AN APPEAL TO THE MEMBERS AT LARGE!

The following matter of great importance is called to your attention in order that you may be fully informed and understand the situation and therefore recognize that it is a Socialistic duty. You can well imagine that the Milwaukee Socialists have been working very hard for the last few years to produce a Socialist newspaper and to help the Socialistic movement.

They are doing a great deal. But most of their energy just now is needed to get the Socialistic League, the new daily paper, up to the 10,000 mark, both for the sake of the incoming campaign and for the advantage of the paper's future as a paying advertising medium. It must be realized that we must jump in and help the Socialistic movement.

Some Socialists write that their week's sale of blocks shows that the Milwaukee Conservators took a third of the total sold. One third went to Wisconsin and the other two thirds to Illinois. It is said that the works of the Socialists should be closed to the public and the Socialists should be compelled by the Socialists themselves to stop publishing the paper.

The Socialists are making a real effort to get the Socialistic movement started. They are trying to increase the circulation of their paper and to help other Socialists in the country. They are doing a great deal. But the most of their energy just now is needed to get the Socialistic League, the new daily paper, up to the 10,000 mark, both for the sake of the incoming campaign and for the advantage of the paper's future as a paying advertising medium. It must be realized that we must jump in and help the Socialistic movement.

Socialism As an Evolutionary Process—By Victor L. Berger

In the first discourse on the subject of socialism, more and more by scientists that our civilization is in a constant flow like a river, the current of which is eternally flowing. Yet one of the greatest of the obstacles which Socialists have to contend with is the idea of the stability of nature. Because the wage system has prevailed so far back as history, it is considered a necessity for civilized society. Socialism says this is a mistake.

The present state of things grew out of selfishness and selfishness, which is the root of all human nature. In the ancient states there was no wage system, there was slavery. The masters were the free men and the workers were the slaves. But this was not the case. The masters were the free men and the workers were the slaves. This state of things did not last long, because the workers revolted.

The purpose of the working-class is to secure its own liberation. But the progress of mankind demanded another step, and that was the abolition of the state. This was the moment when the Socialists decided to demand another step, and that was the abolition of the state. But the progress of mankind demanded another step, and that was the abolition of the state.

Thus, it is now proposed, even by very conservative people, to introduce the telegraph system and the railroad into the new country under government control and own them like our railroad companies. Suppose this measure is realized, it is sure to be in the interest of the Socialists.

We may do likewise with our express business, our steamboat business, and our other industries. Then we may absorb the Standard Oil company, the steel trust and other trust, and one great enterprise after another as quickly as possible.

And so from the other side. Why could our country not begin by taking under our control and operating our gas works and electric plants and railroads and not operate that way? Why could not the Socialists undertake the control of the gas works and electric plants and railroads and operate them for the benefit of the people?

I do not say, nor even think, that the social question will be solved in this manner. Our people are not only too peaceable enough to do it, but it seems to me this would be the most practical way to solve the social question for a practical people.
