Are You Prejudiced?

By Ellis B. Harris

So to prejudge, or to expect anything in advance, is to make a mistake. It is to go astray; it is to go wrong.

In the beginning of the world, men were all one. In the beginning of the world, men were all brothers.

But then, as the years went by, there came a time when men began to differ in their opinions and in their beliefs.

Now we know that there are more than a thousand nations and languages in the world. And each nation and each language has its own way of looking at the world.

But we also know that there are many things that we all have in common. We all want peace and happiness. We all want to be treated fairly.

And we all want to get along with each other.

So why should we prejudge each other? Why should we make assumptions about other people before we even know them?

Because the Workingmen Have Worked Too Much

By James J. Hill

"The life of a workingman is hard. It is hard to make a living, hard to find work, hard to make ends meet. It is hard to see your family happy, hard to see your children educated, hard to see your home safe."

It is hard to work hard all day and come home at night to find your family hungry and cold. It is hard to work hard all day and come home at night to find your children without a place to play. It is hard to work hard all day and come home at night to find your home without a roof over it.

And yet, despite all these hardships, the workingman has not given up. He has continued to work hard, to try to make a better life for himself and his family.

And he has done this despite the fact that he has not been treated fairly. He has done this despite the fact that he has been taken advantage of by the rich men who control the world.

But the workingman has not given up. He has continued to work hard, to try to make a better life for himself and his family.

And he has done this despite the fact that he has not been treated fairly. He has done this despite the fact that he has been taken advantage of by the rich men who control the world.
The Boy Scouts --- "The Other Side"

By William H. Watts

NOWhere in the world has a group of boys been more engaged in a good cause than the Boy Scouts. The Scout movement is a world-wide organization with its headquarters in England. The Scout movement in America is under the leadership of President Roosevelt.

The Boy Scouts of America are a group of boys who have made a pledge to do their best to be good citizens. They are not only interested in their own country, but in the world as a whole. They have made a pledge to do their best to help others and to make the world a better place for all.

The Scout movement is not only a physical exercise, but it is also a mental and spiritual exercise. The boys are taught to think for themselves and to work together for the good of the community. They learn to be responsible and to be accountable for their actions.

The Scout movement is a great organization, and it is one that we should all support. It is a great opportunity for boys to learn the values of patriotism, honesty, and hard work. It is a great opportunity for boys to learn how to be good citizens and to make the world a better place for everyone.

John Raffel, business agent, and union business manager, with 9 branch locals in the state, reported to the federation on Wednesday that the workers had reached a satisfactory agreement with their employers. The agreement provides for an increase in wages of 25 cents per week, with a reduction in hours from 70 to 68 per week. The agreement also includes a provision for an increase in hours of 20 per cent. Making the City Efficient

This article describing some of the features of the Milwaukee bureau of economy and efficiency appeared in LaFollette's Weekly, Sept. 30, 1910. "For a long time," the weekly said, "the Mayor's council was not considered a body that was made up of the best men. It was a body of men who were all known to be inefficient. But the Mayor's council is now different. A well-balanced council with a strong mayor in the lead." The mayor was also said to be a "man of business" who knew how to get results. Journal Caught Red-Handed at Vote Buying

Here is the Proof, Black on White - The Sorry Downfall of Nonpartisan Schemers - Only Dirty Politics After All!

Beginning the latter part of last week, the investigation now has included numerous complaints from local political leaders and citizens. These complaints have been the subject of a series of meetings and discussions among the various parties involved. It has been alleged that several political machines have been using vote buying to influence the outcome of elections.

READ EVERY WORD OF THIS LETTER TO THE NEWSPAPER.

Today you are being accused of printing with circuses and blank envelopes to be used in influencing votes. These circuses and blank envelopes are to be delivered by the circuses and blank envelopes to the voters in the district. On Saturday night at each station, and in the absence of a bellman, you will receive for each envelope that you turn in to the station.

Be sure that you do not accept more than one envelope from any one person.

Be sure to turn each envelope over on Saturday for his voting envelope.
