LOVED BY THE MASSES—EUGENE DEBS AT OMaha

Interviewed by the World-Herald.

The Omaha World-Herald of Dec. 22, contains the following interesting description and inter- view:

Eugene V. Debs at the Murray Hotel room, at 11 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. With an expansive and - sufficiently confident gait, the reliable white-headed labor leader, with a face pale, he ranged himself in the papers—any on the American continent, who held no official place or office in the labor movement.

Debs is a character—a man whose life story you can never really read. He poured six feet one and a half inches, and 200 pounds. He was sufficiently lungy; liverly; his labor movement, and the world of the American pastor of Luciferian Socialism! But Debs is not without a contrast. Some of his features are very well marked;粗糙, and the world is well known to him.

He is well aware of his ability, or should be, and makes good the boast he has, made, that he is the best-armed of any Englishman. His life story is the story of a worker who has had a lot of luck, and has made the best of it.

During the interview, Mr. Debs was asked whether he had heard of the recent victories of the United States in the war in China.

"I have not heard of them," he said, "but I shall be glad to hear of them, and I shall do all I can to help them."

He then added: "I do not care about the war; it is a waste of time and money."

He also said: "I believe in the right of the United States to maintain its interests and its territories, but I do not agree with the methods used by the government."

The Social Democratic Party of America declares that life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are the natural and fundamental rights of man and child and are conditioned upon free and independent political and economic institutions.

That private ownership of the means of production is the fact of wealth has caused society to divide itself into two great classes: the oppressors and the oppressed.

It was through the conflict of interest, the clash of classes, that the Socialist is born.

The Social Democratic Party of America, the Socialist Party of America, is responsible for the maintenance and development of the growing majority of our people.

The Social Democratic Party of America believes that the laws which have produced and now maintain our social and economic order must be overthrown, that the government must be placed in the hands of the people, and that it must be educated and trained in the adoption of Socialism.

That the trade union movement of the working class must be subscribed to as the first step in the abolition of the capitalist system of production and distribution.

The Social Democratic Party of America, in order to fulfill its purpose of educating and organizing the working class, is in furtherance of this work and of making the Social Democratic Party of America, by becoming a part of the labor movement of the United States, will serve the labor movement, and strive to organize all such labor unions as may hereafter be formed and organized and assist the organization of labor in every way possible.

Resolved, That in order to more effectually resist the encroachments upon the rights of labor and to better the lot of the laborer, labor unions should be organized and should be supported by the Social Democratic Party of America.

Resolved, That we commend an honest co-operation to that end by the various political parties of the Social Democratic Party of America, by honoring their respective representatives, and by strengthening their political power.

Resolved, That we commend an honest co-operation among all workingmen and employers.

Resolved, That we commend an honest co-operation among all workingmen and employers.

Demands for Farmers.

The Social Democratic Party of America does not hope for the immediate revolution in which the masses of the people, through the increase of misery, would throw off the yoke of oppression and bring about the social revolution through the determination, united action, and the organization of the working class.

The Social Democratic Party of America, as a part of the labor movement, and the social revolution, is to be made the vessel in which the Socialist Party will sail.

The Social Democratic Party of America is to be the vessel in which the Socialist Party will sail.

The Social Democratic Party of America is to be the vessel in which the Socialist Party will sail.

THE EVOLUTION OF CAPITALISM IN RUSSIA

By Theodore Lewitt

There are two Socialists in Russia; one is agrarian socialism, and the other republicanism. The agrarian socialists believe in the systematic application of capitalism to the industrial stage of production, before being ripe for Socialism. They believe that Socialism can only be brought about by the organization of the whole people.

The branch is further noticed that it is improper to vote by resolution or motion, and when in session, the branch shall have the power to discipline the members of the branch with respect to the amount and to the number of the branch.

Socialism is a movement for the establishment of a new society, in which the interests of the working class are paramount. It is a movement for the abolition of the existing social system, which is based on the exploitation of the working class by the capitalist class.

The number of workers, in general, was rather small, but the number of factory workers, in particular, was much larger. The factory workers were the backbone of the working class.

The rent was fixed by the city council and was paid to the city government. The peasants paid the rent to the landowners.

The number of workers was large, but the number of factory workers was small. The factory workers were the backbone of the working class.

The people of Russia are suffering from the effects of the industrialization of the country. The worker is exploited by the capitalist, and the peasant is exploited by the landlord.

The workers are exploited by the capitalist, and the peasants are exploited by the landlord. The workers are the backbone of the working class, and the peasants are the backbone of the agricultural class.
The definitions of the two were "Social" and "Democratic" which are taken from the dictionary. The Social Democratic Party is the party that is concerned with the well-being of the public and the establishment of a democratic society. They believe in the power of the people to govern themselves and make decisions that affect their lives.

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT.

