WHY AREN'T YOU A SOCIALIST, BROTHER?

We have not been able to understand brothers. In your case, the failure of the workers - the workers you represent - should have been able to understand. In the case of the workers you represent, you should have understood. You are not satisfied. We are not satisfied that you are not well pleased. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied that you have not understood.

You are as well satisfied as we are. You have as much right to be satisfied as we have. But you are not satisfied, and you have not understood. You are not satisfied, and you have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood.

The question you ask is: "Why are you against Socialism?" We are not satisfied that you are not well pleased. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood.

The question you ask is: "Why are you against Socialism?" We are not satisfied that you are not well pleased. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood.

The question you ask is: "Why are you against Socialism?" We are not satisfied that you are not well pleased. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied that you have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood. We are not satisfied, and we have not understood.
