If There Were a Social-Democratic Government, How Should It Begin?

An Answer by Dr. Alfred Russell Wallace, of England, The World's Greatest Living Scientist

By Victor L. Berger

The big capitolists do not want the people armed. Why? The British would not want them armed. Nor can the case of Russia afford to arm the great masses of her subject. And our plotters can least afford the arming of the people. The capitalists are afraid of us and the people mostly want to see them over-thrown. And they do not want to do that.

On the other hand, only an armed nation is a free nation. Ever since the times of the Romans and the Chinese dynasty they have been afraid of the citizens becoming a jingoistic power.

The American colonists of 1776 were probably the best armed people of the age, in terms of numbers. They were always ready, and knew how to use their guns, because of danger at all times in Indian attacks. A well armed people is a free people.

In Switzerland there was also a very big railroad strike last winter. The railroad workers were fed up. Did the government use the militia and the regular troops as they did in this country?

In Switzerland every citizen is a soldier from his sixteenth year. If he gets to be forty-five years of age, and he holds his government rifle at home. This makes it impossible for the employer class to use armies against the workers. But there is an overwhelming sentiment among the other countries in favor of a law against this.

The militia of Switzerland is really the Swiss people as a whole. And every other country in the world, every other city and every other city, the Swiss people are the ones who have the public opinion in favor of it. But when the railroad strike of 1875 in Switzerland. The Swiss militia did not like to be the Shot-strike was to buy the railroads and operate them. And the workers did not like it either. In connection with the arming of the people, it is also important to consider the fact that there are more murder committed in Chicago or New York by a week than the Swiss militia can kill. But in India, in the Sudan, the Swiss are the best armed people in the world because they have the Chinese and the Russians excepting.

A People's City—Frankfort

A city which owns and operates all its public utilities was a dream two decades ago. A dream that has become a fact. The city of Frankfort, Kentucky, is an example of what can be accomplished when a community is determined to take control of its own destiny.

The city, which has a population of approximately 18,000, owns and operates water, gas, electric, and sanitation services. The city also owns and operates the airport, the docks, and the city hospital.

The city's electric utility, for example, was established in 1940. The city now owns and operates a 150,000-kilowatt power plant, which supplies electricity to more than 12,000 homes and businesses.

The city's water utility was established in 1945. The city now supplies water to more than 10,000 homes and businesses.

The city's gas utility was established in 1950. The city now supplies gas to more than 5,000 homes and businesses.

The city's sanitation utility was established in 1955. The city now supplies sanitation services to more than 10,000 homes and businesses.

The city's airport was established in 1960. The city now has a 10,000-foot runway, which is used by commercial airlines.

The city's docks were established in 1965. The city now has a 500-foot dock, which is used by cargo ships.

The city's hospital was established in 1970. The city now has a 200-bed hospital, which is used by the city's residents.

The city's airport, docks, and hospital are all owned and operated by the city. The city's electric, water, gas, and sanitation utilities are also owned and operated by the city.

The city's electric, water, gas, and sanitation utilities are all operated by the city's electric, water, gas, and sanitation departments. The departments are headed by the city's electric, water, gas, and sanitation directors.

The city's electric, water, gas, and sanitation directors are elected by the city's residents. The directors are responsible for the operation of the city's electric, water, gas, and sanitation utilities.

Shall Socialist Church Be Established?
By R. A. Dugan, Author of "Hearty Ashton", etc., etc.

There has been a great deal of labor agitation and activity in America, and this has been accompanied by a great deal of newspaper comment. One of the most interesting of these commentaries is that of the Socialist Church. The Church is an organization of Jewish intellectuals who are opposed to the capitalist system. It is a movement for social change, and its members believe that the only way to achieve this change is through the overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a socialist society. The Church is supported by a small group of wealthy Jews, and it is backed by a financial organization called the International Socialist Unity. The Church has been growing in strength, and it is now one of the most important in the country. It is estimated that there are about 10,000 members of the Church, and it is believed that this number will increase in the future.
