders as a rational single form of human speech and that day too, draweth nigh.

Abundance of Light at Low Cost is the aim and will be the result of the new schedule of electric light rates, effective September 1. Its low secondary or "energy" charge is designed to encourage abundant use of electric service, both in home and store. The low rate applies just as readily to the small user as to the large one; it is the intensive use which earns it.

Everybody now using or wishing to use electric light should acquaint himself with the terms of this new rate schedule in order to derive maximum benefit from its provisions.

NOTE:—As soon as practicable, customers using the Company's electric service on yearly contracts will be given the benefit of any reduction they may be entitled to under the new schedule of rates, to date from Sept. 1, 1910

A Grand Work Begun

It was a grand move for the city government to give room in the city hall for the new Institute of Municipal and Social Research, and it was fine to see the council chamber put to use for its big gatherings.

The first week of the institute in Milwaukee under the auspices of the University of Wisconsin was opened before a large audience in the council chamber Monday night with addresses by Mayor Brand Whitlock, Toledo, O.; President Charles R. Van Hise, University of Wisconsin; Dean L. E. Reber, university extension division; Mayor Seidel and the Rev. Frederick Edwards, chairman of the local committee.

A feature of the meeting was the unstinted praise of the Social-Democratic administration for its work and its hospitality.

"All shortcomings and failures of our municipalities have been due to the absence of democracy," said Mayor Brand Whitlock of Toledo, making the principal address. "The cure for all municipal ills is pure democracy."

Mayor Whitlock took a firm stand in favor of the largest possible measure of home rule for cities. Although in his address on "The City Government as a Business Corporation," he spoke particularly of conditions in Toledo, his remarks applied to conditions in Milwaukee as well. His plea for home rule especially met a responsive chord.

"The American city does not stand as a failure in democracy, because real democracy never has existed in a municipality," he said, in disagreeing with the statement of Ambassador James Bryce, who wrote that the American city was a distinct failure of democratic government. "All shortcomings and failures of our municipalities have been due to the absence of democracy. The cure for all municipal ills is pure democracy. The service of the city is to set the people free so that they can achieve their ideals without being hampered. The city is the cradle of progress."

President Van Hise spoke of the work being done by the university through the extension division in spreading education and knowledge among the great mass of the people.

K. U. V. Saxonia

The K. U. V. Saxonia will give a grand autumn ball on Saturday, Oct. 29, 1910, at the West Side Turner hall. The committee has been hard at work to make this ball a success and has not spared money or trouble to show everybody a good social time. Music will be furnished by Paul Langheinrich's orchestra and supper by the well-known caterer Paul Lindl, at 35 cents a person. Tickets at 25 cents each, to be had from all members, as well as from the well-known advance sale places. So, do not fail to attend this ball. In case members should want any more tickets they may be had from our friend John Catel, at 300 Fourth street.

Must be Decent Every Moment

The following, addressed to the district attorney, has been sent to this office, by some unknown voter: "Dear Charlie: There is only one way to be an honest district attorney: Do the decent thing every moment of your official life. Otherwise there is not enough pull in the heaven of Janssen and Pfister to keep out of the hell of defeat. Yours, "HALFBREED."

The Last Chance

If you want to vote you must register now. If you do not want to vote, there is no law compelling you to do so. But if you do not vote it is your own fault, because on Nov. 1 you still have a chance to register. Registering and voting are as good as firing a shot. If you want to help out, on Nov. 1, make a bee line for the nearest booth, and get your name on the list. That is all you have to do, and it is easy. It is much easier than trying to explain why you are not on the list.

New York Cheers for Milwaukee

Milwaukee got a noisy reception at the ratification meeting of the Socialist party of New York in Union Square, New York City, last Saturday night. Henry T. Jones was introduced as the speaker from Milwaukee, and when Comrade Jones appeared before the audience of six or seven thousand, he was not permitted to speak for several minutes, because of the continued cheering. Comrade Jones was not known to one twentieth of the cheering crowd and he says he is confident the cheers were for Milwaukee because of its Socialist victory last April. "If I had been introduced as a speaker from any other city in the United States," says Comrade Jones, "I would not have received a hand clap."

