3½c HOUR FOR U.S. COOLES

Winston-Salem, N.C. - We were freeze-frame from the Winston-Salem Journal:

"Labor at 3½c an hour is a half cent an hour less than Chinese workers." A worker at the International Defense League was arrested and charged with criminal activity. The worker was released.

CONFERENC TO DEMAND SCHOOLS

Charlotte, N.C. - As part of the system of persecution against the Negroes in North Carolina, Little "Bill" under government-controlled schools are given to the Negro children. The majority of workers in this section are Negroes. Low wages are enforced on Negro workers.

WAR IN THE K.Y. MINE FIELDS

By DAN BROOKS

Fighting for the right to organize, the miners of Harlan count were on strike in April. The United Mine Workers of America had collected thousands of dollars in strike funds. The union's chief of staff, Joe Hill, was elected to the union's executive committee.

The miners returned home after this meeting and the next day, workers who had attended the meeting at Pinellas, and the strike was continued.
Atlanta Family Victims of Police Brutality

By JIM HAWKINS

This past summer, a negro boy, identified only as Negro, was killed by the police in Atlanta. The boy was convicted of murder and sentenced to death by an all-white jury. The case has aroused much controversy and has brought to light the problem of police brutality in the South.

The boy, a 15-year-old Negro, was shot dead by the police while playing with a toy gun. The police said he was armed with a knife and had shot at them. The boy's family believes he was innocent and that the police used excessive force.

The case has sparked a protest by the Negro community in Atlanta and throughout the South. The NAACP and other civil rights groups have called for a investigation into the death of the boy and for reforms in the police force.

N.M.U. Makes New Plans For Strike

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 18 (AP) - A special meeting of the Central Bank and File Miners Committee will be held here today to discuss plans for the coal miners' strike.

The coal miners have been on strike since Sept. 18, 1950, demanding an increase in wages and better working conditions. The miners have been拒绝 to return to work unless their demands are met.

The mine owners have offered to negotiate, but the miners refuse to accept anything less than their original demands. The strike has caused widespread disruption of the U.S. coal industry and has led to a shortage of coal.

Lynching Law At Work

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) - The lynching of a Negro in Greenville yesterday is the latest in a series of similar incidents in the state. The victim, a 30-year-old Negro, was shot to death by a mob.

The lynching occurred in a rural area of the county, where white-supremacist groups have been active. The victim had been accused of raping a white woman.

Reign of Terror Sweeps Birmingham

THOMPSON, Ala. (AP) - The reign of terror is now at work in Birmingham, Alabama. The city has been the scene of several recent lynchings, including the deaths of two Negroes yesterday.

The lynchings have been carried out by white-supremacists who are opposed to the civil rights movement. The victims were minority rights leaders who had been advocating peaceful protest.

The reign of terror has sparked widespread condemnation and has led to increased pressure on the federal government to take action.

NEW TRICK TO JAIL WORKERS USED IN N. O.

By a Worker Correspondent

Instead of coming out openly with a system of terror and forcing out the workers with guns and clubs, the plant management has now decided to use a more refined method of forcing out the workers. They are using a 'new trick' which consists of arresting the workers for 'violations of the law' and then refusing to release them unless they agree to leave the plant voluntarily.

In this manner, they have managed to force out several hundred workers in the past week. They are now working on a larger scale and it is expected that many more will be forced out in the near future.

The police have a good excuse for the arrests, but the workers are fighting back. They are organizing and preparing for a strike, which is expected to be a major event in the history of labor in the area.

Landowner Wants "No White Trash Croppin' For Me"

By a Worker Correspondent

Charlestown, Ala. — One of the white planters, Mr. W. H. Jones, is reported to have said in a recent interview with a local newspaper: "I don't want any niggers to work on my plantation. I've got a lot of white laborers, and I want to keep it that way. If I can't get white laborers, I'll have to hire them."

Mr. Jones is said to have added: "I don't care what the other workers say. I want white laborers, and I won't let any nigger come on my plantation."

This statement has caused a great deal of excitement among the workers, who are determined to fight back against this discrimination.

Don't Spill the Beans

MEXICO CITY, Mex. — George Parker, editor-in-chief of the Stephenville Star, in a recent interview with a local newspaper, said that the government is trying to keep the news of the strike in the coal fields out of the newspapers.

The government is afraid that the news of the strike will cause unrest among the workers and that they will demand better wages and working conditions.

PARKER: "The government is trying to keep the news out of the newspapers. They are afraid that the workers will get angry and demand better wages and working conditions."

The workers are determined to fight back against this unfair practice and to demand better wages and working conditions for all workers."

FARM BOARD FANCIES

The latest solution the Farm Board proposes for all the millions of starving farmers in a half-those in the South is cotton. Too much cotton, therefore, less is destroying the world. That this cotton and the cotton and vegetables and rice and other foods produced by the farmers could be used by the people, is not feasible. Earlier the farmers could see through the situation. Half asked workers and farmers need clothes, starting workers, and their children need food, but the price up. Like every other "reformed" agrarian act the ruling class and its government proposes, this latest one is designed to put the burden of this on the farmers, to divert the taxes of a billion dollars to the big financial interests. POLICY OF HUNGER GOVERNMENT

No matter that millions of tenant farmers and poor farmers and their families are barely keeping alive out of the meager allowances. No matter that cotton growers and poor farmers are facing the same problems and are being dragged down by these, and the large landlords and the merchants and banks are added at the price of even greater misery for the poor farmers and croppers. These methods of the so-called "Reformer" governance of the country, the so-called agrarian policies of the National Bank, the so-called agrarian policies of the National Bank, offers no solution. It cannot, for its only concern is increased profits and increased exploitation of the millions of poor and workers. The landlords and farmers have taken control of industry, agriculture, and the government and will be no waste of food and clothing, while millions of hungry workers and farmers are at the mercy of these two classes. The unscrupulous men and women in the government are only interested in the interests of the rich. The entire system of the government is to be destroyed. The workers and farmers are the strongest forces in the country. The workers and farmers have the power to organize and force the issue to be decided at the polls.

"Law and Order" in Harlan County

The Harlan county of Kentucky is a mountainous region, home to scores of small farmers and tenant farmers. The farmers work hard and are proud of their land. They have a deep respect for the land and the crops they grow. The tenant farmers, on the other hand, are at the mercy of the landlords. The landlords control the land and the crops, and the tenant farmers are forced to work long hours for little pay. The tenant farmers are often forced to sign contracts that allow the landlords to take a large percentage of their crops as payment. The landlords have the power to evict tenant farmers who are unable to pay their rent or are unable to grow enough crops to pay their rent.
