A HAPPY NEW YEAR, FOR STILL MORE VICTORIES!

WILL THEY SEE IT?
BY VICTOR L. BERGER

In view of the fact that Sam Gompers and his pals are trying to divert attention from themselves by attacking the Socialists, we should not forget to mention that the McNemarke belonged to the ultra-conservative wing of the trade-union movement. We defended them because we believed them to be in the right; now we explain their delay by explaining the syndicalist form of the class struggle.

However, the McNemarke were devout followers of Sam Gompers. Whether the McNemarke and Gomp McMillon also belonged to "Peas" Union "Aristocrats of the Home" was not the purpose of examining the question. The McNemarke movement under the influence of the IBEW does not know. However, we are told that it was the case.

The truth is that the pure and simple trade-union leader is always on the safe side. The Socialists and the IBEW are not always so much more useful than a strike that was badly wounded.

Moreover, the modern labor movement is not a conspiracy. It is a democratic movement. It is not a mass movement. It should be possible to have several leaders. And if they are both against Bakunin and his followers who were the father of the anarchist and great friend of the people who launched that which is now a good word for anarchy.

It can be said, perhaps, that socialists cannot, under the great conditions of war, hold to Marxist Socialism. In the East and West countries the anarcho-syndicalists were fought by the Bolsheviks to be the leaders of the working men's movement.

The Diaz Despotism and the American System

By Maximilian W. Mueller

Diaz is dead—mentally dead. His policies are his dead policies, his actions are his dead actions. He is no longer a factor in world politics. His influence is at an end. His works are forgotten. His memory is fading. His name is obliterated from the pages of history. He is no more. His death marks the end of an era. His legacy will be remembered for generations to come. His influence will be felt for years to come. His memory will be honored and respected. He has left his mark on the world. His legacy will be studied and analyzed for years to come. His influence will be felt for generations to come. His memory will be honored and respected. He has left his mark on the world. His legacy will be studied and analyzed for years to come.
