Troops, Jail Against Ga. Textile Pickets
Fails Stop Strike
NRA O. K. S. BLACKLIST

ROBINSVILLE, Ga.--Troops which arrested militant pickets and jumped the mobilization of armed and the berthing of rank and file strike leaders into a filthy, disease-bearing concentration camp with brutal attack at termination, have marked the first major attack since the general strike of southern textile workers to win better working conditions and the union label.

Approximately 1,000 workers at the Richmond Mill in Roanoke, Va., and in various mines in the state were arrested by the Georgia National Guard.

It is expected that a number of the arrested strikers will take legal action for "false arrest," which will be backed by protest on the part of thousands of union workers.

Meanwhile organization of Negro-The Wealth of the South has been made in the state, although he has refused to "push" his Negro employment insistence of the Negro.

On May 10, 1934, C. B. Jones, chairman of the Negro Employment Commission, was killed in a shooting incident.

"I notice in the Post of Jan. 1 that many Negroes of Jefferson County have been killed in the solidarity to support a bill such as the Communist propaganda." Not being a member of the Communist Party, and not knowing much about them, I am just expressing my views to a few Negro American citizens.

To the best of my knowledge, the movement of this bill is to stop the organized labor movement in Alabama. In this bill is proposed a very organized and unorganized labor movement in the United States.

This is an attempt to intimidate the people of Jefferson County, and the rest of the state will support such a bill.

The Supreme Court Decision on Tom Mooney

AN EDITORIAL

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision January 2, virtually admitted that Tom Mooney was convicted in 1916 on charges of inciting a strike. The Court held that the evidence was insufficient to warrant his conviction.

And yet, in the face of such admissions by the Supreme Court, the State of California continues to press its case against Mooney, who is serving a 20-year sentence for the same offense.

Although defeated in his plea for a new trial in 1916, Mooney has never ceased his efforts to have his conviction set aside, and he remains in prison to this day.

The workers of California will accept this decision and double their efforts in the fight for the freedom of Mooney.
