The Milwaukee Election—By Victor L. Berger

The Socialist ticket scored a decisive victory in the Milwaukee election, winning 13 seats in the Wisconsin legislature, including the seat of the District Attorney, the first Socialist ever elected to Congress from Wisconsin, and several other important positions. The victory was attributed to the strong support of the working class and the direct action of the Socialist party, which organized a broad and effective campaign.

The Milwaukee city election was characterized by a high level of political activity, with a strong showing from the Socialist party. The Socialists won several important positions, including the District Attorney and several city council seats. The Socialist platform emphasized the need for social and economic reforms, including an end to the exploitation of workers and the establishment of a workers' government.

The Socialist ticket campaigned on a platform of workers' rights, including the right to strike, the end of sweatshops, and the establishment of a minimum wage. The Socialists also called for the abolition of the private control of industry and the distribution of land to the farmers. The Socialist message was well received by the working class, who saw the party as a champion of their interests.

The Socialist ticket's victory was a significant milestone in the history of American labor and politics. It marked the first time that the Socialist party had fielded a strong candidate for Congress and won a seat in the legislature. The Socialist victory in Milwaukee was a significant achievement for the working class and a sign of the growing strength of the Socialist movement in the United States.
Wisconsin Socialists Make Big Legislative Gains

The Socialist pledged seats of the state legislature are as follows: eleven for Milwaukee county, one for the four counties of Dane, Milwaukee, Walworth, and Waukesha, one for Jackson county, one for Sheboygan county, one for Racine county, and one for the other counties of the state. The Democrats also had one Socialist, representing the city of Milwaukee in the state senate.

As a result of the election, the representation from Wisconsin in the state legislature will be seventeen Socialists and fifteen Democrats, with three independent representatives. The new session will be opened on Monday, November 21st.

The Builders’ Column

Forward Builders!

In other columns of this issue of the Herald we have read of the tremendous victory of the Socialists of Milwaukee County.

That victory is now an historical fact. What we make of it will be of absorbing interest to all who are interested in the progress of humanity.

There is only one source from which a ‘‘all, reliable and hope inspiring record of what the Socialists in control of the City and County of Milwaukee are doing and planning can be found. And also what our fourteen representatives at the State Capitol at Madison are attempting to force the ‘Progressives’ who hold a strangle hold of the State, to do for the people.

And don’t forget it will not be long before the people will be thundering through the columns of the Herald from Washington.

Take these ‘thirteen’ subscriptions cards we sent you and sell them. You can do it with little effort the next two weeks.

Below is the testimony of one Milwaukee builder, how easy it was done before election. You can all do it now.

Franchises? What Are They?

The franchise of a street railway, or any other public utility, is a contract between the company and the city for the use of the streets in furnishing transportation, electric light, etc., for the Public.

There is no money or property value in the franchise itself. The franchise enables the company to build and operate the property for the use of the Public, restricting the company to fair and reasonable charges for the service furnished.

The franchise gives the company the right to certain restricted space in the city in which to operate. In making of this privilege, the company pays all the capital and takes all the risks of the business.

In accepting a franchise, the company places itself in the performance of a public duty according to the terms and conditions of the franchise, subject to public regulation and various restrictions laid down by the city.