The New York Call in reporting Milwaukee's part in the program said: "Henry T. Jones, of Milwaukee, delivered a speech in which he said: 'I want to make it plain to you that the working people of Milwaukee have not any better brains than you have here in New York. Our only advantage comes from the fact that out in Milwaukee we have learned to use the brains we have on election day. We have turned the old parties out and enthroned the party of the workers themselves. Here in New York you are offered by the old parties a corporation lawyer and a banker for governor. If you are still asleep you will vote for these men. If you are as wide awake as are the men and women of Milwaukee you will vote for a man of your own class; a worker who knows what you need and want and is committed to a proposition which will insure your getting it.'"

Comrade Jones also spoke to a crowd of two thousand from one of the decorated trucks.

Federated Trades Council.

Regular meeting, Oct. 19, 1910. Bro. Max Grass in the chair; Bro. Edw. Basenberg, vice chairman. All officers present. On motion roll call of organizations was dispensed with. Minutes read and approved. New delegates seated from Wood Carvers No. 18, Railroad Carmen No. 10, Journeymen Tailors No. 86, Boilermakers No. 262, B. T. & C. Structural Iron Workers No. 8, Hardwood Finishers No. 1066, Brewery Teamsters No. 72, Brewery Engineers and Firemen No. 25.

Bro. Weber asked for the floor for the representatives of the Visiting Nurses and the request was unanimously granted. Miss Thompson was thereupon given the floor and explained the work of the nurses and the necessity for their tag day.

The Labor section reported on its meeting. Filed.

The Building Trades council reported on its meeting. Filed.

The Metal Trades council reported on its meeting. Filed.

A report was made of donation for the striking Leather workers. A total of $243.35 was announced to date.

On motion, Ald. Churchill was granted the floor to speak on the evils to the laboring class of the contract doctor system.

Ald. Grass spoke on the fact that so many patients at the Emergency hospital were set down by the doctors as alcoholics. He warned the workers against giving whiskey to injured men in the shops, as they were then recorded as alcoholics at the hospitals, and this stood against them in court. Dr. Churchill warned the delegates against giving liquor to injured men, as it made it harder for them to recover.

Bro. Frank J. Weber spoke on the Deitz case, giving a history of his efforts four years ago to get the legislature to investigate the persecution of Deitz by the lumber interests and their public officials, which were blocked by the old party members.

Bro. Schmidt, Weiser, Chappel and Grieb were added to the committee of fifteen.

The executive board reported having audited the books for the quarter and found same correct. The receipts were $1,572.09, and disbursements $2,818.81, leaving $1,005.55 as the cash on hand.

The board recommended that the Auditorium be rented for a monster mass meeting of organized and unorganized labor for Oct. 29, and that a $50 deposit be made for the rent of same, and further that a committee of three be named to make the arrangements. On motion the recommendation was concurred in unanimously and Bros. Weber, Melms and Basenberg were appointed as the committee. Bro. Melms later asked to be excused from pressure of other duties and Bro. Brophy was appointed in his place.

The board recommended that the council secure twelve more shares of stock of the People's Realty company as an investment and on motion the recommendation was concurred in.

The secretary was instructed to answer a communication from the International Carriage and Wagon Workers that was received through the Brewery workers.

Two communications from the International Typographical union, relative to the non-union printing shop of the D. M. Ferry Seed company of Detroit, and the fight of organized labor against the Wine and Spirit Bulletin of Louisville, were read to the council and delegates asked to take note.

News of Organized Labor

Conducted by Walter S. Fisher
 Address all Communications to 318 State St.

New York, N. Y.—About 10,000 men and women will eventually be involved in the strike of the book makers in this city. During the past year conditions have grown worse and worse in the bookmaking trade. Shortly after the strike last year, knitted ties were introduced on the market and as a result several hundreds of men and women were thrown out of employment. The bosses were quick to take advantage of such an opportunity and cut the wages continuously to such an extent that it became impossible for a necktie maker to earn a living wage, and they were compelled to strike in order to get an increase in wages and other improved working conditions. The girls have been earning from $3 to $6 per week, and the men from $6 to $12 per week, only a small number of men getting $12.

New Orleans, La.—The members of the International Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, employed by the Northwestern Alabama and Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific, and the Queen and Crescent railroad lines in Louisiana, are out on strike, after having met with a refusal of the part of the railroad companies to establish just working rules and pay a fair increase in wages.

