RICHMOND, Va.—A mass meeting demanding free shoes, clothing and hot lunches to the children of the unemployed will be held here Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 8 p.m. at the Armstrong High School, and will be addressed by the Board of Control. The committee told the Board that two thousand families had been dropped from the relief rolls in Travis county.

"You're being cut off now with winter ahead," Hayball shouted, pointing his finger at the table. "It's all these devils' officials doing it. That's where the money goes, and if you Board members claim, 100 don't get enough."

The committee also claimed that the children are being turned away from the schools because they are unable to attend school because they lack sufficient clothing. The children are suffering from hunger and cold.

"We're going to do about it," Hayball shouted. "We're going to insist that you Board members call the meeting. We're going to stop this thing."

The workers are demanding their rights to vote here in the U.S., the Soviet government has announced that 10,000 new voters will participate in the Soviet general elections to be held Nov. 10 to elect delegates to the Seventh All-Union Soviet Parliament.

The new voters are mostly youth, just reaching voting age (18 to 20), and rich farmers and their families who have proven by hard work and thrift to become capitalists. They will be elected to represent workers in factories and trade unions, including women and men of all nationalities. In the Kabardino-Balkar Republic, one of the self-governing Republics of the Soviet Union, Abkhazia, a Russian Negro, was elected to the Central Executive Committee recently.

The facts in the following story indicate the program has gained momentum after the kicking off of the campaign to be held on the street corners.

(From Labor Research Assn.)

While production in the iron and steel industry of the United States is now at a new high, bringing additional unemployment, conditions of Soviet steel workers continue to improve. The number of workers in the Soviet steel industry increased from 1,000,000 in 1933 to 1,300,000 in 1934, an increase of 30 percent.

Steel Wage Cut Is Bosses' Plan

NEW YORK: The wage cut which went into effect last week was announced by Tom M. Girard, hard-hitting president of the Republic Steel Corporation, who is one of the two bosses in New York City, early in October. He claims that steel—its 100,000 dollars—has been paying higher wages than the industry can afford.

A campaign to prepare for such a strike on the will be made by the Wall Street Journal which today published an article, a timely one to keep the strike from going on. In order to keep the strike from going on, they are publishing a weekly newspaper, a weekly tabloid, the Southern Worker, which is a daily newspaper, to keep the strike from going on.

Sharecroppers Plan Struggle

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—Struggle for relief, which has been cut off in all forms, the workers, and the Bankhead Act, which includes a $1 to $2 increase in the wages of sharecroppers in North Carolina. The depression, and preparations for a strike for higher wages has given rise to a new organization, the Sharecroppers Union. The first organization of its kind in the South, and preparations for a strike in the Spring, was the program decided on by 16 delegates to an all-day conference of the Sharecroppers Union.

A call to other organizations of sharecroppers and poor farmers in Arkansas and Tennessee, for a united front on these issues, was also made. Plans were made for a renewed drive for the extension of the membership of the Union, drawing in more members and new members who have not yet joined.

REPRESENTS YOUTH

By (F.P.T.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A young delegate who went to the Congress Against War and Fascism. There were twice as many young delegates as there were last year, over a thousand. While we were at the Congress, the people in a restaurant across the street would not let the Negro delegate come in. The young delegate went out to picket.

All the youth wanted to picket, but our leaders told us that we come there to attend the Congress and not to picket until after the Congress. The meeting we had was all right. We had about 15,000 people there. While the meeting at the Coliseum was going on, it was not known whether they came but they were not welcomed. They welcomed themselves, but they didn’t last long.

Friday, Sept. 29, we marched in a parade for the unemployed youth of Chicago. We marched through the streets of Chicago. We shouted “FREEER Tom Muoney.”

THEY SHALL NOT DIE

Only a few short weeks from now, on Dec. 7, the rolling clays of the State of Alabama intend to strapp Clarence Norris, and Haywood Patterson, into the electric chair at Kilby Prison and thus will thus begin the life of these two.

That these Negro youths are innocent of any crime but that of being black, and hence need no further argument for any fair-minded person who, after the International Labor Defense has piled up proof, upon proof, upon proof, during the past 18 months, that they are innocent of any crime.

For many years, there has been a constant and continuous war against the Negro people in many ways.

From the days of the Reconstruction period, the cry of the laboring man has been for justice and equal rights. But the laboring man has been a constant target for the wealthy classes who have used their influence to suppress and silence the voice of the people.

The only way to end this is to organize and act collectively. Only then can we achieve our goal of equality and justice for all people.

Roosevelt and Soviet Union Have Different Aims; Stalin

MOSCOW, U. S. S. R.—Joseph Stalin, secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States, have been discussing the basic problems of the world economy and the international situation.

Stalin believed that the United States should not try to impose its will on other countries and that the United States should work towards a world order based on cooperation and mutual respect.

Roosevelt, on the other hand, believed that the United States should be strong enough to defend itself and that it should work towards a world order based on power and influence.

The United States has a different aim from the United States of America. The aim followed by Americans since the birth of the nation was to create a society in which the rich and the poor are equal. America's aim was to get rid of the cities, in the basis of private capitalism, striving for economic growth and building a new economy.

"As you know, in our country, it is in place of the old economic system, which was smashed, has been formed an entirely new and different economic foundation."

Pointing out that there can be no planned economy without a strong government, Stalin said: "What is planned economy? What are its various features? Planned economy strives to abolish unemployment, to improve working conditions, to ensure the welfare of the masses. Everyone should be employed, and unemployment can be reduced to a certain minimum."

"But the capitalist system will never agree to any plan that will give workers their rights."

"Joseph Stalin speaks for all those who are opposed to capitalism."

"Capitalism For Profit—Not Need"

Moreover, planned economy presupposes that the absence of destruction and the elimination of private property, whose products are particularly needed by the masses of the people," Stalin said, and showed that profit cannot be the end goal of a capitalist society. Hence, capitalism is not the way to achieve economic stability and social progress.

"You cannot ever hope a capitalist to cease himself and consent to a lower rate of profit when he is aware that the workers are to be organized and the workers are not to be exploited.

"In the United States, there is no such thing as cooperation between the individual and the collective."

"Socialism is the only way to achieve a better world. Only a socialist society can give the fullest satisfaction to those personal interests that are necessary for the progress of the race and the world.

"The Scottsboro Boys Speak for Themselves"

"But can you deny the contrast between classes between the class of the wealthy, the class of capitalists, and the classes of the poor and the proletariat."

"The struggle between the two classes is unavoidable."

"If the workers unite and act collectively, they can achieve their goals and improve their lives."

"The Scottsboro boys are an example of this. They fought for their rights and succeeded in doing so."

"We must stand together and fight for our rights. Only then can we achieve our goals."
