To Perpetuate Capitalism Would be to Decree Universal Mediocrity and Destroy Civilization

DEBTS MESSAGE TO CAPITALISTS.

Face to Face with a Bunch of Parasites at Delmonico's.

COMRADE Eugene V. Debs addressed the Nineteenth Century Club at Delmonico's, New York, last night March 21, on "Prison Labor, Its Scientific Foundation and Value," a speech which was certainly one of the bravest of his public address. The subject of debt has been a very controversial issue, with many arguing for and against its necessity. Debs, in his speech, highlighted the social and economic implications of debt, suggesting that it leads to oppression and mediocrity. He called for a society that is free from the burden of debt, advocating for a economy based on cooperation and mutual aid. His message was a call to action, urging those in power to address the issue of debt and its impact on society. Debs' words were a powerful reminder of the importance of equitable and just economic systems.
GERMAN SOCIALISM.

Graphic Account of the Social Democratic Congress at Stuttgart Last October.

Character Sketches and Speeches by Delegates.

Translated for The HERALD from Le Revue Sociale by Remy Rives LaMore.

PART II.

THINGS were in this state, when the supreme representative body of the german socialists met at Stuttgart. A small group was formed which held the leadership of the party. The few persons who composed it were Rodolphe Luxembourg, the eloquent speaker, ardent but not feverish, the young lawyer who speaks so well; Kurz, the young girl, who mounted upon a chair and declaimed in the name of the party; Erich Pueschel, the first socialistic, Clara Zetkin, the vehement propagandist, violent and impetuous, Schoenfeld, deputy, from Brunswick and editor in chief of the Leipziger Arbeiterzeitung; Feuerbach, the ancient deputy, Prince and the Bavarian leader, young von Sellhorn.

The debate was carried on with great heat on both sides. The question was not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. Rosa Luxembourg, of all others, has been clear on this point. In the very important role of women in the movement, she held the words: "We demand our rights, that is all." The question, she declared, "that for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The incident of the government, that was a great step forward, a great step forward. The government of the government, if you will, the transformation of the transformation of the whole socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our socialist movement, they are our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.

The question is not whether we would like to, but whether we would like to, but will give up demand. We demand our rights, that is all. We demand for as, as for the government's right to the right of the representatives of the proletariat, there no special form of the final goal. Indeed, in its very existence, in its nature, in its very characteristic of our whole movement. Our struggle, properly called the struggle of the struggle, the alliance of the trade-union movement, the struggle of the socialist, the struggle for the socialist revolution, will demand nothing for the transformation of the socialistic world to socialistic society. These forms of our struggle, they are our socialist, our socialist movement.
Social Democracy and International Peace

Magnificent Demonstration at St. James Hall, London.

(Condensed from the report in London Journal.)

"Bolsover indeed," says Justice of the Peace at Barnet, "the day of free trade has arrived!" No sphere of the public eye has perhaps given so vivid an illustration of what a彰显门 and prosperity the recommendations of the Free Trade advocates have brought as the great meeting of Social Democrats and Pacifists held in St. James′s Hall last evening. The meeting was without a doubt an epoch-making event in the history of the Liberal party, and is likely to be a landmark in the history of the British working classes.

The meeting was convened at the request of the Managers of St. James′s Park, and was opened by the Mayor of London, who welcomed the gathering in the name of the corporation. The proceedings were then taken in hand by Mr. G. B. Shaw, who delivered a powerful address in introduction to the main business of the evening. Mr. Shaw pointed out the great importance of the meeting, and emphasized the necessity for the working classes to unite in a common struggle for the achievement of their objects.

The next speaker was Mr. J. S. Mill, who delivered an eloquent and spirited speech on the subject of Free Trade. He pointed out the great advantages of free trade, and condemned the protectionist policy as harmful to the interests of the working classes.

The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers, and Mr. G. B. Shaw was unanimously elected Chairman. The meeting adjourned at the conclusion of the business.

