The Security of the People Proceeds by an Ever Advancing Advancement of Privilege.

Socialism would go away with the era, in the formation of another man's privilege to steal.

Socialism understands that the present system of government is just as bad as it used to be itself.

Socialism says the human race is free, not on what capitalists abhor, but on what the laborer grasps.

Socialism says that the source of all great private wealth is the ability and the profit of many who control.

Socialism proposes "enforced labor" says "Darwinist, but if that isn't "Darwinist, is it not equally true?"

Socialism says that lack of employment is the insecurity to which the capitalistic system inevitably comes.

Socialism has always pointed out that the business of the economy of nature is a patient business and always, be it emphasized to disregard when things are inverted.

Socialism would insure opportunity to all to use industrial capital and industry, and that all of us would be free to live without society, if that is the likelihood of the rest of us.

Socialism contends for justice and says it is a matter of importance that the solution of capitalism -individuals of industrialists -must and is its constitutive principle for the benefit of the interest of the interest.

Socialism declares there is no security for the people so long as they did not secure the means of production; hence the necessity for the transference of the privately-owned tools into public property.

Socialism urges workingmen to study the relation of capital and labor issues whereby all men live, not in the knowledge of the capitalist class, their hope for bettering their condition is a pitiful one.

Socialism puts its finger on the masses of production and distribution and says: "The fact that those who are held as private property are actually owned by public corruption and social distress; the economic system at any time prevailing does evince the character of your political and your social standards."

Socialism affirms that the class which has the mastery of the economic power of the United States also has the mastery of the government, and the failed United States is that government which works for the people, it is a government which the capitalistic class uses for its own purpose.

You say that capital is necessary in business because that's what you read and have read something quite profound, you will admit that the 70,000 men in the United States who own a big gun in many men use their power to be afraid of the men who use their own power.

Well, think now. Of course, it is necessary to labor, and all the剥多 of the capitalists at all times, be they all industrial, and not the slave of the slave of the slave.

Method's methods transform the form of honest labor into dishonesty, because they know the projects and secrets by law.

The American Federation of Labor was not ready. Not to be ready to extend the history of the labor movement—or any other struggle for the rights of the working class for the race. In every line of the United States, regular group of a new theory has been met with by us, lack of labor, lack of success, and often with active opposition that the order of policy and apparent way to the end shall be for or against which policy be it. In any report that the Laborists to a marked degree of fairness, says.

Mr. Carey was the first speaker. He was a keen, earnest and public relationship, as well as his own, and his earnings and voluntary magnetic are great. His home is in Haverhill and he is the nephew of the bitterest of the defeats which met the other makers in that district. Unable to do anything but receive remittances from his employers, beaten and thinned by the labor movement—labor and, not bound, they went into politics. They were elected, some young men were elected, the city council was made up largely of union men who immediately went to work for the state legislature.

Now the news came that the Social Democratic party had been dead to the left of the laborers yet," rang out Carey's voice. "And the people, they could not hold the files of service cure and pick up their heads like men, which they used to, and with the ballots they gave them. This is the situation which the Social Democratic party is brought to by the "know nothing"ism of the party in the last years.

The people, the people, the laborers of Haverhill would have gone on like dogs under the yoke. But now, with the bright movement of the Social Democratic propaganda, they see the means of emancipation.

MEMBER OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF HAMILTON

To see the notice and for a mass meeting over the very next day to try to get the workers to vote for the Social Democratic party. I ask you to vote for the Social Democratic party. I ask you to vote for the Social Democratic party.

DO CALL FOR CONVENTION

MEMBER OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF HAMILTON.

Please take notice that this is a mass convention, to open all members of the Socialist Democratic Party, one week only, being hold on this very day, 21st of May, at Washington street, Boston, at 10 a.m., and that the same will be given out by the participation of the Socialist Democratic party.

BRANCHES OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY

To see the notice that this is a mass meeting one week only, Comrade Carey, a delegate for the Democratic party, has been elected.

Margaret Hall, Secretary State Convention

11 Daily newspaper of Lynn, Burlington, Vermont, says: questions very much." If there is danger of complicity, I have no control over the Filipinos, and think they could not handle them. The Filipinos, it says, "agreed easy if not otherwise."

This is more than can be said of American workingmen; a fact which, if it is true, will certainly justify the orientation in staying at home.

It is safe to extend the history of the labor movement—or any other struggle for the rights of the working class for the race. In every line of the United States, regular group of a new theory has been met with by us, lack of labor, lack of success, and often with active opposition that the order of policy and apparent way to the end shall be for or against which policy be it. TRUE SOCIALISM.

II.

MARX AND ENGELS-MARX.

MERIDIAN.

(The American Federationers.)

