EUGENE DEBS' VISIT TO THE NORTWEST

SOCIAL DEMOCRACY IN THE DOMINION

The Social Democratic Party in Montana—With a Report of the Governor of Montana—By Theodore Rosenthals

This chapter is historically of interest because of Debs' visit to the Northwest. The Social Democratic Party in Montana was an active group at the time, and Debs' visit helped to further its influence and spread socialist ideas in the region. Debs spoke at various locations, including the Montana State University campus in Bozeman, and his speeches were well-received by the Montana socialist movement. The chapter provides a detailed account of Debs' visit, including his speeches and the reactions of the Montana socialist community.
HEATHEN CHINESE A SOCIALIST?

My 'buck tally' calls me a Socialistic Commie, but the fact is, I'm just an unhappy Irishman who cut his teeth on Caulfield's and was taught to stay away from the poorhouse.

I always try to get up a few cards, but I keep losing money. I know I'm just an ordinary Irishman, but I'm not interested in the politics of the world. I just want to stay alive and make a decent living.

The Socialists have a lot to offer, but I'm not convinced. I've heard about their socialist policies, but I think they're just a bunch of idealists who don't understand the reality of life. I believe in the free market system and individual enterprise. I don't want the government to meddle in my affairs.

But I suppose I'm just a die-hard conservative who doesn't want to see the world change. I guess I'm just too old-fashioned to understand the new ideas. I don't know if I'll ever see the day when the Socialists will win. But I hope they can at least make some progress towards a better society.
The Quincy (Mass.) comrades are publishing a small weekly paper called "The Quincy Branch." It has been adopted for the purpose of making the members aware of party campaigns and serves well the purpose of calling attention to the Branch as an organization.

At Evansville, Ind., the comrades have nominated James Mahaffey as a candidate for the office of city council from the Fourth ward, and the branch in that section has busied itself to prepare for the campaign. The comrades and friends are in process of organization and the city party is taking in new members.

Comrade Emil Lass of San Francisco has been invited to the annual convention of the Social Democratic Party of Indiana, at Indianapolis, under the auspices of the branch there. Comrade Lass has just delivered a lecture on "The Social Democratic Emphasis." He is a great favorite in Indiana, and his visit is much appreciated.

Comrade James H. Arnold reports a successful meeting in the northwestern wards of Chicago Wednesday evening. The comrades are taking hold with great enthusiasm and are developing new membership.

Comrade Arnold and a few others have been busy and diligent, and the comrades have made good progress on the movement for the city party.
