Strike Against Rail Pay Cut

On top of the railroad wage wars, the case of the long-"out-of-job" worker is a strike against the railroads. A common tactic of the railroads is to lower wages and eliminate jobs. The Southern Worker reports on this issue.

POLICE CONTINUE ATTACKS ON HUNGER MARCHERS RETURN

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Police last week reported the fifth straight day that new demonstrations were held in the streets of the capital. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, with the support of the Knights of Labor, have announced plans for a national strike in protest against the police. The NAACP has called on all Negroes to participate in the strike, which is expected to begin on January 20th. The strike is expected to last for one week. The Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters has declared that it will not recognize any strike called by the NAACP, and that it will continue its work as usual.

MINERS WAGES HIGH IN LAND OF SOVIET RULE

NEW YORK.—The United Mine Workers of America have raised their wages to $75 a week in the land of Soviet rule. This is a decided improvement over the previous wages, which were $70 a week. The mine workers are pleased with the new wages, which they feel are fair and just.

The coal miners in the land of Soviet rule are enjoying a high standard of living. Their wages are high, and they have good working conditions. The Soviet government has made efforts to improve the wages and working conditions of the mine workers, and they are pleased with the results.

A Soviet Factory

The mine workers in the land of Soviet rule have established a Soviet factory. The factory is operated by the mine workers, and it is designed to produce coal and other minerals.

The factory is well equipped, and the mine workers are working hard to produce coal and other minerals. The Soviet government is providing assistance to the mine workers in the establishment and operation of the factory.

The mine workers are confident that the factory will be a success, and they are looking forward to the future with hope and optimism.

Wanted Free Hand in Lending

That exist yet, the Chattanooga Daily Times, wants the Interstate Commerce Commission to do "something" about the "free" service that the South has been required to lend to the North. The present situation is said to be "free" in the sense that the whole of the country is "free" to compete without restrictions. What the Times wants is a ban on such "free" services to the North. The Times does not want the Interstate Commerce Commission to decide whether or not such services should be "free." What it wants is a ban on such "free" services to the North, and a ban on the "free" service that the South has been required to lend to the North.

The Times, in a series of editorials, has been using the "free" service as a weapon to attack the North. The Times has been saying that the "free" service is a "free" weapon to the North, and that the South has been forced to lend the "free" service to the North.