Marshall, Tex.—All the members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters, Local No. 1429, of this city, are employed by the T. & P. Railroad company, and recently succeeded in negotiating a new agreement with the company, whereby the men received an increase in wages of 1 1/2 cents per hour. All of the coach builders are now receiving 37 cents per hour, with nine hours as the working day.

El Paso, Tex.—The members of the Barbers' union have won a victory for shorter hours after a contest lasting over a year. Perseverance always wins when the struggle is for the right.

Cartiff, Wales.—Two hundred and fifty thousand miners employed in a thousand collieries in the coal mining districts of Aberystwyth, went out on a strike as the result of a dispute with the nine owners over the employment of non-union men. Nearly 2,000 mines in the Welsh mining fields are idle as a consequence of the labor war.

New York, N. Y.—The Master Builders' association given up the fight with the International Bricklayers' union and agreed to all the demands of the members of the New York unions. When the bosses noticed the "sticking qualities" of the men they lost hope and gave up the fight entirely.

Wellsville, O.—Sixty-five employees of the Carroll Porter Boiler & Tank works struck after the company refused to comply with their demand for $2 a day straight wages. The men have been receiving $1.75 per day.

St. Louis, Mo.—A strong union of stenographers has been recently organized in this city, and a charter has been applied for from the American Federation of Labor. Over a hundred have already applied for membership in the new union, and plans have been laid for advertising with a view to building up a strong membership.

Boston, Mass.—The Garment workers of this city recently signed agreements with the employers which give their members an increase in wages ranging from 10 to 20 per cent. The agreement also provides for the eight hour workday with the Saturday half holiday the year round.

San Francisco, Cal.—The members of the Journeymen Tailors' union have been busy negotiating new contracts this month and prospects are bright for the men. Several firms have already signed the new agreement, which provides that coat makers be paid $25 per week and no helper less than $2 per day, all to be paid by the week.

Chicago, Ill.—Upholsterers in the employ of six of the large furniture manufacturing concerns of the city are out on strike for an increase in wages. The members of the union think that as the cost of living has gone up to a large extent, that an increase of 3 cents per hour or $1.50 per week is only a fair request on their part.

Ithaca, N. Y.—Last month the Typographical union succeeded in signing up a new scale which will give its members an increase in wages amounting to $2 per week. The new scale as agreed to by the employers provides for $19 per week for the next two years, from Sept. 19, for night machine work, and $20 per week for the last two years of a four-year contract. For the same period machine work on evening newspapers and book and job offices will be at the rate of $17 and $18 per week.

Book Binders Locked Out

While negotiations are going on between the workers and the bosses with a view to adjusting a new book binders' wage scale, the Chicago Shipping and Receipt Book company has locked out its employees and declared its intention of running an open shop. The workers involved belong to the Blank Book Forwarders', Finishers' and Cutters' union No. 25, Paper Rulers' Protective association No. 26, and the Bindery Girls' union No. 30.

So far as can be learned there are only a few scabs at the plant of the Chicago Shipping and Receipt Book company, and the union officials doubt the ability of the bosses to do the work laid down by the union men.

In the meantime, the union is carrying on negotiations for a new scale with the employers' association with a probability that their demands will be granted. They have been working for $18 a week.

The Party for Labor

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 19, 1910.
 To the Glass Blowers' Union, Local 15, Milwaukee, Wis.
 Brothers:

Any bill which aims to promote the organization of labor, to guarantee for this purpose the right to organize, the right to picket and boycott, the right to collect funds for economic as well as political battles, will have my hearty support.

Any bill aiming to reduce the hours of labor in general, to raise the wages in general, and in general to make more secure and wholesome the conditions of employment, to abolish child labor, to guarantee humane conditions for women workers, will have my hearty support.

It may interest you further to know that the Social-Democratic party as such is pledged to promote all measures calculated to advance the interests of the working class, and that this party will hold me strictly to my party obligations in this matter.

The campaign funds of this party are not drawn from any corporation, but from workingmen. Therefore, neither I nor my party will be under any obligations to the capitalists in any way whatever.

Yours sincerely,
W. R. GAYLORD.