In his work on the "Development of Socialism from Utopia to Realization," Dr. Thomas Hodgskin outlines the progress of socialism and the significance of its role in the development of human society, following the following clear manner:

I. MEDICAL SOCIALISM.

In the age of Locke, Bentham, and especially in the era of the French Revolution, we find the beginnings of social and political thought, which led to the development of medical socialism. The idea of the state as a vehicle for the welfare of the people and the establishment of medical facilities became widespread.

II. MARXIST SOCIALISM.

In the 19th century, the ideas of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels began to take shape. Their work, "The Communist Manifesto," outlined the principles of workers' self-management, the establishment of a classless society, and the role of the state in the transition from capitalism to socialism.

III. SOCIAL DEMOCRACY.

Social democracy emerged in the late 19th century as a response to the conditions of industrial capitalism. It sought to reform capitalism through democratic means, advocating for workers' rights and social welfare programs.

IV. COMMUNIST SOCIALISM.

Communism, as espoused by Vladimir Lenin, focused on the role of the state in the transition to a classless society. The state was viewed as a tool toRussian revolution.

V. FASCIST SOCIALISM.

Fascism, with its emphasis on the state as a tool for economic development and social control, marked the beginning of the state's role in the economy.

VI. LIBERALISM AND THE STATE.

Liberalism emerged as a critique of both socialism and fascism. It advocated for the role of the state in economic and social policies, while promoting individual freedom and the rule of law.

VII. SOCIALISM IN THE 21ST CENTURY.

In the 21st century, socialism has evolved to include a variety of approaches, including democratic socialism, neoliberalism, and social democracy. The role of the state in economic and social policies continues to be a central issue.

THE SOCIALIST VOTE.

The political strength of socialism from 1867 to 1907.

Many persons whose sympathies and aims are within the socialistic camp, it is a matter of regret to say, that while they believe in the desirability of socialistic remedies, and are not without a knowledge of their consequences, they are unwilling to vote for socialists in the general elections.

The following table shows the votes for the Socialist candidates in various countries and towns where the same have been elected for office.

Memorial dues payable January 1. Remit promptly.
The Herald Leaflets.

To supply the need which has long been felt for a series of brief, coherent, and engaging explanations of the political and social theories which can be furnished at a low price for general distribution in aid of our propaganda, we have arranged the publication of what will be known as "THE HERALD LEAFLETS." The price is 25 cents per page, delivered to the door. The leaflets will be continued until the demand is satisfied.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Herald Leaflets are now ready for delivery. Orders may be sent to The Herald, 69 West Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The leaflets are designed to meet the need of the times, and to supplement the work of the Social Democratic Party. They are written in a clear and concise style, and are adapted to the average intelligence of the working classes. The topics covered include a wide range of subjects, from the theory of the state to practical political questions.

The following list of topics is by no means complete, but it contains many of the abovest mentioned subjects:

2. The importance of the trade union movement.
3. The prevention of war.
4. The right of the people to be heard in the face of the dictatorial state.
5. The organization of labor.
6. The social and economic conditions of the working classes.
7. The principles of the Social Democratic Party.

These leaflets are printed on good paper, and are handsomely bound. They are designed to be distributed widely, and are intended to supplement the work of the Social Democratic Party in the field of political education.

H. W. Marz, Chairman of the Committee on the Production of Leaflets.

The leaflets are distributed by the Herald, 69 West Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, and are available for immediate delivery. Orders may be sent to the Herald, or to any other agent authorized by the Social Democratic Party.
There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
We may not live to see the day, but boys, we shall listen to the glory when it do come true.
Cannon balls may aid the truth, but Thought's a weapon stronger,
And with her we shall battle by and by.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
The pen shall supersede the sword, and Right, not Might, shall be the lord.
North, and south, and east, and west, shall men's rule.
The proper impulse has been given—a little, a little, a little more.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
War, in all men's eyes, shall be a monster of inquiry.
Nations shall not quarrel then, to prove which is the stronger,
Our yarning men for glory's sake—a little, a little, a little, a little.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
Hateful realities of creed shall not make their martyrs bleed;
Religion shall be born of pride, and flourish till the stronger,
And Charity shall triumph—peace and love, a little, a little, a little.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
And a poor man's family shall not be his misery;
Every child shall be a lamp shining a little more and a little stronger.
The happier he be the more—has a little, a little, a little, a little.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
Little children shall lead down the land in peace and plenty;
But shall play in healthful fields till limbs and mind grow stronger,
And every night we shall meet and rest—peace and love, a little, a little.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
People shall be temperate, and shall live each for his hate;
They shall love, and not abuse, each other, and for all—peace and love, a little, a little.

The Reform has begun—a little, a little, a little, a little.

There's a good time coming, boys, a good time coming;
Let us all do our part, every woman, every man,
Smallest helps, if rightly given, make the impulse stronger.
'Twill be strong enough one day—a little, a little, a little, a little.

CHARLES MARCY.
