An Injury to Trades Unionism is an Injury to the Social Democratic Party.

COMRADES, THE CLOCK HAS STRUCK.

ARE YOU READY?

The Social Democratic Party of America, organized June 11, 1898, which just elected two of its members to the Massachusetts Legislature and captured the City government of Haverhill, Mass., sends fraternal greetings to the American Federation of Labor, and invites the attention of all progressive delegates in the convention of 1898 to the following extract from its platform and subjoined resolutions:

"The trades union movement and independent political action are the chief ameliorating factors of the working class, the one representing itself as a great political party, and the other its political wing, and both must co-operate to abolish the capitalist system of production and distribution."

RESOLUTIONS ON ORGANIZED LABOR.

WHEREAS, We hold the trade union movement to be the most able to the working people must be prevailing interests in their striving for the improve- ment of their conditions, as well as the final abolition of the wage system; we further recognize the urgency of organizing the laboring masses among the workers; therefore be it

Resolved, That we commend an honest cooperation to that end by the leaders of the Social Democratic Party of America, by becoming moral and material factors in their respective trades or callings, as a part of the great labor movement.

Resolved, That we advise, that if possible, the workers should effectively resist the encroachments upon labor we advised organized labor to combine into national and international unions, pledging ourselves to extend them to all possible resistance to the demands of labor, and to the demands of labor, yet differences of political views between members of the labor organizations should not be considered as a hindrance to the organization in the economic struggle, to which we are contributing;

Resolved, That we consider that the most necessary weapon to obtain the guarantees of organized labor for the working classes, and we further recognize in the union label an important factor in strengthening the power of organization, and in educating the capitalistic class, in a practical way its sympathy to the cause of labor. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we commend the attempt to disrupt the labor movement by organizing rival unions to the bona fide trades unions;

Resolved, That we encourage the movement of organized labor for the establishment of a legal holiday on the first of May and the Saturday following;

Resolved, That we condemn the spirit of the savage and slavering sweating system;

Adopted June 11, 1898.

CURRENT: The Social Democratic Party of America., edited by the Central Executive Committee. A Bi-weekly, published at Haverhill, Mass., for the discharge of the following objects: To promote the organization and development of a system of co-operative production as the natural result of the progress of society; to inform the people of the advantages of a system of co-operative production, and to work for the benefit of all the people.

Vote 8, Nov. 8, 1898...

Elected to Massachusetts Legislature:

JAMES F. GARBY,
LEWIS H. SCARLETS.
"ABOLITION OF WORK."

I have received an American paper, the Social Democratic News, in which there is a letter from a Mrs. Abbott, regarding the abolition of work. From this letter I gather that the author is a "reformer" who has repudiated my "Important Discovery," because her "view of the future" for the material existence of the human race is not the same as the Social Democratic view. She says that the abolition of work is a "miserable blunder" and that it is not the solution of the problem of society.

I would like to make a few points in response to her letter. First of all, I would like to say that I believe in the abolition of work. I have always been an advocate of this view, and I believe that it is the only solution to the problem of society. I do not believe in the view that work is necessary for the existence of the human race. I believe that the abolition of work would be a great benefit to society, and I believe that it would be a great step forward in the progress of humanity.

Secondly, I would like to say that I believe in the abolition of work because it is a necessary part of a just society. I believe that work is not a natural part of human existence, but that it is a necessary part of a just society. I believe that work is necessary for the existence of a just society, and I believe that it is necessary for the existence of a society that is just.

Finally, I would like to say that I believe in the abolition of work because it is a necessary part of the progress of humanity. I believe that work is not a natural part of human existence, but that it is a necessary part of the progress of humanity. I believe that work is necessary for the progress of humanity, and I believe that it is necessary for the progress of humanity.

CONSOLIDATION AGAIN.

Now that evolution is over and the big business trusts have been swept away in the old talk of consolidation of the two parties, the real work of consolidation and the extenuation with which it is put forward is signified by the fact that both parties communicate with each in a sort of mutual confidence, which goes on and on. The coming of a surety in the not too distant future is inevitable.

At the same time it is well for our leaders not to be too confident. We say this because of certain rumors that are afloat this week. These reports indicate that some of the leaders of the present Republican party are anxious to achieve a consolidation with the Democratic party and to have the leaders of the latter group make overtures to the Republican party, which would be followed by a consolidation of the two parties.

We do not say that such a consolidation might exist in the near future, but we do say that the efforts of such leaders to achieve a consolidation will be of no benefit to either party. The two parties are now in a state of consolidation, and it is for the leaders of both parties to consolidate them into one party.

