Business Man Says Socialism Must Win

Business man says socialism will eventually win because of the present economic conditions in the country. The man, who has made millions in the oil business, said that he saw the country on the road to socialism unless something is done to correct the present economic conditions.

Although I am conservative in my politics, I am not in favor of making war on socialism, he said.

Historically, there has never been a country that has ever been made a success by opposition to a people who are trying to get somewhere.

When the country is ready for socialism, it will be ready for it, and the man who tries to stop it will only delay the day.

Withdraw the Troops!

Socialist National Executive Committee issues Proclamation—Let Every Socialist Take Notice

The Socialist National Executive Committee of the American Labor Party has issued the following proclamation:

"Withdraw the Troops!"

The proclamation calls for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, stating that the intervention is "a violation of the Monroe Doctrine and a threat to the peace and security of the Western Hemisphere." The Committee calls on all socialists to take notice and support the call for the withdrawal of troops.

Another Judicial Outrage

S. A. Parson, in his biographical sketch of C. E. Tuck, the third editor of the Socialist World, of Oakland, wrote: "Every day he is increased. Let us look at the facts and see if he is in jail."

The Socialist World was suppressed as a result of being convicted of an illegal publication. The suppression was ordered by the state supreme court as a matter of fact. The court ruled that the publication was a public nuisance and that it was necessary to suppress it.

The case has been appealed to the federal court, which will hear the case on Monday. The Socialist World has been published for many years, and its editors have been cited for contempt of court.

A Labor Heroine

The late Miss Frances S. Roche, a well-known labor leader, was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Oakland, on Thursday. She was known for her work in organizing labor unions.

Miss Roche was a strong advocate of the eight-hour day and was a charter member of the American Labor Party. She was active in the women's suffrage movement and was a leader in the fight for women's rights.

Socialism is the New Patriotism

The Socialist banner was unfurled in the city of Oakland, and a large crowd gathered to hear the speakers. The meeting was attended by many socialists from the surrounding communities.

The speakers included C. E. Tuck, the editor of the Socialist World, and other prominent socialists.

"Socialism is the New Patriotism," they said, "and we demand the right to organize and to speak freely."
The City Government, The Street Railway and The People

The City Government in its dealings with a Public Utility Company acts as an agent of the People.

It would be impossible for every Citizen to take part personally in the detail of the City's business affairs. Therefore certain ones are chosen as Public Officers to do this work.

These Public Officers have duties to perform that are at times very difficult. Their responsibility is great, for they have extensive power and authority, given to them by the People to be used in transacting the People's business.

The Officials of the City Government represent all of the Taxpayers, including the Public Utility Companies, which are taxed more heavily on their property than almost any other business enterprise.

It is intended that the City Government shall have all the affairs of the People so far as may be necessary for the greatest welfare of ALL THE PEOPLE. Any law or ordinance that works contrast or plan causes injustice. Then some of the People must suffer.

Every set of the Public Officers that relates to the work of the MILWAUKEE ELECTRIC RAILWAY and LIGHT COMPANY is of deep interest to every Citizen of Milwaukee.

The Street Railway is not merely a convenience. It is a powerful influence in the growth and prosperity of the city. It plays an important part in the business success and social life of every resident of the City.

Much of the regulation of the street railway service in the past has caused unnecessary burdens and heavy expense. Requirements of this kind are unjustified unless they result in some important benefit to the Public and are fair to all who are affected by them.

Any waste of money in the operation of the Street Railway is a loss to the public in the quality of the service. Unnecessary restrictions also interfere with the service.

No person who is not thoroughly familiar with street railway operation can tell how a new plan will work out. Even men who have made a life study of that business cannot be sure.

For these reasons the Public Officers and the Street Railway Company find it very hard sometimes to decide questions that arise in connection with the Company's work.

A Little Story About Hay

Yes, this is a little story about hay that was promised but never delivered.

Down in the little farm field a wheat crop was ready for harvest. The farmer waited for the perfect day, hoping to get it done before the rain came.

The farmer got his team ready and his scythe. He was confident that the weather would cooperate.

A day arrived, and the farmer set out to cut his wheat. He worked hard all day, cutting every stalk with precision.

When evening came, the sun began to set, and the farmer realized that he wouldn't be able to finish the job. He promised to come back the next day to finish it.

The next day arrived, and the farmer was eager to get back to the field. He started working again, but the rain started to fall.

The farmer was stuck, and he couldn't finish his work. He had to wait another day, hoping that the weather would change.

Finally, the sun came out and the farmer could finish his work. He worked hard all day, but by the time he was done, the hay was already dry and brittle.

The farmer took his hay to the mill, and it was no good. He had to start over again, and the whole process took much longer than he had planned.

The moral of the story is that planning and preparation are important. It's better to take a little more time to do things right than to rush through them and ruin the end result.

Milwaukee's Credit

When the bids for bonds were made for the city in the spring of 1917, it was thought that bids for the bonds would be about $1,000,000. But when the bids were made, the bids were $1,000,000.

The city of Milwaukee has a large overdue balance of $1,000,000. This overdue balance is due to the fact that the city of Milwaukee has not been able to pay its bills on time.