Post of Battle Creek, Mich., who belches his vituperation against organized labor whenever an opportunity presents itself, attempted to place an advertising wagon in the Labor Day parade at Springfield, Mo. But the fodder merchant was doomed to disappointment, as his vehicle was chased out of the parade, thus demonstrating that even in Missouri, the slander of unionism has no standing. Think of a wife-beater and soul-mate chaser assuming the brazen effrontery of desecrating Labor Day by placing a wagon filled with peasant hush in a parade of men that are battling for human liberty!

The Party Mayor Seidel Meant!
I don't belong to any political party. I am only an uneducated woman. But I can't bring it over my heart not to thank The Free Press for publishing the answer to the question that was bothering my brains, and hundreds of others. The question was: "Which party Mayor Seidel meant when he said, 'Husbands, fathers and sons, stick to your rights; don't sell your right for a glass of beer'?"
Think of your loving wife and loving children, so you will vote the ballot for the party that will not bring your family into the same condition the Deitz family is in.
But Mayor Seidel did not mention the name of the party, that the man should give the ballot to, that he would not be ashamed to look his loved ones in the face. He told us to use our brains.
Who tried to answer the question? Which was the party the man need not be ashamed to vote for? We all know that one party runs the other down.
But Monday morning, Oct. 17, the question was answered me through The Free Press.
They had it that the mayor devoted the greater part of his speech to a straight Socialist campaign speech. I believe now with my whole heart that that is the party. If your enemy says you are right, you certainly must be right.
And Mayor Seidel could be proud of his party, and his party could be proud of him. And we all in Milwaukee who are for the right can be proud we have such a mayor.
All of those who were in the Auditorium Sunday, Oct. 16, and heard Mayor Seidel and used their brains, must say the same things I am saying.
By what I have heard in Mayor Seidel's speech I saw that he had a heart and feelings like a father would have for his children. That he loves, with his heart and soul, for he was explaining to those who have the right to defend their own right.
I am a woman without the right to vote, but I have the right to beg you, the loving wives and sweethearts, to save The Free Press of Monday morning, Oct. 17, and give it to them when they need it—that is, when they go to cast their ballot, so they would know which is the party, and so they will not be ashamed to look in the faces of those they love, and as this is what The Free Press says, that it is Mayor Seidel's party, and you can't make a mistake.
MRS. A. H. SPRANGER.

Every word Sport McGee utters is a lie. Dave Rose was respectable in comparison.
The Republican and Democratic parties are at the old trade—that of putting unfit men into office!
Men with a certain kind of political ideals become grafters when they get the chance, or are only "good" when they are afraid of being caught!
McGee's latest concerning Seidel's stock gives a good index to the nature of the man. When he has to grasp at such an empty straw he sure is drowning!
Congressman Cary says he always carries his telegraphers' card to have it ready if he is challenged. Why he did not think of that when he voted for crooked labor bills in congress!
The county has something at stake, too, in the matter of its public records. Leaving the sheriff's office stripped of the public record may be a good thing for sheriffs who have things to cover up, but it is certainly a little tough on the people of the county.
Pardon our roars of laughter, but really these old party candidates are too comical for any use. They are so far gone that the only way they can hope to attract anybody to their meetings is to advertise in the papers that they will slay the Socialists. Hard pressed, all right!
The policemen and firemen will now look with interest to their new champion in the fire and police commission. Commissioner Wright will make good for he has the grit in him. Dr. Kraft made an exceptionally good member and Mr. Wright will take up the work where he left off.
Don't forget that the old party candidates that come to you this campaign with tales about their faithfulness to public interests come from the same camps that furnished Milwaukee county and city with that fearful crop of grafters only a few years ago. Can a stream rise higher than its source?
There are only one or two decent men on the Republican county ticket.

The Famous Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing For Men
WE'VE brought together this fall the greatest line of smart, snappy, fashionable models you ever had a chance at. We've always had a sort of leaning toward the young men's styles; we find a good many of the older men feel the same way about it; and this season we're better equipped than ever to take good care of this trade.
THERE'S something for every man in town—a color that will suit, a pattern that will please, a weave that looks and feels just right to you—and they're HERE READY TO WEAR.
Prices Range from $20 to $40
Special $15 Suits We've given particular attention to this line, because it's the price hundreds of men want to pay. They have many points of merit in carefulness of tailoring, excellence of material and fine style that gives them a fine appearance far above the low price. Shown in all the new shades of tan, brown and gray. Coats 32 to 42 inch length.
