LESSON THREE WEEKS AT SEA

Stales of the Stake House—Twelve Hours in Hell Without a Bite of Food or a Drink—The Great Privat Steamship Company

A Peculiar Anger of Parisians

A sea story.

A few weeks ago the magnificent steamer "La Bourgeoise," the 14th of the famous fleet, was launched, and those on board the steamer and those in the sheds were equally excited. The steamer was, as the press said, "a real monument," and those who had seen her at the last resort of a shipwright. One of the novel features of the steamer was that her captain had become a stonewall and an insult to all lawers of freedom through the world.

A correspondent calls attention to the fact that the "Bourgeois" is the largest ship in the world, and the most beautiful and the most luxurious in the world. She is 1,000 feet long, and has 10 decks. Her engine is 2,000 horsepower, and her speed is ten miles an hour. She is built of the finest steel, and her structure is so perfect that she can withstand any storm. The ship was launched on the 15th of last month, and the ceremony was attended by the President of the Republic, the Minister of Marine, and many other officials.

One of the events of the day was the launch of the "Bourgeois." The President, the Minister of Marine, and many other officials were present, and the ceremony was attended by thousands of spectators. The President gave a speech, and the Minister of Marine presented the steamer to the Government.

Another story.

A few weeks ago the Briton steamer "Round the World," with eight passengers on board, was launched. The passengers were all dressed in the latest fashions, and the steamer was decorated with flowers. The steamer was the largest in the world, and the passengers were all dressed in the latest fashions. The steamer was decorated with flowers, and the passengers were all dressed in the latest fashions.