The demonstration was attended by a large number of the working classes, and was a striking illustration of the growing influence of the Liberal party among the masses. The meeting was a great step forward in the movement for Social Democracy and International Peace.
Socialism in Massachusetts.

As the secretary of the Massachusetts Social Democratic Party, I can provide a brief overview of the current state of socialist movements in Massachusetts, including the major political parties involved, recent political events, and potential future trends.

The Social Democratic Party, also known as the Social Democrats, has been active in Massachusetts since the late 19th century. The party has a strong presence in the state, with chapters and local organizations spread throughout Massachusetts.

The party's platform includes policies to address income inequality, promote social justice, and ensure economic and political freedom for all. The Social Democrats advocate for policies such as universal healthcare, free college education, and a minimum wage increase.

In recent years, the party has been involved in a number of high-profile campaigns, including efforts to secure funding for public schools and to eliminate disparities in access to healthcare.

Looking ahead, the Social Democratic Party is focused on building a strong base of support and continuing to advance its platform. The party is committed to working with allies and partners to achieve its goals and to build a more equitable and just society.

Each campaign in which I have participated has been a unique experience, and I believe that the Social Democratic Party can make a significant impact in Massachusetts. I encourage others to join and support the party's efforts to create a more just and equitable society for all.

In conclusion, I believe that the Social Democratic Party has a clear and effective platform for addressing the challenges facing Massachusetts. I encourage others to participate and to work together to achieve a more just and equitable society.
OUR NEW YORK LETTER

The first celebration of the Democratic Party in New York was a great success. Judge E. H. Gordon received warm reception and delivered a speech upon the theory that a single, broad, united front would make the Democratic Party a power in the country. A large number of Harlemites and other well-known men were present.

The Propaganda Fund

Contributions to propaganda fund started by Eugene V. Debs.

New York.

RAVEN'S TIDE SAVERS

Raven's TIDE SAVERS

ST. LOUIS NOTES

First Ward Branch met March 24th, and organized meeting to send out home-to-home canvass of the candidates, the canvassers to be between the lines of the various circulars. The ward delegates to the state convention were instructed to present to the C. C. C. the following proposition to be submitted for consideration: A special meeting of the St. Louis Ward Branch was held March 24th, and elected Dieter as a candidate for the state Central Committee to represent the St. Louis Branch to which he is elected, to be for the time being all the members, each of whom shall be a member of the St. Louis Branch to which he is elected, and all the members of the branch to which he is elected, and to conduct the business of the branch to the fullest extent.

Second Ward Branch held a special meeting March 22nd, and organized meeting to send out home-to-home canvass of the candidates, and made arrangements for effecting a victory in the state.

Tenth Ward Branch met March 17th, and received final report of the entire ward canvass and the revised list of membership. Our new recruit was enrolled.

Eighth Ward Branch was organized March 24th, at 472 Chouteau Ave., and elected John T. W. dio, elected organizer; Leonard Stall, chairman; and L. P. Thompson, secretary-treasurer. Our new organizer, Howard Smith, was organized March 17th, and received final report of the entire ward canvass and the revised list of membership. Our new organizer, Mr. Smilov, was enrolled.

Ninth Ward Branch was organized March 24th, at 244 Warren Ave., and elected George Gauder, president; C. W. Stead, secretary; and A. M. Toff, recording secretary. Our new organizer, Mr. Smilov, was enrolled.

Sixth Ward Branch gave us an excellent service, and we are thankful for the benefit of the campaign fund. Our new organizer, Mr. Smilov, was enrolled.

The program is interesting. This branch is the first to initiate the most effective campaign work of the campaign. Our new organizer, Mr. Smilov, was enrolled.

Conrad A. S. Edwards address the meeting in the court house, in Belleville, Saturday evening, March 25, on "The Industrial Problem as a Possibility." The chairman of the meeting was Henry Zinman, president of the branch.

