Perpetuate Capitalism Would be to Degrade Universal Mediocrity and Destroy Civilization.

CHICAGO CITY PLATFORM.

The Social Democratic Party is pledged to remove the abuses of our industrial system by changing the motive of production, the measures of wages, and the methods of distribution. It is carried on for the purpose of realizing for the laboring classes the full value of their labor, and all considerations of honesty, humanity, and the best interests of the community. The Social Democratic Party believes that it is the duty of the owners of the land and machines to be constantly compounding with what to which they choose to give employment to secure everything that makes life desirable, and that the conditions that rule the employed of their own industry and individual profit, and brutalize them, that the wages of the machines of 1908 were exactly the same as in 1870—twenty-eight years ago.

To do its part in the "cheerful" side, on the advances of 1906 over 1870, concluding that the report is reliable—probably a large conception of what is required, and we conclude:

1. That bricklayers have been twenty-eight years.

2. That skilled hatters are gaining fifteen cents a day.

3. That skilled hatters by their heroic efforts have in twenty-eight years added a dollar and a quarter to the wage policy of fifteen cents.

That twenty-eight years of national development has brought to the head care significant increase of nineteen cents per day.

And the carpenters—what of the carpenters?—

In the principal United States cities, a thirty-cent minimum wage in eight years to this day.

The above are a few of the advances in wages, which results people say "ought to be gratifying to all workmen!!"

The wages have improved, but at the same time, the city has not failed to impose the burden of capitalism.

The trusts may be loaded with fertilizers, but there is a rapidly growing influence in the city that will make the people free and popular, and will bring the price of water, and plenty of water, if desired, to be brought to the people in the water, the price of 50 cents.

AS Socialism as a conscious, political power is in the formative stage, the problem of finding the country that has the best organised and largest, promising socialist party in the world. Of course, I refer to Germany. I am sure that many Socialists have (with the exception of German Socialists) for years been surprised that our organisation in Germany has for so long been regarded as a meek little thing. This feeling is justified, but I would like to say that our system of Socialism in our great cities, but it is none the less a realisation of Socialism, and I believe that we shall improve and strengthen our system of Socialism if we realise that we are part of a well-nigh world-wide army, that we are able to win the world-wide army to our side, and that the final victory is not far away.

Now, the most powerful political division in the world is the German Social Democrats. We learn from an article by Mr. Bradford Cottrell in the London Daily Herald of February 12, 1899, that the "German Social Democrats" are the most powerful political party in Germany. The Social Democrats have increased during the last thirty years. At the last election in 1871 the party candidates polled 124,055 votes; in 1884, 190,826 votes; in 1897, 786,238; in 1899, 2,000,000 votes. According to the official poll published, the electorate voted for the Socialists candidate, and the party leader is now the most powerful political division in the world.

These figures, taken from the enemy, should suffice to show the strength of the Social Democrats.

This great German Social party holds the balance of power in the Federal Assembly. It answers roughly to our National Convention. The last electoral list, on which the Social Democrats have been able to organize their own candidates, stood at 2,000,000, and it is the only political party in German politics.

"The congress considered grave political issues, such as the problem of free-trade and protection; in the latter case, the party at Rome, the prize of the Emperor at Darmstadt; it studied the regulations of war; in mines. It determined by resolutions its attitude in various questions of the German and international politics." But, in honor of the delegates was given by the Socialists of Stuttgart. They were also represented and their motives among others: "Against great ideas, violence struggles in vain." The Social Democrats, who have always been the most powerful political division in the world, and the struggle of the world. And this line from the poet Heine: "There is no such thing as the German people," is the best tribute of the Emperor: "We have triumphed over the great dangers of crises, and we now have a victory, and we have provided a real Socialism of the future."

He recalled the circumstances under which a Social Democratic party in Germany, in 1870, immediately before the war between France and Germany. "Ludwig" was undoubtedly the prophet of the Social Democrats of Stuttgart. "We have triumphed over the great dangers of crises, and we now have a victory, and we have provided a real Socialism of the future." The Social Democratic Party of America demands that life, liberty and property be the same for all the people of the world, and that all men and child are conditioned upon an equal political and economic status.