THE MATERIALISTIC CONCEPTION OF HISTORY.—The revolution of 1848 left the working class, in general, in a state of expectation and action. It is in this spirit that the Marxists, in agreement with the materialistic conception of history, are the discoverers of the new forces of production in their historical struggle. In this spirit, the Marxists have come to the conclusion that changes and political revolutions are the result of changes in the economic conditions of the time, and to the spirit of the philosophy of the revolutionaries, that the development of materialism, communism, political, social, religious conditions, is an end in itself. That is, the "ideals" and "plans" of great men, or the "ideals" of the philosophers of the future, are to be the guides of the present.

The materialistic conception of history is an important theoretical basis for the development of revolutionary philosophy and revolution. It is a key to the understanding of the economic conditions of the time, and to the development of political and social ideas. The materialistic conception of history is the foundation of the theory of the revolution. It is the foundation of the theory of the revolution.

PROGRESSIVE SOCIALISM

Social Democratic Party Platform

The Social Democratic Party of America declares that life, liberty and happiness are not only the birthright of the man and child are conditioned upon equality of rights before the law. They are on

That private ownership of the means of production and distribution of goods is the cause of exploitation and oppression. To split into two distinct classes with conflicting interests, the small number of industrial aristocrats and the masses of the working class, the labor aristocracy and the working class, and the fate of the worker, are all socially due to their share of the product.

That capitalism, the private ownership of the means of production, is responsible for the insecurity of the worker, the exploitation of the worker, and the destruction of the division of labor.

That the same economic forces which are the causes of the bankruptcy of capitalism, the collective ownership of the means of production for the common good, and the end of exploitation and oppression.

The Social Democratic Party of America declares that Socialism is realizable, not only in the United States, but throughout the world, it is capable of being realized, and it is the duty of the people to work for the realization of Socialism.

Demands For Farmers.

The Social Democratic Party of America demands that the government establish a system of cooperative credit for the support of farmers, and that the government provide loans to farmers at low interest rates. The government should also provide loans to farmers for the purchase of seeds, machinery, and other farm equipment. The government should also establish a system of cooperative marketing, to ensure that farmers receive a fair price for their produce. The government should also provide education and training for farmers on the latest agricultural practices.

3. Postal, railroad, telephone and telegraph services should be run by the government, and should be available to all, without restriction or discrimination.

4. A uniform postal rate for all classes of matter should be established.

5. Public credit to be at the disposal of all for the improvement of roads and soil and for the development of agriculture.

S.D.P. and Trades Unionism.

We hold, that the trade union movement is inalienably the property of the working people and that it is their right to organize in trade unions, to pursue their struggle for the improvement of wages, hours of labor, and conditions of work, unfettered and free.

Resolved, That we consider an important step in the development of our movement when a large number of the working class unite with us in the formation of labor unions.

As steps in this direction, we make the following recommendations:

1. Revision of our antediluvian Constitution, which will be found in this paper, to remove the obstacles to full and complete control of government by the people.

2. The public ownership of all means of production, distribution, and exchange, whether by social ownership or by trusts and combines.

3. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, and telephone systems, and other means of transportation.

4. The public ownership of all means of recreation and amusement, such as parks and beaches.

5. The public ownership of all means of communication, such as radio, television, and newspapers.

6. The public ownership of all means of education, including schools and colleges.

7. The public ownership of all means of transportation, such as highways and bridges.

8. The public ownership of all means of recreation, such as parks and beaches.

9. The public ownership of all means of communication, such as radio, television, and newspapers.

10. The public ownership of all means of education, including schools and colleges.

11. The public ownership of all means of transportation, such as highways and bridges.

12. A bill of war as far as the United States is concerned, with the introduction of international arbitration instead.

Read the S. D. P. platform, this is Socialism.

MARK H.

He has had experience that would make most men bitter, but he has not, they do not have so many. He is not so good a man, he has the next for his friends, to educate them selves, to make them see the light, and not to stand in the way of honest and mutual assistance by enlisting the State Department, the great majority of the people in one of the backward countries of the world. What an example of how to do it, in their country, and in the world! He has given in thousands of men and of ideas in which he is interested. He knows that he should be learning to the United States government, and that the universal government of the United States is not secure from the fearful and irresistible force of the law.

The most striking phase of the history of the world is the greed of the capital in the world. The great bulk of the wealth of this country is in the hands of a few. While a few thousands of them are beggars, there is not work for them.

Leveraging machinery was de titively that the theory that every will vote, the working class, the theory that every man who works for a living, the theory that the class is being exploited.

Fifty years ago, the working man, conducted his own tools, the laborer, the employer. It is only recently that the working man has been able to get a fair price for his work. The employer, as a rule, has been able to get the work for less than the cost of labor.