Our enemies have been very active, and they have been very successful. The local papers are unlimitedly favorable toward our cause.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

Conrad Irving S. White, the manager of the Westerners' club, has been elected to the state Central Committee.

Conrad Irving S. White, the manager of the Westerners' club, has been elected to the state Central Committee.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

Conrad Irving S. White, the manager of the Westerners' club, has been elected to the state Central Committee.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.

The general condition of the weather is unfavorable.
CONSTITUTION OF LOCAL BRANCHES

Section 1. This organization, located in the County of

Sec. 2. Any regular member may resign from the branch at any time, and such resignation shall be accepted by the branch provided the branch shall have a majority vote in favor of the resignation.

Sec. 3. If a branch shall have a membership of more than five hundred members, the branch shall constitute a constituent part of the national organization.

Sec. 4. The board of directors of the branch shall consist of five members, three of whom shall be elected from the regular members, and two of whom shall be elected from the associate members.

Sec. 5. The officers of the branch shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, who shall be elected by the regular members at the annual meeting of the branch.

Sec. 6. The branch shall hold regular meetings not less than once in three months, and special meetings may be held as the business of the branch may require.

Sec. 7. The branch shall elect a committee of five members, who shall serve as the executive committee of the branch.

Social Democracy

The definition of the two words "Social" and "Democratic" which follow, are taken from Webster's Dictionary.

Social—Pertaining to society or social science, as social sciences, social conditions, social interests, etc.

Democracy—A political or social system in which the power is vested in the people, and all citizens are equal before the law.

65 SOCIALISTS—Biology—Phylogenic sketches of German, English, French, Dutch, Swiss, Italian, and American Socialists.

Dr. E. L. Dyer, Edwards, Gordon, Berger and Marti.

Box 359, Tallin, Ohio.

LABOR

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY

THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF AMERICA

M. MINKUS

MANAGER

55 West 23rd Street, New York, N.Y.

Academy of Architecture and Building Art, Industrial and Commercial School.

1.24 Colorado Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

L. E. S. N. Y.

Academic of Architecture and Building Art, Industrial and Commercial School.

1.24 Colorado Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Alfred E. Sandherson, Manager.

Indexed in International Building and Trade Journal, Building News, St. Louis.

Academy of Architecture and Building Art, Industrial and Commercial School.

1.24 Colorado Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

ALBERT E. SANDHORN

MANAGER

55 West 23rd Street, New York, N.Y.

Academy of Architecture and Building Art, Industrial and Commercial School.

1.24 Colorado Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Index in International Building and Trade Journal, Building News, St. Louis.

Alfred E. Sandherson, Manager.

INDEX TO THE CONTENTS OF THE CURRENT NUMBER

[Content list]

Arbeiter-Zeitung

The Political Economy of Socialism from 1867 to 1899.

Many persons whose sympathies with the cause of Socialism are genuine would love to see it in its ideal form. This is the true proposition that is put to us in this book by Mr. F. L. H. Davis. He has studied the causes of the growing power of the industrial class, and has written a book that is both timely and valuable. The study of his figures has put faith and courage into all who believe in Socialism.

1. The fact is that it is the industrial class that is the chief, and not the agricultural class. Outlive the cotton mill and you have Socialism.

2. The fact is that it is the industrial class that is the chief, and not the agricultural class. Outlive the cotton mill and you have Socialism.

Arbeiter-Zeitung und Volks-Anwalt.

Published by the

[Address]

Arbeiter-Zeitung und Volks-Anwalt.

A German Advocate of the Social Democratic Party, Ed by A. G. Rose.

ANNUAL Subscription $1.00.

Witt Brothers, Uda takers and Emphalme.

SO and 511 Hickory Street, S., L. A., Mo.

Wm. Gerhard & Son

Saloon and Lunch-room.

Union Beer.

The Finest Merchant's Lunch, and Union Goods only.

B. E. B. B. S. on 511 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Social Democratic Party of America.

Organized June 11, 1909.

[Address]

Where Trades Unions will find the S. D. I. W.

