ROSA PROLETAIRE'S CAMPAIGN

LETTERS TO BROTHER JOHN

No. 1 of a Series of Letters Suggested to the Times

Dear Brother John: Well, I see the Social Democratic Party is doing its best to win the ballot. It is a fair fight, but it will be a close one. The Socialists for the next few weeks will do their best to get the franchise to 100. If you don't vote for the Socialists, you will be backing the old-fashioned politicians and their friends.

The political conditions in the country are such that the only way for the working class to get what it wants is to vote for the Social Democratic Party. The class struggle is going on everywhere, and the Socialists are the only party that has a program to meet the needs of the working class.

Yours truly,

Rosa Proletaire

The Politics, Economics and Ethics of Social Democracy

Editorial Note and Comment

A people's government would enslave a people; instead of that, injustice and wrong-doing and servility.

In the work, the slave, the slave to the work, and that would greatly distress the feeling of the people.

The capitalistic ideal is the demoralization of the individual. The Socialist ideal is that the government must be so designed that all its dealings with people shall be done in the best interest of the people.

Abraham thinks the Philippine is a failure, and we have learned something about the Philippines. We have learned that the government of the Philippines is more or less in the hands of Socialists.

The Anarchist movement has subsided. The controlling interest was lost to capital, and the movement began to die out. The Anarchist movement is not a failure, but it is a failure.

For reporting about the "triumphant" revolution in Russia, we have been accused of being too severe. We have been accused of being too severe in our criticism of the government.

The Anarchist movement is not a failure, but it is a failure. It has failed to do what it set out to do.

The failure of the communist revolution of 1917 in Russia is a failure. Russia is a failure. The Anarchist movement is a failure.

"Money, gold and silver" are said to be the great enemies of the working class. The Republicans and the Socialists are the enemies of the working class.

The people are not dead yet. The people are not dead yet.

The failure of the communist revolution of 1917 in Russia is a failure. Russia is a failure. The Anarchist movement is a failure.

The people are not dead yet. The people are not dead yet.

PROGRESS IN TRANSPORTATION.

A single engine of the great "Illinois Central" road, which is the largest in the world, recently hauled the largest freight train that ever passed over the line. The engine itself weighed 3,952 tons, and the freight train consisted of 1,700 cars and weighed 13,712 tons. The total weight was 17,652 tons. The engine had a tractive effort of 75 tons, and the freight train was running at 8 miles per hour, which is a remarkable speed for a locomotive of such size.

The advantage of powerful locomotive engines over smaller engines is evident in all cases. The larger engines can haul heavier loads, and the cost of transportation is lower. The cost of coal and water is also decreased, as the larger engines can burn less coal and consume less water per ton of freight transported.

The progress in transportation is evident in all countries. The railroad systems are expanding, and new lines are being constructed. The efficiency of the engines is increasing, and the cost of transportation is decreasing. The transportation system is becoming more efficient and economical, and the advantages of progress in transportation are being realized in all parts of the world.
