Uncle Sam Does Work Direct

By John M. Work

A typical illustration of what Uncle Sam's contractors' hands do. By doing his own work, Uncle Sam saves on his contractors' hands would have been more than 20% on the total work of each contract. This cost is a saving to the taxpayer, who pays Uncle Sam's bills.

The Waterfall in the Flood

By John M. Work

A water wheel in operation during the flood of 1913. Uncle Sam's contractors, who work in the government, are responsible for the safety of the public during natural disasters.

Attack by Special Interests

Masked taxpayers' league

Beginning of campaign by special interests.

The political garbage that accumulated in the last eight months of the current Municipal campaign has been defused by the city's special interests. This is the result of an effort to collect enough signatures to prevent the referendum on the tax bill.

The garbage was collected in the last eight months of the campaign. When the city's special interests attempted to collect the necessary signatures, they were met with strong opposition from the city's population.

On Tuesday, the city's special interests submitted a petition with the signatures of at least 10,000 citizens to the City Clerk. The petition requested a referendum on the tax bill, which was recently passed by the city council.

The petition was immediately met with opposition from the city's population. The opposition was so strong that the city's special interests were forced to withdraw the petition.

Wisconsin State Organization

The Wisconsin State Organization has announced that they will be holding a meeting in Milwaukee next week to discuss the state of the organization.

The meeting will be discussing the state of the organization and the upcoming election.
A McNama Interview

Los Angeles—In an interview given to Press Secretary John McNamee here yesterday, the Governor-elect said:

"I have decided the better part of valor is to act. The time for the execution of the condition of the State as a whole is now. The time to act is now. I will act now. I will make all plans to act and all plans are being made to act. I will not allow discussion to stop the process of progress. I will not allow discussion to stop the reform process. I will not allow discussion to stop the progress of the State. I will not allow discussion to stop the progress of the city. I will not allow discussion to stop the progress of the country."

Mr. McNamee said that he was delighted with the results of the election. He said that the vote was a clear mandate for progress and reform. He added that he was looking forward to working with the new Legislature and the new administration to bring about the changes that were necessary for the betterment of the State.

GIMBEL BROTHERS

Purchasers of Printing look not only to prices when buying printing, they also look to every other factor. We combine these two factors in one way when we do your printing. We do not claim to do printing as cheaply as some printing house, but we are positive that our prices are not excessive. On the other hand, the quality of our printing is the best for the prices. If you desire to know more about our business, we will be glad to investigate the next time you order your printing. We will see you elsewhere. Our motto:

“Service Through Satisfaction” is well merited.