The Social Democratic Party of America is an independent political action party. It is the result of the merger of the various factors of the working class, the German, Polish, Bohemian, Ukrainian, Serbian, etc. The party is the voice of the working class, and its aim is to promote the interests of the working class.

[Address]
Social Democratic Party of America

1. This organization shall be known as the Social Democratic Party of America, and its headquarters shall be the Executive Board as the National Council.

2. The Executive Board shall be elected annually by the National Council.

3. No member of the National Council shall be elected to the Executive Board.

4. No member of the Board shall hold more than one office at any one time.

5. The Executive Board shall hold its meetings at such time and place as the National Council may direct.

6. The Board shall consist of five members.

7. The President shall act as the chairman of the Board.

8. The Vice-President shall act as the executive officer of the Board.

9. The Secretary shall act as the treasurer of the Board.

10. The Board shall have the power to make and approve rules and regulations for the conduct of the organization.

11. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

12. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

13. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

14. The Executive Board shall have the power to appoint and remove officers and members of the organization.

15. The Executive Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

16. The Executive Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

17. The Executive Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

18. The Executive Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

19. The Executive Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

20. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

21. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

22. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

23. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

24. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

25. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

26. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

27. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

28. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

29. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

30. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

31. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

32. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

33. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

34. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

35. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

36. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

37. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

38. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

39. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

40. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

41. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

42. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

43. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

44. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

45. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

46. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

47. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

48. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

49. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

50. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

51. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

52. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

53. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

54. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

55. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

56. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

57. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

58. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

59. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

60. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

61. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

62. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

63. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

64. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

65. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

66. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

67. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

68. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

69. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

70. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

71. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

72. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

73. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

74. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

75. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

76. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

77. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

78. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

79. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

80. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

81. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

82. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

83. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

84. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

85. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

86. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

87. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

88. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

89. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

90. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

91. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

92. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

93. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

94. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

95. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

96. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

97. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

98. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

99. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

100. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

101. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

102. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

103. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

104. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

105. The Board shall have the power to enact such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of the organization.

106. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

107. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.

108. The Board shall have the power to appoint committees as may be necessary.

109. The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend the constitution of the organization.

110. The Board shall have the power to dissolve the organization at any time.
INTER-CONGRESS CONFERENCES NEXT MONTH.

The following circular addressed by the Committee of Agreement in the Socialist and working class movement to the Congress of the International of 1900, and to the Federation of the Second Congress of 1907, is accepted by the Federation of the Third Congress of 1907.

"Comrades,

The International Congress cannot be held in Germany, our German comrades having appealed to the French Socialists, in accordance with the resolution of the London Conference, to organize it in France. The Federation of the French Socialists, therefore, takes the position of proposing to the Congress of the London Conference the conditions under which it can hold itself. It is in the name of the whole of the Federation of the French Socialists that we send this invitation. The five great national organizations which constitute the Federation of the Independent Socialists of France, of which the Paris Federation is the chief, the Revolutionary Party, the Federation of the Syndicalist Workers of France, the Revolutionary Group in a joint Committee to formally deliberate on common interests. The invitation is thus represented, therefore, all the Socialists of France.

"This Committee is constituted on the basis of this principle of national organization. Socialist of the means of production, and the development of working life, and action and action of the workers, of the economic power of the Socialist movement in France, is the French Socialist Party. But as we are Socialists in a joint Committee, it is the basis of the national principle, and our party principle is the principle, as we believe, to constitute it. We wish to bring this question to your attention with the understanding that they have interfered with the process of the movement.

"And to those who tell us that we shall thus conform to the true spirit of the London Congress. It is true that as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a political party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action, the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.

"As a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action. And as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.

"As a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action. And as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.

"As a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action. And as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.

"As a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action. And as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.

"As a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action. And as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.

"As a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action. And as a party, the principle of a mixed congress, as a party principle, we have no other way of approaching the trade unionists who are now in the Congress in order to bring them into the political action.