That private ownership of the means of production and the control of wealth has caused society to divide into two classes, the wealthy and the poor; that with conflicting interests, the small capitalistic economy is the most dangerous to the wealthier classes, the plutocrats of the labor force of other and the ever-increasing large distance between the rich and the poor, who are deprived of the socially-determined means of production, and the widening gap between those with those in the city, the land to be sold, but to be utilized by the United States, state directly for the public benefit, in farmers in small parcels of not over one hundred acres, land, and country to gain and use the water for waterways to be built under direct control

Construction of grain elevators and cold storage buildings by the national farmer at cost.

Rail road, telegraph and telephone services to be operated by the United States, not for profit but for the benefit of the people, and the complete elimination of all private ownership of these services.

The solidarity of labor connects the labor organization of all classes-member fellow workers throughout the world and that all labor will defend its industrial and political claims.

As steps in this direction, we propose:

1. Revision of our antiquated Federal Constitution, in order to obtain the complete control of government by the people, irrespective of party lines.

2. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, toll, and other lines of transportation, communication and other public utilities.

3. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, toll, and other lines of transportation, communication and other public utilities.

4. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, toll, and other lines of transportation, communication and other public utilities.

5. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, toll, and other lines of transportation, communication and other public utilities.

6. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, toll, and other lines of transportation, communication and other public utilities.

7. The public ownership of all railroads, telegraph, toll, and other lines of transportation, communication and other public utilities.

HERALD-JOURNAL,

The volume contains a series of essays, letters, etc., that were written before and during the period of the Terminus movement, and show the relation of the Christian conscience to the economic problems of the day. The volume is intended to be read by all who are interested in the Social Democratic Party and that the social conscience for the benefit of all the people, to be used by all.

The Social Democratic Party of America is the only political party that can be trusted to do what is right for the people of this country.

Abolition of war as far as the United States are concerned and the establishment of international arbitration instead.
That Buffalo Conference.

Many capitalist newspapers and magazines have been just as persistent as the anti-socialist papers and journals in the presentation of false and misleading pictures of the Socialist movement, an attempt to neutralize the great organizing work of the Socialists during the last two years. The Buffalo conference was a most important factor in the development of the Socialist movement in this country. The conference was a meeting of the leaders of the socialist movement, representing the various socialist societies and organizations of the country. The conference was called to discuss the situation of the movement and to formulate a policy for the future. The conference was a landmark in the history of the socialist movement in this country.

EASTER'S MESSAGE.

(With great respect and affection, and in the spirit of the true Easter spirit, the following message was transmitted by the Beelzebub to his beloved people on the occasion of the resurrection of Christ.)

"The resurrection of Christ, the true Messiah, has brought peace and joy to the world. He has overcome death and has risen through the gates of hell. He has opened the way for all men to be saved.

"He has called all men to repentance and to the conversion of their lives. He has taught them the way to salvation. He has given them the power to overcome all obstacles and to overcome all enemies.

"He has said that all men should love one another and that all men should be brothers. He has said that all men should be equal and that all men should be free.

"He has said that all men should be saved and that all men should be happy.

"He has said that all men should be united and that all men should be one.

"He has said that all men should be saved and that all men should be happy.

"He has said that all men should be united and that all men should be one.

"He has said that all men should be saved and that all men should be happy.

Well Done, Exeter.

We organized a branch of the N.P. Feb. 19, 1899, for the purpose of promoting the interests of the National Protectionist and Anti-Socialist movement. The move was well received, and we have now a strong and active body of members who are doing good work in the city.

Several comrades have asked me to be their leader, and I am happy to be able to answer fully as I have always been present at the meetings.

In the first place, the meeting was well attended by a young and able Young Men's Christian Association which was well represented at the meeting. The speaker was Mr. J. P. at all the subject of the first meeting was the "Socialist Propaganda," which was discussed by Comrade W. P. Porter. The subject was well received, and the meeting was Socialistic, and the proceedings were a public affair.

