Kentucky Convention Prepares Strike

WINGER MARCHERS REACH WASHINGTON AS CONGRESS OPENS

Call To Action Against Harlan-
Thug Rule and Mass Starvation

For a District Convention of the National Miners Union in Kentucky.

To Take Place December 13th, 9 a.m. at K. of P. Hall, Pinson, Kentucky.

Build the National Miners' Union! Elect Your Delegates to the Convention! Organize and Strike Against Starvation!

The following call to action by the National Miners' Union has been issued. We urge all workers in Kentucky to attend the convention to be held in Pinson, Alabama. The convention will focus on organizing and striking against mass starvation in the coal fields. The call to action includes a commitment to building the union and electing delegates to the convention.

The call to action emphasizes the need for workers to organize and strike to fight against the thug rule and mass starvation. The convention will be held on December 13th at 9 a.m. at the K. of P. Hall in Pinson, Kentucky. The convention is an opportunity for workers to come together and discuss strategies for organizing and striking against the conditions in the coal fields.

The call to action highlights the suffering of workers and their families, who are facing hunger and starvation. The call to action is a call to action for workers to stand together and fight against these conditions.
Miners From All Fields Support Kentucky Plans for Strike Action

(Continued from Page 1)
It will also take up the question of defending our arrested and persecuted members in Kentucky. Every local of the National Miners' Union shall elect three or five delegates to the convention. Every Woman's Branch shall also send one delegate. We know where we have local unions as yet, they will be established at once and delegates elected.

We also invite the members of Alabama, Tennessee and Virginia to send delegates to the convention, and we offer them our full support. With the support of the working class we will achieve victory.

FORWARD TO THE DISTRICT CONVENTION OF THE N. M. U. IN KENTUCKY!

KENTUCKY PLANS FOR STRIKE ACTION

RELEASE ALL THE ARRESTED MINERS!

FORM A DISTRICT CONVENTION OF THE NATIONAL MINERS UNION

OPERATE A COMMITTEE OF ACTION IN EVERY MINE!

DOWN WITH THE U. M. W. A. AND I. W. W.—AGENTS OF THE COAL

ELECT DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION

CONVENTION ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE, NATIONAL MINERS UNION

Concerning All Information Write to 73, Pineville, Kentucky.

TAMPA POLICE TRY TO SMASH PICKET LINE

Tampa, Fla.—In spite of a double police force of 200, including 100 club and club joiners, with 150 police cars, 70 red light vehicles and 170 marksmen, now in its second day, the workers are still holding the line.

Early Friday the attempt to drive off the picket line at the South Eastern Railway freight station at Hernando.

Many large ships supposed to be carrying the Spanish force are reported to be in Northern Manchuria. Unquestionably in view of the discovery of munitions and dockyards in the city of Harbin. Some of the navy are supplying arms and munitions to white guard Russian detachments in Northern Manchuria as a part of the war of intervention that is being plotted against the Soviet Union.

League Behind War Moves

The League of Nations is still car-ging on its underhanded support of the Japanese military intervention to try to crush the Chinese revolution and to lay a military base for intervention against the Soviet Union.

Asian Bond, the notorious fashion-styled union and the Union and employers of white guard and counter revolutionary elements in Manchuria, is aggressively back-ning Japan's war of intervention.

The agents of the British government are helping to finance the war

in China. The United States Im-perialists ravage of colonial peoples supports the war of intervention especially those activities concerned with establishing an anti-Soviet base in Manchuria. The League of Nations opposes Japan's efforts to strengthen its position. Before the trickery of the United States and Imperialists through influence in the League of Nations, the United States has been going on attempts to again revive China between the imperialist hand-i ners, with the aid of both banks of the Yalu, has already caused many losses along the border. For the past thirty years, pursuing a pol-

c
cy aimed a securing complete dom-nination of the Far East, it is now trying to assert its position in the Far East.

Fight War Plotters

More and more, it is necessary to point the finger of呵

charge at those who are today ignobly selling China to Japan, to destroy the Chinese revolution, and to crash over the Soviet borders in a war against the workers' fatherland.

Weage a mass struggle against war and insist that all war funds be used against the war to aid the struggles of

by committees of workers.

cen

in the United States, the government is trying to crush China, to destroy the Chinese revolution, and to crash against the Soviet borders in a war.

Congress passes law allowing

Communists to serve in Congress

by the Congress of Industrial

Organizations and prevent the organization of labor unions and militias from facing a continuous fight on the part of more increasing numbers of white guards and their callousness, the L.I.D. is here to stay. The Scotsboro boys will be defended and the movement to free

them will grow mightier.

The fight to help the Har

noverians: a fight to help the unem-

employed will grow mightier.

The fight to help the Har

noverians: a fight to help the unem-

employed will grow mightier.

A fight to help the Har

noverians: a fight to help the unem-

employed will grow mightier.

A fight to help the Har

noverians: a fight to help the unem-

employed will grow mightier.
No Work for Negro Workers in B’ham. Charlotte Fakers Cheat On Charity

(By a Worker Correspondent) BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—The management of the Southern Coal Corporation has refused to grant demands of the Negro workers. The company has informed the workers that they will not grant any more demands until the ones already made are satisfied. The company has threatened to close down the mine if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The Char- lotte News has reported that the city council has refused to grant any more demands of the workers. The council has threatened to close down the city if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—The management of the Southern Coal Corporation has refused to grant demands of the Negro workers. The company has informed the workers that they will not grant any more demands until the ones already made are satisfied. The company has threatened to close down the mine if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The Char- lotte News has reported that the city council has refused to grant any more demands of the workers. The council has threatened to close down the city if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The Char- lotte News has reported that the city council has refused to grant any more demands of the workers. The council has threatened to close down the city if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—The man- agement of the Southern Coal Corporation has refused to grant demands of the Negro workers. The company has informed the workers that they will not grant any more demands until the ones already made are satisfied. The company has threatened to close down the mine if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The Char- lotte News has reported that the city council has refused to grant any more demands of the workers. The council has threatened to close down the city if the workers do not return to work.

