WAR EXPERIENCES TOLD BY VET.

By a World War Veteran

I enlisted in the U.S. Army on Aug. 27, 1917, at Tampa, Florida. I was sent to Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga., for training. My initiation into the U.S. Army was pretty tough, clearing the air of smoking, drinking, and other dissipations. After training, I went overseas with the 326th Infantry (108th Division), and was in the line once. We got as far as St. Etienne, France, when we were ordered to the States. I had a close call on the night of November 20, 1918, when my company was ambushed by the Germans. We lost a lot of men that night. I was wounded in the leg, but managed to get back to camp. After that, I was sent home on leaves to recover. I was discharged from the Army on April 1, 1919, and returned to civilian life. I have been a member of the American Legion ever since. I have seen war and I know what it is like. I have fought in Europe and I have seen the horrors of war. I am a veteran of the Great War and I will always support those who have fought for freedom.
U.S. Launches Nation-Wide Wage-Cutting

NEW YORK. A drive is under way throughout the nation for the purpose of dollar management, with the object of stripping the working class out of its democratic rights. The Workingmen's party, in its recent convention, adopted a platform calling for the immediate abolition of capitalism and the establishment of a workers' rule. The party's program includes the nationalization of all means of production, the elimination of profit, and the elimination of all forms of exploitation and oppression. The Workingmen's party is supported by the overwhelming majority of the working class, and is rapidly gaining strength and influence.

Huntingdon, Tenn., Workers Fight Division to Get Higher Wages

Huntingdon, Tenn. - Both Negroes and whites here are opposing the Negroes' scheme to get higher wages. Negroes and whites are not fighting each other, but the labor movement is being systematically used for the purpose of dividing workers. The Negroes are being used as a scapegoat to divide the workers, as the wage-cutting tendency is being pushed by the capitalists.

Mayor Walsley Jails Jobless Leader in N. O.

NEW ORLEANS.- Last night, Mayor Walsley ordered a N.J.O. constable to arrest Congressman Smith, the leader of the N.J.O. labor movement, and to hold him without bail. The Mayor's action is the result of a plot by the capitalists to divide the labor movement and weaken its power. The N.J.O. labor movement is a progressive and powerful organization, and the Mayor's action is a clear example of the capitalist class's attempt to undermine the labor movement.

8,000 in Mill Strike in New Jersey, R. I.

Mill workers in the eastern United States are fighting for better wages and working conditions. The workers are demanding higher pay, shorter hours, and improved working conditions, in order to improve their standard of living. The workers are united in their struggle, and are determined to win their demands.

Scottsboro Interrupts Show in Moscow

Moscow, U.S.S.R.- At the Soviet arts theatre where the Moscow performance of the Scottsboro trial play is being given, a demonstration was held. The demonstration was organized by the Communist party and the workers' organizations. The demonstration was a powerful expression of solidarity with the Scottsboro workers.

Wartime Workers' Rights

The wartime workers' rights movement is gaining momentum. Workers are demanding better working conditions, safer working conditions, and higher pay. The workers are united in their demand for justice and equality, and are determined to win their demands.

Dynamite I. L. D. Car in Harlan

HARLAN, Ky. - The car bomb has been used to target the workers, as the dynamite I. L. D. car has been set on fire outside the coal mine. The workers are responding strongly to this attack, and are determined to defend their rights.

The U.S. military's role in the war has been a controversial issue. The U.S. government has been accused of using the war as an opportunity to expand its military and to gain control over other countries. The U.S. military has been involved in numerous battles and conflicts, and has been accused of violating international laws.

Coops For Homes In Greenville

By a Worker Correspondent

Greenville, S.C.

The homes that the coops in Greenville are built of hogs' coats and the men who work in the hogs' coats are very well off. There is no water, but they've got it. It's a flood, and they're not doing any work.

The city doesn't bother to collect the money, but they're very well off. They have a uniform and they get together in the rooms. There are no windows or doors or steps. The only way to get into the house is to take a seat in the street. The men have only a small amount of food, but it's very well off.

Must Cut Out Lying or Organizing Together

By a Worker Correspondent

Chicago, Ill.

The poor class of working people has been down under slavery all of their lives. They have no rights what so ever. We are born free into the world. All exceptions have been made. That's why there is Jim Crow, lynching and mob rule. This must be put an end to. If we are free we can be as one. We will fight to defend our homes and we want you all to do the same.

Cronstadt, Minn.

Today I was out on the street and saw an automobile run into another. One of the men was coming up at a rapid rate of speed when it entered the intersection. It was clear to everyone that the man who jumped off was a white man and the other man who wasn't was a black man. He didn't get out of the way.

At the wheel of the white man's automobile was a prominent WHITE MAN. The man in the black man's car was not a white man.

It is time the class conscious worker woke up to this and protected it. There is a time when it is time to stand up and fight for the black man's rights.

World War Veteran Sounds a Warning

August First is approaching. This will be the 100th anniversary of the United States military service Sunday. Just as in 1914-1918, the world is being prepared for war. The arms race is being accelerated which opened the great world slaughter. This time the issue will be more ominous for the working class. When the armistice was signed on November 11, 1918, the United States were fully armed and prepared for a four years war. Since then, thousands of United States soldiers, sailors, marines, and airmen have been killed and injured in this war. The working class is bearing all the burdens of the war.

The Civilization They Tell Us To Defend

General Halberstam, speaking at Camp Dix, N. J., has said that the United States government is preparing for a world war. All the preparations for war have been made. The manufacture of military equipment is increasing daily. The United States has declared war on the Soviet Union and all other socialist countries. The United States is taking part in the war against China.

In preparation for this war—which may break loose at any day—the United States is building its war bases. New cities are being built to house the military personnel. Open work is being done by the U.S. Steel Corporation's railroads and other industries.

The soldiers are living in tents on the streets. The working class is being drafted into the army. The working class is being used to defend the interests of the capitalists. The working class is being used to defend the interests of the ruling class.

Native Revolt in Congo Spreading

BRUSSELS, Belgium.—The revolt of the Belgian Congo has spread to other areas. The Belgian government has declared martial law in the Kwango district where the Belgians are being kept in slavery. The Belgian government has declared martial law in other areas where the Belgians are being kept in slavery.

Police Mob Drowned at Camp Hill Emmett

(Continued from Front Page.) The mob that was supposed to have gone "picking flowers" was caught in the artificial lake of the Alcazar Hotel. A member of the group named Alcide O'Neal was killed by Irish police. The mob was driven out of the hotel and placed in the water. They were later found dead in the water.

Further information revealed that Ralph Gray, who was killed by a group of rioters at the lake, was a member of the Irish police. The mob was driven out of the hotel and placed in the water. They were later found dead in the water.

General Calls For War on Soviet Union