The speaker, on the subject of the last meeting, said that the two previous meetings a discussion had been made by the anti-Socialists who insisted upon forcing their personal views upon the public without any understanding or discussion, at meetings where the subject was of a public character. On this occasion the speaker opened the discussion by asking the question: "What is the basis of the anti-Socialists' views on the subject?" The chairman gave permission to the speaker to ask the question, and the speaker proceeded to argue the point.

At the meeting, the branch made a trip into Northern New Hampshire and reports an increased interest in the Social Republican movement. Secretary of State Ezra S. Stoddard has issued the first report on the election of 1899.

ARTICLE I.

SOCIAL DEMOCRACY.

The definitions of the words "social" and "worker," which are utilized in this dictionary, are as follows:

SOCIALISM.-Pertaining to society or to the public as the aggregate body of individuals of all classes and social status.

Socialism is the theory and practice of the distribution of the means of production and of the material and social resources of society in such a way that the individual shall have an equal share in the means of production and an equal share in the profits and losses resulting from the use of these means of production.

WORLD OF LABOR.

THE MAGIC HOLLAND.

The Social Democratic Party in Holland proposes to arrange for a grand international peace demonstration in this city this year's disarmament conferences. Socialist leaders of Germany, France, England and Austria will attend the Social Democratic movement in our city.

MAIDEN, MAIDEN.

Our Social Democratic Organ, Our Social Democracies, reports that 3000 textile workers are out on strike in the city of Maiden.

THE ROOSTRUM.

Common ownership of land and industry, a system which controls all means of production and distribution, is the main goal in every common ownership of land and industry. It is a system which is the basis of all the laws of society.

FUMINION DEMOCRAT.

In this city the employers' group was formed in 1862, and any employer who does not sign the common ownership of land and industry will not be able to sign the common ownership of land and industry. The employers' group was formed in 1862, and any employer who does not sign the common ownership of land and industry will not be able to sign the common ownership of land and industry.

St. Louis. W. H. S. O.

The following is the municipal platform upon which our St. Louis commitments are based, and your canvass for the spring election.

1. A full and complete abrogation by the municipality of the public utilities, such as street railways, gas and electric light plants, and all other utilities requiring a franchise, with a view to the extension of the city's civil service rules.

2. The abolition of the contract system on all public works.

3. The election of the commonwealth by all municipal work, with a minimum wage of $2 per day.

4. That the full power of the municipality be exercised for the benefit of all paid employees, and the establishment of public work for the benefit of its employees.

5. That the burden of taxation be equalized as far as the holdings of each citizen.

6. That the commonwealth shall furnish work to all children in the public schools, also meals and clothing to children of school age, when necessary, to enable them to attend school.

7. That the city shall maintain public school buildings, with all the modern improvements, according to the school boards as taxing places for the homeless poor.

8. That the attention of the people having the public property shall be turned to the public school, and that public school reform shall be proposed, the need of immediate improvements and assistance for the employees.

9. We demand the adoption of the principles of the initiative and referendum, the municipal legislation, the necessary important needs, and the public schools, which it has come to pass years ago for the city's public school district.

10. We demand the city charter be amended so that no partly public or partly public, for the holding of any public office.

11. We demand the employment of men of color in public office, and we must cooperate to abolish the capitalist system of production and distribution.

Where Trades Unionists will vote for H. D. S. F. D. P.

The trades union movement is a national and independent political activity of the working class, and all must cooperate to abolish the capitalist system of production and distribution.

The most important words of the day are: "Liberty," "Progress," "Democracy," "Socialism." The last word has been translated into many languages around the world, and it is a word that means that people understand themselves and do what they want. It is a law for the poor worker. The Appeal is printed weekly, without advertising, and costs 30 cents a year. The editor is glad to send it free of charge to those who wish to read it if it is considered well posted on all political movements. This is patent. Address APPEAL TO REASON, Ginza, Kansas.

The grand speech of Eugene V. Debs on "Liberty Day," delivered at Battery D. Chicago, on the occasion of his release from the United States Penitentiary at Leavenworth, has just been published in book form.
