Comment on Passing Events—By Fredrick Hayes
The correos are sound, and the most disgusting military display is encountered in the midst of the city proper. News comes from Poland that for the first time in the history of the government of the Republic, the Social Democratic party is trying to take power. The Social Democrats in Poland, from the experience of the Social Democratic party in Germany, would expect, the Social democrats, who have the political power, to succeed. The situation, however, is very critical for the Social Democrats in Poland, as they are in a minority, and are facing a strong challenge from the right-wing parties. The situation is further complicated by the fact that the Social Democrats are divided into two factions: those in favor of a democratic government, and those in favor of a worker's government. The latter faction, which is led by the Social Revolutionary party, is gaining momentum. The Social Democrats are in a difficult position, as they have to balance the interests of the workers and the needs of the country. The Social Democrats must take a firm stand and work towards a democratic solution.
Suppressed in Milwaukee

Radio stations set by Negro press bureau.

Papers in other cities publish them—local paper afraid to.

"Let us write the news and I care not if it ...成熟" said a professor last Sunday. And the professor, we are told, is supervised by the power brokers.

When bank can use strip, the government will turn the other way.

Sufficient News

There is no doubt in my mind that the Negroes are ready and able to do their part in the struggle against the slums and the exploitation of the Negroes.

Two events of last week are further evidence of this.

The first is the election of a Negro as a delegate to the American Legion convention in Chicago.

The second is the suppression of the Radio News Bureau by the government.

The suppression of the Radio News Bureau is a clear indication that the government is not willing to allow the Negroes to control their own affairs.

It is interesting to note that the government has been more lenient in the past with the Negroes than with the whites.

For example, in the case of the Radio News Bureau, the government has suppressed it without ever making a public announcement.

In the case of the whites, on the other hand, the government has always made a public announcement when it has suppressed a newspaper.

This difference in treatment is a clear indication of the government's attitude toward the Negroes.

It is evident that the government is not willing to allow the Negroes to control their own affairs.

The suppression of the Radio News Bureau is a clear indication of this.

The government has shown that it is willing to suppress any newspaper that it considers to be a threat to its power.

Judge Gary: An Appreciation

By Emanual Jullian

Judge Gary is the sixth interesting character to have been interviewed by The Leader in this series. "I refer to Mr. William Thomas, who has been a member of the Board of Education in this city for many years."

The interview was conducted at Judge Gary's home, located on the corner of 23rd Avenue and Main Street. The house is a large, old-fashioned structure with a large porch and a garden in front.

When the interview began, Judge Gary greeted me cordially and offered me a seat. As we sat down, he explained that he had been a member of the Board of Education for many years, and that he had played an important role in the city's educational system.

He talked about the changes that had taken place in the city's educational system during his tenure, and he praised the work of the teachers and administrators who had helped to make those changes possible.

He also discussed the challenges that the city faced in providing quality education for all of its citizens, and he emphasized the importance of ensuring that every child had access to a good education.

The interview lasted for several hours, and I learned a great deal about the history of the city's educational system and the role that Judge Gary had played in it. His insights and experiences were invaluable, and I am grateful to him for sharing them with me.

After the interview, Judge Gary walked me to the door and thanked me for coming. As I left, I couldn't help but feel grateful for the opportunity to have met such an important figure in the city's history.
A Daily Socialist Paper in Milwaukee is a Good Business Proposition

Paying these heads to establish a daily Socialist paper in Milwaukee is a good and wise investment. The Socialist movement is rising to a new point of view, leaving all petty schemes, and it is higher in the minds of these workers, who are taking one or two more steps in the art of production. This is why we are here, because we see the necessity of a daily paper at this point, and the Socialist movement is rising to a new point of view. The investment is steady and increasing. Over $300.00 of the $500.00 needed for equipment and advertising is already subscribed and party paid.

From the Foundation Up

Everything that the Milwaukee Socialist Democratic people have ever undertaken has been substantially established from the foundation up. The paper is not published on the internet or any other obligations, all the intellectual and financial obligations have been prospectively reaped upon the capital stock or guarantee fund of the holder. A Good Investment for Any Amount

In giving these bonds you place your papers in a sound investment that will pay you a handsome interest, and in which you are sure of a steady increase in your paper. You will make$where you are best in it. The money will be put to work in a very satisfactory manner, and the profit will be distributed among the stockholders in proportion to the number of shares they hold.

