Lily Truelove's Greetings

Clear and Refreshing Like the Waters of the Mountain Spring Appeared on the Social Democratic Party.

My Dear Friend Sinzere—You cannot build a solid house on quicksand. You cannot obtain for the man whom you love the assurance that the man's heart keeps good to its promise when the political organization of the working proletariat is at stake. I should like to see this mutual trust quite

HOW TO ORGANIZE.

It is hoped that comrades will not wait for an organizer to come along before active work is begun to reorganize old branches and start new ones. What is needed now is for every comrade to do his and her utmost in organizing branches. Don't delay it. If you can get together only five—organize; if you are fifty strong—organize; but don't wait for fifty, start with five and organize them.

Send names and addresses, with 25 cents, to Theodore Debs, 519 E. Sixty-sixth Street, Chicago, Ill., who will receipt for same. The 25 cents will pay admission fee; dues thereafter will be 25 cents per quarter, payable in January, April, July and October.

Having organized a branch, enlist all your members as workers for the HERALD. The subscription price is 50 cents a year. We want 3,000 paying subscribers by August 1.

With your help, comrades, we shall have them.

Pledged to Organized Labor.

The Attitude of the Social Democratic Party Toward the Trades Unionism.

The following resolutions, clearly defining the attitude of the Social Democratic Party toward the Trades Unionism, have been adopted without a dissenting vote. We hold the trade movement to be indispensable to the working people under the prevailing industrial conditions in their struggle for the improvement of their conditions and for the final abolition of labor. We therefore unreservedly endorse the urgent need of thorough organization and political action in order to win the reform of the labor condition.

At the convention of the members of the Social Democratic Party of America, held in New York City on December 31, 1899, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we commend the honest, unselfish efforts of the members of the Social Democratic Party of America, in opposing the laborers of the United States to labor unions, and to organize and fight for the labor unions of the future, and that we support the organization of labor in every way possible.

Resolved, That the labor movement, as the movement of the masses, is of the greatest importance in strengthening work, political action, and educational public opinion in the trade unions.

Resolved, That we commend the action of the Social Democratic Party of America in opposing the labor unions of the future, and that we support the organization of labor in every way possible.

Resolved, That the labor movement, as the movement of the masses, is of the greatest importance in strengthening work, political action, and educational public opinion in the trade unions.
socialism does not propose to take the wealth of the world, but to prevent one man taking wealth in the world, and turn the world's wealth into the hands of the nation.

Will our candidates of the Socialist party, therefore, stand by the noble platform of the Socialist party? Will they not vote for a law providing for popular initiative and referendum, a law to prevent any organization of corporations, a law to prevent newspapers from being owned by corporations? Will they not take up this cause of commerce, and hold to their principles of political economy? They say so, but they do not say how. The nation is in need of a change, and we who have a knowledge of the law and its nature, will tell the people what that change is, and why we want it.

Then the state of the country is not as bad as you say. The socialists are not ready to do anything. And when you ask for them, they ask for more time. But you have been in power for years, and the country is not as bad as you say. The socialists are not ready to do anything. And when you ask for them, they ask for more time.

And the state of the country is not as bad as you say. The socialists are not ready to do anything. And when you ask for them, they ask for more time.
Declaration of Principles.

Adopted by the Social Democratic Party of America, May 16, 1896.

The Social Democratic Party of America, desiring freedom, liberty and happiness for every man, woman and child, and the social and economic progress of the nation, hereby declares its principles, as follows:

A. Horvath, New York.
E. Adler, New York.
J. R. Brown, New York.
J. A. D. Steffee, New York.
J. A. H. Hensley, Boston.
J. N. G. Donnan, New York.
H. E. F. Draper, Chicago.
J. L. H. Black, Philadelphia.

American Socialism.

Of late we have been a good deal of "American Socialism." This term has been in use for some years, and it is used by Socialists in this country, and in other countries, to describe the movement which is taking place in this country. It has been used by Socialists in the United States, and in other countries, to describe the movement which is taking place in this country.

As we mentioned before, history repeats itself, and we have seen this in the case of "American Socialism." The same thing is true of "American Socialism." It is a movement which has been going on for some time, and it has been growing in strength. It is a movement which is taking place in this country, and it is a movement which is taking place in other countries.

IS DEBS WITH US?

"At the time the outcome of the Chicago the more I am convinced that the wisest counsel prevailed. I am going to try and get in shape for the greater work ahead, the very thought of which arouses all my energy and ambition. I am full of faith in the future. The new party will blaze the way to victory. The noble people we met at Chicago linger with me still."—Comrade Eugene V. Debs in a letter to Comrade Hoehn.