Among the Branches

The other concern seems to have been to defend the office of head-office Social Democratic Party, which has been at work to work and nominated a number of one of our branches. On Saturday evening, it was reported that last year there was something under the sun—a party in Lynn that was fined or compouinsc. It was first mentioned from Comrade Timson, which read:

Editor of the News—Wish to correct an error that appeared in yesterday's issue in the report referring to the action of the Lynn branch. It is Mr. Ward on Monday evening.

The meeting was held and was mentioned as a candidate for the common council. But the boys turned every steams to advantage on May 10th by distributing handbills to hundreds of unemployested who got a day's work for the purpose of making a few credits in.

We are not primarily concerned about the republican parties. These parties have always and will always be the tool of the capitalists, and we cannot accept their nomination or an endorsement.

PRISON LABOR.

Resolutions Adopted by the Mil waukee Federated Trades Council.

Labor descends from slavery perpetually. As long as the times only the slaves and the crimes are involved. It was the work of the slave and the pyramids and temples of Egypt, and the wonderful public buildings of Athens, Rome, and Greece. Those times no days before made difference. There is now a Work has since then become more harshly controlled. The situation has been by degrees changed into wage slavery. But students of history knee in the nations, and only slowly extinguished from the disgrace of the system, as far
look at the prisons with different eyes.

For the capitalists the prison is a bureau of work in business, a tool of their well-being.
The workingman realizes that this is so, but he also realizes that ninety-five per cent of the so-called mass, are not wage-slaves but simply in conditions under the capitalist system, and then poor victims deserving pity rather than punishment and the best present society can do is to cure them of their moral and intellectual shortcoming. For we must remember that the mass
is responsible for the existence of conditions, but the capitalist is the one who is responsible for the tendency to crime is inherited.

But the present society by mass, is the one that produces crime and then punishes
that crime.
A more advanced age based upon justice and not upon the concept of no prisons. At the present time there is something like a class of persons in this country.
We have no idea of that in any other country.

But the question as it confronts us is, How can we intercept the criminals before they become the prisoners of society at the present stage, so that their work should not result in the production of wage-earners outside? This probelogy of the working class, ployment the prisoners must have, is not only the same as the work we deprive them of. But under the prison system, a person
stead of lightenning the burden of society by their labor, they deprive somebody else of the opportunity earning of a living.

But we are all well aware that the influence of the prieons, is very much larger than is very small, Wagel are regulated by statute. There are about 11,000,000 workers who care engaged in some work or the other on this continent. The number of mostly unskilled laborers is very much larger than this, but left great for more than one reason. In the first place, the number of people who make up the number of over a million that depress the labor market.

But we are well aware that the oppression of the prisoners is a part of the general system, and that the system comes from mercurary motives, and that the wage-earners who are people. The manufacturers of every country are simply afraid, that labor being roused to a sense of
rather than the other,
with their manufacturers' profits.

Under the present system all that wise legislation can do is to insure the safety of the state and prison and while prison labor is sometimes a method of promoting competition, it can be the state and slave, and slave necessary for the school-children, such products

social system, which is the most constitual at present, would be able to present itself. Upon the system under which one man can

Social Democratic Party Platform

Demands For Farmers. The Social Democratic Party of America does not hope for the betterment of farmers through the increase of misery, but rather through the determination, united action of the farmers of the nation and country to gain and use the right to the land that belongs to that end. In view of this we call for an organized platform for the purpose of fighting for and extending the union of those with those in the city.

The most important demand to be sold, but to be utilized by the Union of Credit, to help the farmers in small parcels of not over 100 acres. The union of farmers to gain their political regulations as to improvement and organization, and to get the land that belongs to them.

2. Construction of grain elevators and mill buildings by the nation, to be used by the farmers at cost.

3. Extension of telegraph, telephone, and telegraph services to be organized for and paid for by the government.

4. Uniform postal rate for the transportation of agricultural products.

5. Public credit to the nation. The Social Democratic Party of America is interested in the prevailing industrial system, and believes in the right of the nation to determine the direction of its own labor, and the right of the people to determine the conditions of their labor.

6. The Social Democratic Party of America, by inspiring the farmers to work together, to organize their respective trades or callings, or of the Federal Labor Unions, to strive to organize all such trades as have heretofore not been organized, and to organize labor in every way possible; to organize the labor movement, and effectively retrench the encroachments of the government.

As steps in this direction, we recommend:

1. Revision of our antiquated Federal Constitution, in order to secure complete control by the people.

2. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, telephone, and other means of transportation, communication, water works, electric utilities, public utilities, and all other necessary enterprises.

3. The Social Democratic Party of America, by organizing the labor movement, to make the political power of labor secure and extensive, and the demands of the laborers, yet differences of political views, and by members of the labor unions organization, that does not make concessions to such unions.
