WORKERS VOTE RED DESPITE BOSSES TRICKS

CHATTANOOGA Tenn. March 28th 1931

A pamphlet issued by the Communist Party of the U.S.A. discussing labor issues and New Deal policies. The pamphlet includes articles on workers voting red despite efforts by their employers to discourage them, and on the need for workers to fight for social insurance and against the exploitation of labor. It also has a section on the Southern Worker newspaper, which was published weekly by the Communist Party and covered news related to labor and social issues. The pamphlet is dated March 28, 1931, and is priced at 2 cents a copy. The Workers' Council and the Southern Worker are highlighted as key organizations in the struggle for workers' rights and social justice.

Sovi et Exports Up 14% Last Year When All Others Fail

Washington, D. C. - Figures released by the commerce department show that exports from the Soviet Union jumped up 14 per cent over 1930, to a total of $401,000,000 last year. This is in marked contrast to the exports of all capitalist countries, who experienced a great decline in exports. The Soviet Union is the only country in the world that has been able to maintain its position.

MILL COM. MEN SERVE BOSSES FAITHFULLY

By A Worker Correspondent

Danville, Va.

I write this letter knowing that we have been tried by the United States Government. We are strikers of the Danville Mills. We are outside, many of us, and the guards beat us, but we don’t give in. We believe in the strike, in the right of the workers to strike and we are fighting for the strike.

 Yesterday we had a few workers killed. They were shot down. They were not trying to fight us, but they were shot down anyway. We have to fight back. We have to fight for our lives.

Guard Beasts Prisons On Chatt. Chain Gang

By A Worker Correspondent

At least 40 prisoners were taken from a prison in Chattanooga. The guards are now searching for the prisoners. We are fighting to get the prisoners free. We don’t want to be prisoners. We want to be free.

Harvey Gilbert: October 14th was the birthday of the movie, "The Birth of a Nation." This film was made in 1915. It told the story of the American Civil War and the Reconstruction period that followed. The film was directed by D.W. Griffith, a pioneering silent film director.

DePriest Shows His True Colors

By An Unknown

DEPRIEST SHOWS HIS TRUE COLORS

New Orleans: DePriest made a speech in the First African Baptist Church on March 14th and what a speech! I am always in favor of anything that really helps the Negroes to become stronger and better. He and his associates have not been in the black criminal profits from this situation. The Negro has 11.34 dollars to his credit, and he is a very valuable person.

Wage Cut in Exposition

The Exposition Mill will put a wage cut of 2 cents per pound on the cotton. This will be detrimental to the workers and the community.
