Victory Would Put Democrats Between Devil and Deep Sea

The Democrats are in a dilemma. The special session has proved a failure to that party.

The Democratic ticket on the other hand is in no better shape. It must be said that so far the Democrats have made a poor showing in the state for years.

The Democratic majority has given the Republicans minority all the advantages of the legislative session for the Democratic cause. The Republicans, who are the party in power, have used their influence to the full in the present campaign

So far the Republicans have had the better of it. They have utilized the power of the press to the fullest extent possible.

In fact, the Social Democratic party with a great deal of advantage, could have won the majority in the house, the act of the vote in the minority of the Democrats.

It is said that the Democratic party is in the dark. The Republicans are in a very fine position.

The Democratic party must be divided into three very definite groups.

The spirit of the anti-Taliesin movement of the "outward"—with Carter, DeWitt and Paine, are the leaders. The latter is the most right wing of the party. The Republicans are taking advantage of this situation in their campaign.

Then there are the progressive, and the "inward" Republicans, led by Mr. Polet, and the Social Democratic party have no chance to win the majority.

As far as the People are concerned, there can be an election in the next election, and the Republicans will be in power once more.

The Social Democratic party has no chance of winning the majority, and the Social Democratic party are divided in their campaign.

The Social Democratic party will have to work hard to get in power, and the Social Democratic party are divided in their campaign.

How About Our Newspapers?

Charles Edward Russell in LaFayette's

There is a way to encourage our newspapers to publish the news in a way that will benefit us. The way to do this is to demand that they conduct their business with an understanding of the values of our community.

The result is the newspapers will have a greater sense of responsibility. This means that the newspapers will be more concerned about the interests of the community, not just about their own profitability.

The Newspaper

Now, the lack of display newspapers from the start of this issue, seems to have been a mistake. The newspapers should be more involved in our community activities. If we want to see more of our newspapers, we need to let them know that we want to see more.

The Newsmakers

In this issue, we have seen a number of newsmakers. Some of these are local, while others are national. The newspapers have done a good job of covering these events.

The Source of News

The sources of news are important. We need to ensure that the newspapers are getting their information from reliable sources. This will ensure that the newspapers are providing accurate and reliable information.

The Future of Newspapers

The future of newspapers is uncertain. We need to support the newspapers so that they can continue to provide us with the news.

The Support of Newspapers

We need to support the newspapers so that they can continue to provide us with the news. This can be done by purchasing their products, attending their events, and supporting their initiatives.

The Conclusion

In conclusion, we need to support our newspapers. By doing so, we can ensure that they continue to provide us with the news that we need.
Senatorship Cost $111,385.49

Thai's re-election of Thaddeus Stevens, Democrat, of Wisconsin to the United States Senate, has been declared, and it is said that the United States Senate will have to pay for it.

In the United States Senate, there are 100 members, each with a salary of $6,000 per year.

Down. Near Cost New

The Senate's costs for 1911 are $111,385.49, according to the home office.

The Senate building in Washington, D.C., is a 12-story, marble- and granite-faced structure, with a dome, clock, and other features.

Westmoreland, Pa., Is Russia of America

By Elias Gold

(Concluded)

The island of Westmoreland, Pa., is Russia of America. It is a small, unassuming community, but it has a rich history and culture.

During the American Revolution, Westmoreland was a strongholds of patriotic Americans. Many of its residents fought for independence from Britain.

During the Civil War, Westmoreland was a hotbed of Unionism. Many of its residents furnished men and supplies to the Union Army.

During the Great Depression, Westmoreland was a center of radicalism. Many of its residents marched in labor unions and demanded social justice.

Today, Westmoreland is a community of proud patriots. It is a community of hard-working people who are determined to make America great again.

Mayor Seidel's Speech at Madison

Mayor Seidel addresses the Social Democrats May 17. The same day the Socialist Party, the Democratic Party, the Republican Party and the Progressive Party held their respective conventions.

The speakers were H. W. Basse, the Social Democrat; Emergy D. M. W. Y. 1912, in which year after year for one stand for one idea.

For the Social Democrats the Republican Party, the Democratic Party, the Socialist Party, and the Progressive Party were all enshrined in the same profession.