In the Milwaukee Socialist Democratic Publishing Company, you are assured of a steady, increasing benefit, and a sound investment. You will be assured of a regular income, and a steady increase in the value of your shares. The company is well managed, and the paper is well printed and distributed. You are invited to invest $100 or $200 or $500, and you will be assured of a steady, increasing benefit. The company is well established, and the paper is well printed and distributed. You are invited to invest $100 or $200 or $500, and you will be assured of a steady, increasing benefit.
What Union Labor Is Getting

Which is the one and only newspaper in Milwaukee that everybody wants to read? Which is the one and only newspaper in Milwaukee that everyone wants to get? It is, of course, the Milwaukee Sentinel. Which is the one and only newspaper in Milwaukee that all the power brokers want to advertise in? Well, that would be The Milwaukee Journal, of course! For in the eyes of the self-appointed "middle class," The Milwaukee Journal is the "affluent" newspaper; the one to advertise in if you want to appeal to the people with the big money from your products. The Milwaukee Journal's"sympathy for labor," the Milwaukee Journal is the "one that labor hates."

Friends of Yours?

Some people like the labor union. We don't, and we can't. They are not our friends, and we don't want them to be. They are not our friends, and we don't want them to be.

What About It?

Hard Fights Coming

In Milwaukee, there are more hard-fighting men than in most other cities. Milwaukee is a hard-fighting city. The men in Milwaukee are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting.

In Milwaukee, there is a lot of spite at work. The men in Milwaukee are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting. They are not afraid of hard fighting.

Judges Struck at Labor

Union man named for jury commissioner gets knockout. Game worked all for the best.

Now comes the startling information that one of the leading attorneys in the county has been named for a jury commissioner. The union worker who knows him well says that his name was signaled only last week, and that he has been working hard to get a position as a jury commissioner.

The man who was named is a man of high standing in his profession. He is a lawyer with a large practice, and has been active in union affairs for many years.

Despite the fact that he is not a member of the union, the workers have campaigned strongly for his appointment. They feel that he is the right man for the job, and that he will be fair to everyone involved.

The union has been organizing in the county for some time, and is rapidly gaining strength. The workers are determined to have a fair environment in which to work, and they will not be satisfied until they have a man they can trust to represent them.

Have the Hee-Haw on the Detectives

By Howard B. Brode

The police have announced that the two men suspected of being involved in the recent deaths of several members of the detective force have been arrested. The men were caught in the act of burglarizing a home in the city, and were shot by the homeowners when they were discovered.

The investigation of the case has been going on for some time, and the police have been working tirelessly to find the suspects. The discovery of the two men has brought a great deal of relief to the community, and the police are now looking forward to bringing them to justice.

News of Organized Labor

Conducted by Walter S. Fisher

Address of Communication: 1414 Sixth Street, Milwaukee.

The news of organized labor has been circulating throughout the country, with many workers organizing into unions to demand better working conditions and higher wages.

The news has been met with mixed reactions, with some workers welcoming the opportunity to join a union, while others are resistant to the idea.

B. Lukas, owner of the Lukas-Koercher Shoe Company, is a union leader and is speaking out in favor of unions. He says that workers should have the right to organize and bargain for better working conditions.

An old broken window in the building has been boarded up, and the police have been called to the scene.

It Must Have Jarred the Judges

We understood that the judges in the largest city in the country being visited last week by the Democratic party had arranged to meet in a session of the convention on the July 4th holiday. They were expected to reach their decision on the selection of the party's candidate for the presidency. But the judges, who are known for their loyalty to the Democratic party, decided that the convention should be held on the Fourth of July.

Maurer Praises Milwaukee

James Fl. Maurer, the first Socialist state senator from Milwaukee, praised Milwaukee recently for its initiative, civic-minded work and being the most antagonistic center of republicanism in the state. "Milwaukee's activities and those of its people, in spite of its small size, have been in the forefront of the struggle to maintain the state's sovereignty in the disposal of the state's affairs," Mr. Maurer said.

The Old Party Failed
"The historic party," said Mr. Maurer, "has been the old party of the state. It has been the party of the past, of the old order, of the old régime. It has been the party of the old men, of the old ideas, of the old prejudices. It has been the party of the old ways, of the old methods, of the old institutions."

The administration, Mr. Maurer said, "stood upon the shoulders of the old régime" and "had been carried over" from the old party.

He said the new party that had come to the fore in the state was "the party of the future, of the new order, of the new régime. It has been the party of the young men, of the young ideas, of the young prejudices. It has been the party of the new ways, of the new methods, of the new institutions."

Mr. Maurer said the new party had been organized in the state and was "the party of the people, of the people's will, of the people's voice." He said Milwaukee had "played a part in the formation" of the new party and "had been a part of the movement." He said Milwaukee had been a "leader in the movement" and "had been a part of the movement."