(By a Worker Correspondent) BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—The man- age...
The Southern Worker

One of the most horrible and ghastly lynchings in all the banal annals of ruling class violence occurred last Thursday in Salisbury, Maryland. Many witnesses declared that the victim was shot and clubbed to death against his wagons while bound. The slave-driving boss, Daniel J. Elliott, replied by shooting the worker. Although severely wounded the Negro was able to escape with the murderous boss and in the scuffle the boss was fatally shot.

Because he refused to stand still and be shot to death by the labor agents, he was severely beaten and battered about the face and body and was viewed as an expression of determination to struggle against the existing conditions. The Negro stated that he was one of the Carolina boxers, Inspector Littlejohn, followed by three other police thugs, throughout the entire proceedings, attempting to bulldoze the white and Negro workers who, in the best tradition of Southern trade unionism, mounted a determined resistance against the massive imposition upon the young Negro workers by the boss class of Charleston and in defiance through the City Government.

A young Negro girl worker testified how, in her narrative, the trip was a trip of terror against young Negro workers, arrest, and beating them whenever the bosses found it convenient.

At this moment a young Negro girl, 14 years of age, arrived at the factory. She told the boss that he had gone on a tear over something or other and that she had nothing to do with it. They refused to give her a trial saying that she was only a kid and therefore they had no need to whip her.

White children of textile workers testified how they went to school and met with many unpleasant experiences. They told how they had to get out books because they could not buy any.

Broadway, eleven years old, daughter of a textile worker, told of her father working 12 hours a day. The boss allows him to have but 12 hours in which to do his work.

She is forced to go without shoes and must go to school without them. She brings home a 12-hour week to pay rent and buy the few necessities to keep them alive.

A young Negro work- er, testified how he was turned down by the Associated Charities after being out of work for two months, on the excuse of "not married." Ralph Garrett another young Negro worker, told of his job as a candy man at the Associated Charities to cut cordwood and how after working two weeks he was laid off for stealing 10 pounds of groceries. He can only get two days work a week. Young workers hundreds of girls, who work at the Associated Charities received a haul of $165,000 from the Community Chest and how a big fight is going on for actual relief of the unemployed.

At the opening of the trial, Littlejohn and his fellow lackeys were brought in, the jury adjourned and new counsel was appointed in defense of the hunger system of Charlotte, but they kept silent.

The trial, in exposing the minia- turization of young colored and white youth, also pointed out and convinced every worker in the ball of the great need for struggle against the bosses' system as the only guarantee for defense in the fields of life. The Associated Charities has been the official agent of the Hunger March to Washington.

Help the Southern Worker to fight the storm. Send subscription to Box 1635, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Smash the Lynching Campaign

One of the most ghastly and ghastly lynchings in all the banal annals of ruling class violence occurred last Thursday in Salisbury, Maryland. Many witnesses declared that the victim was shot and clubbed to death against his wagons while bound. The slave-driving boss, Daniel J. Elliott, replied by shooting the worker. Although severely wounded the Negro was able to escape with the murderous boss and in the scuffle the boss was fatally shot.

Because he refused to stand still and be shot to death by the labor agents, he was severely beaten and battered about the face and body and was viewed as an expression of determination to struggle against the existing conditions. The Negro stated that he was one of the Carolina boxers, Inspector Littlejohn, followed by three other police thugs, throughout the entire proceedings, attempting to bulldoze the white and Negro workers who, in the best tradition of Southern trade unionism, mounted a determined resistance against the massive imposition upon the young Negro workers by the boss class of Charleston and in defiance through the City Government.

A young Negro girl worker testified how, in her narrative, the trip was a trip of terror against young Negro workers, arrest, and beating them whenever the bosses found it convenient.

At this moment a young Negro girl, 14 years of age, arrived at the factory. She told the boss that he had gone on a tear over something or other and that she had nothing to do with it. They refused to give her a trial saying that she was only a kid and therefore they had no need to whip her.

White children of textile workers testified how they went to school and met with many unpleasant experiences. They told how they had to get out books because they could not buy any.

Broadway, eleven years old, daughter of a textile worker, told of her father working 12 hours a day. The boss allows him to have but 12 hours in which to do his work.

She is forced to go without shoes and must go to school without them. She brings home a 12-hour week to pay rent and buy the few necessities to keep them alive.

A young Negro worker, testified how he was turned down by the Associated Charities after being out of work for two months, on the excuse of "not married." Ralph Garrett another young Negro worker, told of his job as a candy man at the Associated Charities to cut cordwood and how after working two weeks he was laid off for stealing 10 pounds of groceries. He can only get two days work a week. Young workers hundreds of girls, who work at the Associated Charities received a haul of $165,000 from the Community Chest and how a big fight is going on for actual relief of the unemployed.

At the opening of the trial, Littlejohn and his fellow lackeys were brought in, the jury adjourned and new counsel was appointed in defense of the hunger system of Charlotte, but they kept silent.

The trial, in exposing the minia- turization of young colored and white youth, also pointed out and convinced every worker in the ball of the great need for struggle against the bosses' system as the only guarantee for defense in the fields of life. The Associated Charities has been the official agent of the Hunger March to Washington.

Help the Southern Worker to fight the storm. Send subscription to Box 1635, Chattanooga, Tenn.