MAY DAY - ITS SIGNIFICANCE

World Workers, whatever may bend ye,
This day must every work be done,
Cast off the chains of winter that bind ye,
And come forth and be glad in the Sun.

New again while the green earth rejoice,
In the bud and the blossom of May,
Lift your hearts up again, and your voices,
And keep merry the World's Labor Day.

Let the winds lift your banners from far lands,
With a message of peace and of hope,
Raise the Maypole aloft with its garlands,
That gather your causes in the same.

It is written on each ribbon that flies
That breathes from fair Freedom's heart:
'If you have been the brave and the true,
In the winning may each take a part.'

Your cause is the hope of the world,
In your smiles is the life of the age,
For the earth and its fullness there is yours,
When the World's Workers, sisters and brothers,
Shall build, in the new coming years,
A fair house of life - not for others,
For the earth and its fullness in theirs.
May Day; Its Past and Present Significance

By C. B. B.

In the history of the growth of May Day as a legal and living festival, there are a number of dates which are significant. The earliest record of a celebration in honor of May is found in the Roman festival of Flora, held on May 13th. This festival was a time of rejoicing and feasting, with the goddess Flora as the chief deity. It was a time of thanksgiving for the abundance of the earth and the fertility of the soil.

In the Middle Ages, May Day became a time of revelry and dancing, with the May Queen and the May King as the chief symbols of the festival. The May Queen was usually a young girl, chosen because she was considered the most beautiful and most virtuous of the young women. The May King was the most handsome and charming of the young men.

In the 19th century, May Day became a time of political protest and the celebration of workers' rights. It was a time when laborers would gather in large numbers to demand better working conditions, higher wages, and the right to organize and bargain collectively.

Today, May Day is celebrated in many different ways around the world. In some countries, it is a time of rejoicing and the celebration of nature's bounty. In others, it is a time of political protest and the demand for social justice.

For Sale

Comrade has $2,000 stock in the People's Realty Co. which he wants to sell because money is required to develop business. See Mr. H. W. Bistorus, Brisbane Hall.

READ THIS LIST
The Road to Power, J. B. Priestley
Farmer's Son, S. P. Combs
The Best of the People, D. W. Swanson
The Great Divide, H. L. Mencken
The Firebrand, W. H. Auden
The Populist, C. L. R. James
The New Negro, A. Philip Randolph
The Soul of a Nation, W. E. B. Du Bois
The Abolitionists, E. P. Sabin
The Story of the People, J. B. Priestley

Another New Printing Machine for Brisbane Hall!

Milwaukee Socialism Keeps Growing. The Big Four Deck Press Bought Last Year Has Not Been Able to Keep Up With the Demands of Our Three Weeklies and the Daily Herald.

This is the new press which The Leader's remarkable circulation, growth from 30,000 papers in January to 50,000 in June, has made possible. It is a 'Quadra-Graph' Speedprint with 250-point type, and 14 by 20-inch pages. The capacity of the press is 32,000 papers per hour, and it is capable of printing 300,000 papers per day. The press is now in operation, and we are able to keep up with the demands of our readers.

The Leader will be in a position to take care of all our circulation, then we will be in a position to keep up with the demands for a German daily.

ACROSS THE POND

DENMARK—At the municipal election last week, votes were cast for the Social Democratic party, headed by the Social Democratic candidate, who received a majority of 1,000 votes over the Liberal candidate. The Social Democrats won a majority of 10,000 votes over the Conservative candidates.

FRANCE—In the French parliament last week, a resolution was passed condemning the government's policies. The resolution was passed by a majority of 100 votes, with only two votes cast against it.

SOUTH AFRICA—In South Africa, the government has given a vote of confidence to the Minister of Education, who has been criticized for his policies.

Everybody Makes Big Money

Immortality Certain

That Staggering 30,000!

The report of the death of the human population is not only a matter of interest to those who have been following the progress of the great war, but also to those who have been studying the history of the world. It is a fact that the human population has been steadily increasing, and that the rate of increase has been accelerating in recent years.

The population of the Earth is now estimated at 3,000,000,000. This is a staggering figure, and it is one that should be taken into consideration when we are thinking about the future of the world.

The population of the Earth has been increasing at a rate of about 0.5% per year, which is a rate that is likely to continue for many years to come. This is a rate that is likely to continue for many years to come, and it is one that should be taken into consideration when we are thinking about the future of the world.

It is estimated that the population of the Earth will reach 6,000,000,000 by the year 2050, and 9,000,000,000 by the year 2100. This is a rate that is likely to continue for many years to come, and it is one that should be taken into consideration when we are thinking about the future of the world.
The Democracy of Socialism not the Democracy of Jeffersonian Individualists

LEO MORRISON LEWIS

Capitalist and monopolistic competition are the proper course of the human race, and are indispensable to the advancement of mankind. The personal relations of economic life are best served by a free and competitive system. The individual is the proper subject of legislation, and the right of the government is limited to the realms of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The purpose of this article is to carry out the principles of the Jeffersonian philosophy in its more modern interpretation, and to show that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.

The Jeffersonian philosophy is based on the idea that the individual is the proper subject of legislation, and that the right of the government is limited to the protection of social and political liberty. The essence of the individual is in his freedom, and the right of the government is in the protection of social and political liberty.