Seidel Tells Them to Get Back to Christ

Chicago, Ill.-Seidel tells the German immigrant through Chicago's German Ward that the Catholic Church is ready to accept and help any immigrant who is willing to return to the path of Christ and hold to the principles of the Church. The move is aimed at bringing the immigrant back to the Church.

Minister Sells the Bible

A minister was selling Bibles in the street of a city. He was carrying a Bible and asking people to buy it. When a man came up to him and asked what the Bible contained, the minister replied, "It contains the words of God that will lead you to salvation." The man bought the Bible and was grateful. The minister continued to sell Bibles to other people, spreading the message of salvation.

The Socialists in Battle Array--Great Fight Begins

Chicago, Ill.--(Special)--By 10 o'clock this morning the Socialist candidates for the various offices in the city were on hand. At the corner of Michigan Avenue and State Street, the Socialist candidates were seen canvassing for votes. The Socialist party is determined to fight hard and win the election.

In order to campaign, the Socialist candidates were handing out pamphlets and speaking to people. They were trying to convince people to vote for them. The Socialist candidates were confident in their chances of winning the election.

Socialism—Plus Democracy

It has been justly said that socialism without democracy is a barren, sterile, aimless dream. Without freedom of thought, with socialism is no progress; but with democracy socialism is progressive and victorious. There is no essential difference between socialism and democracy. Socialism is democracy with the one added feature: the ownership of the means of production is in the hands of the working class, with socialism the political power is in the hands of the working class, and with political power the means of production.

Socialism in Battle Array—Great Fight Begins

The coming of the socialist candidate for President, Eugene V. Debs, is the signal for the fight of all the workingmen of the world. Not only in the United States, but throughout the world, the fight is on to win the franchise for the working class. The socialist movement is the movement of the working class. The socialist movement is the movement of the inarticulate and the discontented. The socialist movement is the movement of the masses. The socialist movement is the movement of the future.

Direct Action Asinity

In the socialist movement, direct action is a means of reaching the goal. The socialist movement is the movement of the masses. The socialist movement is the movement of the working class. The socialist movement is the movement of the future.

Mammon Has Us by the Throat!

Never before in the history of the world has there been a greater need for the awakening of the masses. The struggle is for the salvation of humanity. The struggle is for the salvation of humanity. The struggle is for the salvation of humanity.
The State Railways in Belgium

By Mary Hughes Vandenbout

The State Railways in Belgium are operated by a government-owned company, the Nationale Treinen en Spoorwegen. They have a total length of 11,500 miles of track and serve all parts of the country. The state-owned nature of the railroads allows for efficient and affordable transportation across Belgium.

IT HAPPENED IN MILWAUKEE

Thomas J. Neary is convicting the taxpayers of Milwaukee $2,250 a month. This is a recurring dispute. He may be costing them a great deal more than that, as he was one of the principal bankers of the Taxpayers' League (the league itself). The bone of contention is a $10,000,000 bond issue securing bonds for the city's street railway system.

The street railway company, curiously enough, is the beneficiary of Mr. Neary's investigations. To present the city with the largest possible surplus for the paying of the dividend was his main purpose.

Milwaukee's Worst Enemy

F. J. Neary has put his "non-partisan" followers in the city hall in a majority. It is too late to obtain a modification of the injunction obtained by the police and other non-partisan enforcement officers. It is too late to deprive the city of the fruits of the past election. It is too late to change the majority in the council. That is the majority which has led the city into its present position. It is too late to restore the city to its former condition.

The situation must stand as it is.

Hans, the Story of a German Boy

By Martin Gale

Chapter XXI

Hans was a little lad who lived in a tiny cottage surrounded by a half-mile of forest. His parents were very poor, but they loved him dearly. His father was a woodcutter and his mother was a cook at the local inn. Hans was eager to learn everything he could about the world around him.

Chapter XXII

Hans went on a long journey to see the world. He met many new people and learned many new things. He returned home with a new perspective on life and a greater appreciation for his roots.

Hans's Niner Escort

In addition to the story, there is a short piece on the Niner Escort, a group of young people who are dedicated to preserving and promoting the German culture.

To the Catholic Workingman
BY THOMAS CLAYTON.

Were we to attempt in a little space to speak of the family and developing the Catholic Church in the United States, we should be faced with the necessity of referring to a vast subject. The Catholic Church in the United States is not a mere patchwork of small communities; it is a vast, organized body, having deep roots and extending its influence over the whole country. The Catholic Church in the United States is not merely a body of Catholics; it is a body of all people, rich and poor, who believe in the Catholic faith.

In Father Vaughan's Absence!

The following is a letter from Father Vaughan, written shortly after his removal from the position of Vicar Apostolic of the Diocese of Cleveland, Ohio, to the Diocese of Philadelphia:

"It is with deep regret that I write to inform you of the passing of Father Vaughan. He was a man of great piety and devotion, and his influence on the diocese has been profound. He will be missed greatly."

State Help

In 1913, the State of Ohio enacted a law providing for the establishment of a State Board of Charities and Corrections. The law authorized the Board to make grants to charitable institutions and to regulate the care and treatment of prisoners. The Board was composed of five members, appointed by the Governor of the State, with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Our Young Folks

The following is a letter from a young man to his parents:

"Hello, Mom and Dad! How are you doing? I hope you are both well. I am doing well, as usual. I am working hard to save money for a new car. I am also saving for a trip to Europe."

The Builders' Column

THE TIME, THE PLACE AND THE CAUSE.

The Catholic Church in the United States is not merely a body of Catholics; it is a body of all people, rich and poor, who believe in the Catholic faith.

The political and social changes that have taken place in the United States have been brought about by the work of the Catholic Church. The Church has been a powerful force in the development of the country, and its influence is apparent in every aspect of life.

The rise of nationalism in the United States has been accompanied by a rise in the number of Catholics. The Church has been able to attract new members by offering them a strong sense of community and a sense of purpose. The Church has also been able to provide a source of stability in a society that is constantly changing.

The Catholic Church in the United States is not merely a body of Catholics; it is a body of all people, rich and poor, who believe in the Catholic faith.