The Socialistic party was called the Democratic Party, and the Democratic Party was called the Socialistic Party. The Socialist Party was called the Socialist Party and the Republican Party called for the protection of the masses of the party.

Young Winslow a Socialist

The name of Wisconsin Chief Justice Edith Winslow was used in a recent editorial comment in the Milwaukee Sentinel.

Her name is Horace Winslow, and he is the father of Chief Justice John J. I. L. In the statement, the editorial points out that the Winslow family has been associated with the Republican Party for many years.

Turner Societies Disgraced

The Memorial Day observance used for partisan politics.

The Turner society, which has been active in Wisconsin for many years, has been accused of using the occasion of the Memorial Day observance to promote its political agenda. The society has been accused of engaging in political activities, such as distributing political literature and making speeches, during the observance.

The Hoisting of Carney

When Aidn. Joseph C. Carney was hoisted for his 93rd birthday celebration on May 20, that gathering of admirers was one of the highlights of the social calendar.

There were many present, not only Socialists, who gave Carney the sign of the hammer and sickle in recognition of his work for labor and socialism. The gathering took place at a hotel in the downtown area and was attended by many of Carney's friends and associates.

Those who applied were not only Socialists but also many others who had been influenced by Carney's work. The event was a testament to Carney's influence and the respect he commanded.

The Escape from the Asphalt Ring!

Specifications in Milwaukee for 25 miles an hour, but many of the roads were too steep for that. The streets were very narrow, and the sidewalks were crowded with people. The streets were also very dusty, due to the major portion of the traffic being horse-drawn. It was not too long before the engines began to get black, and the streets were filled with smoke. The horses were very tired, and the people on the sidewalks were suffering from the heat and dust. The drivers were also tired, and some of them were drinking heavily. It was not unusual to see a driver fall asleep at the wheel.

On Wednesdays, the streets were even more crowded, due to the fact that most of the people worked in the city and had to go to work. The streets were also very noisy, due to the constant honking of horns and the clanging of bells. The sidewalks were also very crowded, due to the large number of people going to work or coming home. The streets were also very dangerous, due to the lack of traffic control and the lack of traffic lights. The drivers were also very reckless, due to the fact that they had too much to do and they were tired of all the traffic and the heat.

Carney’s Beefsteak

When Mr. J. J. Carney, of the Carney’s Beefsteak House, was asked to serve one thousand guests at the Main Street Hotel, he did so with ease. The hotel was filling up, and the guests were arriving in droves. The hotel was overcrowded, and the guests were very uncomfortable. Paving Swindle Clear

All Kinds of Asphalt Except Trinidad Shut Out by Carney-Rose Specifications—Experts Testify—All Contracts Hold Good

Two eminent highway experts told Madison asphalt politicians to "eat crow" yesterday. The experts were a man from St. Louis and a man from Washington, both of whom had been approached by the city last year to work out specifications for Madison asphalt. The experts both told the city that it would be impossible to get any asphalt contract this year.

Was Carney Double-Crossed?—The Madison Highway Department has been accused by its critics of double-crossing. The charges are based on the fact that the City Council has been asked to approve a contract for paving Madison with asphalt, even though the city has not yet approved a contract for paving Madison with blacktop. The experts say that the city cannot make such a contract until it has first approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop.

More Proof in Coming to the Fore—The experts say that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt. They say that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt. They say that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt.

What an Expert Says—One of the experts, who is a civil engineer, says that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt. He says that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt. He says that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt.

New Pavement Will Be Good—The experts say that the new pavement will be good. They say that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt. They say that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt. They say that the city should not have approved the contract for paving Madison with blacktop until it had first approved the contract for paving Madison with asphalt.

Paving Town Topics by the Town Crier

There are stories for the same Fourth!—The Fourth of July is a national holiday, but it is a holiday that is celebrated in different ways by different people. In some places, it is a day for picnics and parades. In others, it is a day for fireworks and sports. In still others, it is a day for political speeches and demonstrations. But in all places, it is a day for patriotism and celebration.

1000 VOTES CARRIED—Last year, 1000 votes were cast in the town of Madison. The town is divided into two parts, the north and the south. The north part of the town is more heavily populated than the south part. The north part of the town is more heavily populated than the south part.