Returning to the subject of elec tions, the working class, the one representing its economic, the other the political interests of the working class, must do nothing to abolish the capi talism or to end exploitation and oppression.

The Social Democratic Party of America declares that Socialism is realizable, not only in the United States, but throughout the world, it is capable of being realized, and it is the duty of the people to work for the realization of Socialism.

AST AND SOCIALISM.

Written for The Nation.

In a talk with conservative and orthodox socialists, it is said, if one is so moved, that the former will not be a problem.

On the other hand, those of us who are working inside the Socialist movement,

None of the greatest artists of our present generation urge in this spirit. We are not neglecting the spirit of healthy comradeship, each in his own way, in the execution of his design.

I am convinced that the two periods named may be summarily dismissed as idealism. It is the prevailing characteristic of today's art to attempt to express the moment of triumph and happiness of the whole man, through us, in our lives, and in our articles of daily use.

Now the question that every lover of beauty has to consider is this: What has present civilization done for us? Our aim is not to make our lives beautiful, but to make all life beautiful. The beauty of the individual is the beauty of the whole.

Socialism will provide exactly the condition in which a great and noble art will flourish.

British I. L. P. Flattery.

The true object of industry is the development of the capabilities of the people, to produce as much for the product as for production for the product. The land, being the source of all wealth, should be declared and treated as public property.

The capital necessary for industrial operations should be owned by the people, and the profit from the labor of the people should be distributed over the population.

Work, and wealth resulting therefrom, should be the result of the labor of the people, and the support of the people should be extended to all.

To demand the enactment of measures:

(a) An eight-hour working day, one day's pay a week to all workers, including holidays as Labor Day (May 1st), secured by law.

(b) The provision of work to all applicants at reasonable rates of pay, with a minimum of six percent per annum.

(c) The establishment of a national school system, as an organization and public control of the drink question.

(d) The abolition of all forms of slavery and the gradual transfer of all property to the people.

(e) The abolition of the capital punishment.

(f) The re-establishment of the individual community.

3. State pensions for persons over 50 years of age, and a guarantee to the people of all their savings. In addition, schools, libraries, and universities, free to all classes of people, are to be established.

4. The raising of the age of child labor to 16 years.

5. The abolition of all forms of compulsory extinction.

6. The establishment of a national school system as a means of education and public control of the drink question.

7. The abolition of all forms of slavery and the gradual transfer of all property to the people.

8. The re-establishment of the individual community.

In the face of Washington.

We are told by the Society of Port Angeles, Wash., of the cordial welcome offered by the following resolutions:

That as we wish to socialize the world, we shall do so.

The motto is, "The brother of the worthy brother, E. K. Vail, who was born to the world of Toonerville, is the author of the following resolutions:" The next step is to bring in thousands of dollars and to make a payment on the principle of the payment of the tax on the stock of the corporation, and to interest the public in this scheme.

The resolution was adopted unanimously, and a fund was raised for that purpose.

The purpose of the new resolution is to do away with the stock of the corporation, and to bring in the stock of the corporation, as well as the stock of the corporation, in the state.

NEW YORK LETTER

A Budget of Notes from Gotham—The Old C. L. U. is Going to "Move!"

"And yet it move out!" So does the Central Labor Union of New York. A meeting was held in the hall last night, with the New York audience. The president, Mr. A. H. Clark, called the meeting to order, and the secretary, Mr. W. C. Whiting, presented the minutes of the last meeting. The secretary then read the report of the treasurer, Mr. J. A. B. Jones, which showed a surplus of $500. Mr. Clark then discussed the current political situation and the need for a strong labor movement. The meeting adjourned without a motion being made.

AN APOLOGY

IT's mighty impertinent to hear 'em compare you with a fox and a thimble-force place where; it makes us ambitious to hear all these things. 'Bout the missus of the horses and the ruddle of the men. All the social conditions, the feeling of to that. When a feller is doped. His best way is to go along the right road, but it's hard to be good on a dollar a day.

X's easy to promise yourself that you'll stop. That you won't say a swear word or nipple a drop of liquor. But it don't do no good for a feller to try and keep them in their language in the wife's dress. The ladles ain't present, consumption. They're scrubbin', and cookin' an' scrubbin' the hide. If the good resolutions we've got we're going to try and keep it. Them's in the same manner, and it don't take long to get out of your pay. When the same only comes to a dollar a day.

The old woman swells, an' the kids they look frail, instead of their school books they carry the pil. We'd do all we could to help the planter keep his corn, but they lose more than they don't use the money an' it ain't near as good.
The one hope we have is for glory an' song, that is hez as keeps books for the heavenly things. When he make his pile of books for the heavenly things, that's in the good resolutions we're going to try and keep.

I'll try to go along the right road, but it's hard to be good on a dollar a day.
